Schmelz, 2021 Composers Alfred Schnittke and Valentin Silvestrov brought us some of the most memorable music of the late Soviet Union Sonic Overload traces these composers attempts to embrace all aspects of the contemporary soundscape including influences of popular music rock and jazz before they ultimately retreated to more refined sonic structures Paul Celan John Felstiner, 2001-01-01 Paul Celan Europe's most compelling postwar poet was a German speaking East European Jew His writing exposes and illumines the wounds that Nazi destructiveness left on language John Felstiner's sensitive and accessible book is the first critical biography of Celan in any language It offers new translations of well known and little known poems including a chapter on Celan's famous Deathfugue plus his speeches prose fiction and letters The book also presents hitherto unpublished photos of the poet and his circle Drawing on interviews with Celan's family and friends and his personal library in Normandy and Paris as well as voluminous German commentary Felstiner tells the poet's gripping story his birth in 1920 in Romania the overnight loss of his parents in a Nazi deportation his experience of forced labor and Soviet occupation during the war and then his difficult exile in Paris The life's work of Paul Celan emerges through readings of his poems within their personal and historical matrix At the same time Felstiner finds fresh insights by opening up the very process of translating Celan's poems To present this

Between Ethics and Aesthetics Dorota Glowacka, Stephen Boos, 2012-02-01 This forum of current discussions of ethics and aesthetics addresses a cross section of disciplines including literary theory philosophy women's studies postcolonial theory art history Holocaust studies theology and others Contributors ranging from philosophers and literary critics to practicing artists and art curators answer such questions as In the age of the collapse of metaphysics what is the relation between philosophical reflection and art If we question the privilege accorded to the aesthetic can ethics alone offer a solution to the crisis of representation Is it possible and ethically viable to represent the other in speech and image What happens at the conjunction of aesthetics and politics Can one speak of aesthetic configurations of the space of community Are the concepts of ethics and aesthetics gendered and repressive of sexual difference Considering the many works that consider either ethics or aesthetics almost exclusively within the confines of particular disciplines this collection crosses the boundaries and continues the debate outside the rigid parameters of specialized discourses Soviet Life, 1986 After Memory Matthias Schwartz, Nina Weller, Heike Winkel, 2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area s contested heritage The Wicked Waltz and Other Scandalous Dances Mark Knowles, 2009-06-08 The waltz perhaps the most beloved social dance of the 19th and early 20th centuries once provoked outrage from religious leaders and other self appointed arbiters of social morality Decrying the corrupting influence of social dancing they failed to suppress the popularity of the waltz or other dance crazes of the period including the Charleston the tango and animal dances such as the Turkey Trot Grizzly Bear and Bunny Hug This book investigates the development of these popular dances considering in particular how their very existence as taboo cultural fads ultimately provided a catalyst for lasting social reform In addition to examining the impact of the waltz and other scandalous dances on fashion music leisure and social reform the text describes the opposition to dance and the proliferation of literature on both sides In Search for a Theology Capable of Mourning H. Martin Rumscheidt, 2017-10-20 To what extent are the children of Holocaust perpetrators to feel remorseful or responsible for their parents wrongdoing Is the yearning by those offspring of Nazi sympathizers for forgiveness justified or should they separate themselves from their parents or relatives and ignore the history Such dilemmas have gnawed at theologian Martin Rumscheidt ever since at age eighteen he discovered his father s complicity in using Jewish slave labor at his workplace IG Farben He has written and spoken extensively about his journey in search of what he calls a theology of mourning that would preserve his concept of the reality of God and still recognize the reality at times grim reality of life Thirty Eventful Years Marquis Lafayette
