Gossip, Markets, and Gender Tuulikki Pietila,2007-04-01 All traders are thieves especially women traders people often assured social anthropologist Tuulikki Pietil during her field work in Kilimanjaro Tanzania in the mid 1990s Equally common were stories about businessmen who had bought a spirit for their enrichment Pietil places these and similar comments in the context of the liberalization of the Tanzanian economy that began in the 1980s when many men and women found themselves newly enmeshed in the burgeoning market economy Even as emerging private markets strengthened the position of enterprising people economic resources did not automatically lead to heightened social position Instead social recognition remained tied to a complex cultural negotiation through stories and gossip in markets bars and neighborhoods With its rich ethnographic detail Gossip Markets and Gender shows how gossip and the responses to it form an ongoing dialogue through which the moral reputations of trading women and businessmen and cultural ideas about moral value and gender are constructed and rethought By combining a sociolinguistic study of talk storytelling and conversation with analysis of gender the political economy of trading and the moral economy of personhood Pietil reveals a new perspective on the globalization of the market economy and its meaning and impact on the local level Winner Aidoo Snyder Prize African Studies Association Women s Caucus

A Plague of Paradoxes Philip Setel,1999 Presents an extended case study of the 20th century AIDS epidemic and the cultural circumstances from which it emerged The book brings together anthropology demography and epidemiology to explain how the Chagga people of Tanzania in Africa experience AIDS State and Law in the Development Process Ann Seidman,2016-07-27 Ann and Robert Seidman have written an invaluable theoretical and practical guide for those concerned with the role of the state in development Bereket Habte Selassie Professor of African Studies Howard University State and Law in the Development Process is a scholarly work and essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on the Third World its history and development It provides an excellent bibliography and analysis which sets out the fundamentals of research into the future development of the Third World Expertly written it embodies a research methodology which is linked to a theoretical perspective John F McEldowney Senior Lecturer in Law University of Warwick The post 1945 collapse of colonialism and the emergence of new nationalist governments seemed to promise plenty for all third world peoples Four decades later those promises lay in shards This book proposes a theory to explain the failure of third world states to transform the institutions that produce poverty and powerlessness for the mass of the population Based on that theory it proposes a methodology designed to facilitate the democratic exercise of state power through law to empower third world peoples to play an effective role in building a peaceful world of plenty for all

Becoming Muslim in Mainland Tanzania, 1890-2000 Felicitas Becker, 2008-09-11 Tanzania has moved from widespread conversion to Islam in the early twentieth century to recent bitter disputes over Islamic radicalism Using a combination of government mission and oral records this volume examines the intellectual and social forces behind these transitions The Statesman's Year-Book 1985-86 J. Paxton, 2016-12-27 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world A Select Bibliography On Economic Development John P. Powelson, 2019-05-20 This bibliography of more than 2 000 titles contains both books and journal articles primarily those published since 1970 Most of the entries are annotated The material is classified according to forty eight categories and there is also a list of relevant titles for each major country in Africa Asia and Latin America Bureaucracy in the Modern State Jon Pierre, 1995 Public administration is under increasing pressure to become more efficient better geared to the demands and opinions of citizens more open to contacts with transnational bureaucracies and more responsive to the ideas of elected policy makers
