Tangled Sheets Stories And Poems Of Lesbian Lust:

Tangled Sheets Rosamund Elwin, Karen X. Tulchinsky, 1995 This luscious sequel to Getting Wet heats up the body of lesbian sex literature with a collection by for and about dykes in lust

Fantasies of Femininity Jane M. Ussher, 1997 In Fantasies of Femininity Jane Ussher focuses on unraveling the contradictory visions of feminine sexuality the fact that representations of the definition of woman seethe with sexuality yet for centuries women have been condemned for exploring their own sexual desires In her quest for the sources of feminine representation Ussher interviewed dozens of women as well as some men and combed popular media from Seventeen to Cosmopolitan and Dallas to Donahue to identify what shapes women's symbolic images of sex and femininity Ussher argues that women have effectively resisted and subverted these archetypal fantasies of femininity and in the process of so doing reframed the very boundaries of sex In this way she exposes as myth much of what we think we know about woman and about sex

Between the Body and the Flesh Lynda Hart, 1998 In this first book length study of lesbian's m Lynda Hart creates a vivid and compelling counterdiscourse to the erotophobic voices in contemporary cultural debates Focusing on a variety of representations from the boundary shattering work of queer performances to the daring conjunction of childhood sexual abuse and perverse desire in the work of Dorothy Allison Between the Body and the Flesh situates s m as a lightning rod that stimulates discussions of censorship in the arts the fetishization of sexual paraphernalia recombinations of class race and sexuality and the politics of psychoanalysis

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora
