Teiser, 1988 Largely unstudied until now the religious festivals that attracted Chinese people from all walks of life provide the most instructive examples of the interaction between Chinese forms of social life and the Indian tradition of Buddhism Stephen Teiser examines one of the most important of such annual celebrations He provides a comprehensive interpretation of the festivities of the seventh lunar month in which laypeople presented offerings to Buddhist monks to gain salvation for their ancestors Teiser uncovers a wide range of sources many translated or analyzed for the first time in any language to demonstrate how the symbolism rituals and mythology of the ghost festival pervaded the social landscape of medieval China The Great Perfection (rDzogs Chen) Samten Gyaltsen Karmay, 2007 The Great Perfection rDzogs chen in Tibetan is a philosophical and meditative teaching Its inception is attributed to Vairocana one of the first seven Tibetan Buddhist monks ordained at Samye in the eighth century A D The doctrine is regarded among Buddhists as the core of the teachings adhered to by the Nyingmapa school whilst similarly it is held to be the fundamental teaching among the Bonpos the non Buddhist school in Tibet After a historical introduction to Tibetan Buddhism and the Bon the author deals with the legends of Vairocana Part I analysing early documents containing essential elements of the doctrine and comparing them with the Chan tradition He goes on to explore in detail the development of the doctrine in the tenth and eleventh centuries A D Part II The Tantric doctrines that play an important role are dealt with as are the rDzogs chen theories in relation to the other major Buddhist doctrines Different trends in the rDzogs chen tradition are described in Part III The author has drawn his sources mainly from early unpublished documents which throw light on the origins and development at the same time also using a variety of sources which enabled him to explicate the crucial position which the doctrine occupies in Tibetan religions Compendium of All Philosophies, 2025-02-03 The Sarvadar anasa graha presents sixteen philosophical systems known to its 14th century author The first and so far only English translation of the whole of the Sarvadar anasa graha dates from the nineteenth century when few of the source texts used by its author were accessible This new translation will rectify numerous current incorrect interpretations and misunderstandings of the text
