Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan Tsao, Roger T. Ames, 2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse

Decoding Dao Lee Dian Rainey, 2013-12-16 Written by a leading authority on Chinese philosophy Decoding Dao uniquely focuses on the core texts in Daoist philosophy providing readers with a user friendly introduction that unravels the complexities of these seminal volumes Offers a detailed introduction to the core texts in Daoist philosophy the Dao De Jing and the Zhuangzi two of the most widely read and most challenging texts in China s long literary history Covers the three main ways the texts can be read as religious mystical and philosophical works Explores their historical context origins authorship and the reasons these seminal texts came into being along with the key terms and approaches they take Examines the core philosophical arguments made in the texts as well as the many ways in which they have been interpreted both in China itself and in the West Provides readers with an unrivalled insight into the multifaceted philosophy of Daoism and the principles underlying much of Chinese culture informed by the very latest academic scholarship Counterculture Through the Ages Ken Goffman, Dan Joy, 2007-12-18 As long as there has been culture there has been counterculture At times it moves deep below the surface of things a stealth mode of being all but invisible to the dominant paradigm at other times it is in plain sight challenging the status quo and at still other times it erupts in a fiery burst of creative or destructive energy to change the world forever But until now the countercultural phenomenon has been one of history's great blind spots Individual countercultures have been explored but never before has a book set out to demonstrate the recurring nature of counterculturalism across all times and societies and to illustrate its dynamic role in the continuous evolution of human values and cultures Countercultural pundit and cyberguru R U Sirius brilliantly sets the record straight in this colorful anecdotal and wide ranging study based on ideas developed by the late Timothy Leary with Dan Joy With a distinctive mix of scholarly erudition and gonzo passion Sirius and Joy identify the distinguishing characteristics of countercultures delving into history and myth to establish beyond doubt that for all their surface differences countercultures share important underlying principles individualism anti authoritarianism and a belief in the possibility of personal and social transformation Ranging from the Socratic counterculture of ancient Athens and the outsider movements of Judaism which left indelible marks on Western culture to the Taoist Sufi and Zen Buddhist countercultures which were equally influential in the East to the famous countercultural moments of the last century Paris in the twenties Haight Ashbury in the sixties Tropicalismo women's liberation punk rock to the cutting edge countercultures of the twenty first century which combine science art music technology politics and religion in astonishing and sometimes disturbing new ways Counterculture Through the Ages is an indispensable guidebook to where we've been and where we're going Dao and Sign in History Daniel Fried, 2018-10-29 From its earliest origins in the Dao De Jing Daoism has been known as a movement that is skeptical of the ability of language to fully express the truth While many scholars have compared the earliest works of Daoism to language skeptical movements in twentieth century European philosophy and have debated to what degree early Daoism does or does not resemble these recent movements Daniel Fried breaks new ground by examining a much broader array of Daoist materials from ancient and medieval China and showing how these works influenced ideas about language in medieval religion literature and politics Through an extended comparison with a broad sample of European philosophical works the book explores how ideas about language grow out of a given historical moment and advances a larger argument about how philosophical and religious ideas cannot be divided into content and context

study of the ninth century Chinese poet and recluse Han Shan Cold Mountain and Gary Snyder an American poet and environmental activist This book explains how Chan Buddhism has the potential to be recognized as an important voice in contemporary ecopoetry Martial Arts, Health, and Society George Jennings, Lorenzo Pedrini, Xiujie Ma, 2023-02-01 A Republic of Mind and Spirit Catherine L. Albanese, 2007-01-01 In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Mexicans and Americans joined together to transform the U S Mexico borderlands into a crossroads of modern economic development This book reveals the forgotten story of their ambitious dreams and their ultimate failure to control this fugitive terrain Focusing on a mining region that spilled across the Arizona Sonora border this book shows how entrepreneurs corporations and statesmen tried to domesticate nature and society within a transnational context Efforts to tame a wild frontier were stymied by labour struggles social conflict and revolution Fugitive Landscapes explores the making and unmaking of the U S Mexico border telling how ordinary people resisted the domination of empires nations and corporations to shape transnational history on their own terms By moving beyond traditional national narratives it offers new lessons for our own border crossing age The Divine Manifold Roland Faber, 2014-07-30 The Divine Manifold is a postmodern enquiry in intersecting themes of the concept and reality of multiplicity in a chaosmos that does not refuse a dimension of theopoetics but rather defines it in terms of divine polyphilia the love of multiplicity In an intricate play on Dante s Divine Comedy this book engages questions of religion and philosophy through the aporetic dynamics of love and power locating its discussions in the midst of and in between the spheres of a genuine philosophy of multiplicity This philosophy originates from the poststructuralist approach of Gilles Deleuze and the process philosophical inspirations of Alfred N Whitehead As their chaosmos invites questions of ultimate reality religious pluralism and multireligious engagement a theopoetics of love will find paradoxical dissociations and harmonizations with postmodern sensitivities of language power knowledge and embodiment At the intersection of poststructuralism s and process theology s insights in the liberating necessity of multiplicity for a postmodern cosmology the book realizes its central claim If there is a divine dimension of the chaosmos it will not be found in any identification with mundane forces or supernatural powers but on the contrary in the absolute difference of polyphilic love from creativity Yet the concurrent indifference of love and power its mystical undecidability in terms of any conceptualization will lead into existential questions of the insistence on multiplicity in a world of infinite becoming as inescapable background for its importance and creativeness formulating an ecological and ethical impulse for a mystagogy of becoming intermezzo The Complete Idiot's Guide to Taoism Brandon Toropov, Chadwick Hansen, 2002-03-01 You re no idiot of course You know Taoism is one of the world s oldest religions based on simplicity and balance However you may not know it has important parallels with modern Western life health ecology even in such pop culture icons as Luke Skywalker and the Beatles But you don t have to sit at the feet of a Taoist master to learn how the Taoist tradition has enlightened seekers throughout the centuries The Complete Idiot s Guide to Taoism will show you exactly why Taoist principles appeal to people from every walk of life In this Complete Idiot's Guide you get The history of the Daode Jing the world's shortest core religious text and Laozi its mysterious author The teachings of Zhuangzi the often overlooked master sage of Taoism An explanation of yin yang and what it represents Taoism's relationship to Zen Buddhism Chinese Just War Ethics Ping-Cheung Lo, Sumner B Twiss, 2015-05-15 This book offers the first comprehensive analysis of warfare ethics in early China as well as its subsequent development Chinese attitudes toward war are rich and nuanced ranging across amoral realism defensive just war humanitarian intervention and mournful skepticism Covering the five major intellectual traditions in the golden age of Chinese civilization Confucian Daoist Mohist Legalist and Military Strategy schools the book's chapters immerse readers in the proper historical contexts examine the moral concerns in the classical texts on their own terms reframe those concerns in contemporary ethical idioms and forge a critical dialogue between the past and the present The volume develops fresh moral interpretations of classical texts such as The Art of War Mencius Xunzi Mozi and the Daodejing and discusses famous philosophers such as Han Fei and Wang Yang-ming representing antithetical schools of thought about warfare Attention is also given to the military ethics of the People's Liberation Army examining its thinking against the backdrop of its own civilizational context This book will be of much interest to students of just war theory Chinese politics ethics and philosophy military studies and International Relations in general Speaking of Teaching . . . Avraham Cohen, Marion Porath, Anthony Clarke, Heesoon Bai, Carl Leggo, Karen Meyer, 2012-12-23 Teaching is a richly multifaceted endeavor It isn't always easy to know just where we should focus our thinking and our dialogue In Speaking of Teaching six educators talk about their inner selves They bring the inside out for their own self-exploration And they bring the inside out for us to view and learn from They also question the boundaries between the inner and the outer and whether existence can be dichotomized in this way Gary Poole Professor Faculty of Medicine The University of British Columbia 3M Teaching Fellow The authors of this collection explore the many ways to remain present in the midst of the trifling but perpetual swirl of events thoughts distractions and how they as they are at what T S Eliot called the still point of the turning world find profound meaning in their work as educators A deeply moving collection that allowed me too while reading it to rediscover that still point without which there would be no dance and there is only the dance Gerda Wever PhD editor and publisher The Write Room Press Zhuangzi and Modern Chinese Literature Jianmei Liu, 2016 This is a powerful account of how the ruin and resurrection of Zhuangzi in modern China's literary history correspond to the rise and fall of modern Chinese individuality By examining the twentieth-century reinterpretation and appropriation of Zhuangzi the author explores modern Chinese writers' complicated relationship with tradition The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistence of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality

Propositions in the Making Roland Faber,Michael Halewood,Andrew M. Davis,2019-11-13 How do we make ourselves a Whiteheadian proposition This question exposes the multivalent connections between postmodern thought and Whitehead s philosophy with particular attention to his understanding of propositions Edited by Roland Faber Michael Halewood and Andrew M Davis Propositions in the Making articulates the newest reaches of Whiteheadian propositions for a postmodern world It does so by activating interdisciplinary lures of feeling living and co creating the world anew Rather than a logical assertion Whitehead described a proposition as a lure for feeling for a collectivity to come It cannot be reduced to the verbal content of logical justifications but rather the feeling content of aesthetic valuations In creatively expressing these propositions in wide relevance to existential ethical educational theological aesthetic technological and societal concerns the contributors to this volume enact nothing short of a Whiteheadian Laboratory      The Cosmic Spirit Roland
