Taoist Teachings Liezi,1959 Taoist Teachings From the Book of Lieh Tzū Lionel Giles,2015-06-16 Excerpt from Taoist Teachings From the Book of Lieh Tz Translated From the Chinese With Introduction and Notes The history of Taoist philosophy may be conveniently divided into three stages the primitive stage the stage of development and the stage of degeneration The first of these stages is only known to us through the medium of a single semi historical figure the philosopher Lao Tzu whose birth is traditionally assigned to the year 604 B C Some would place the beginnings of Taoism much earlier than this and consequently regard Lao Tzu rather as an expounder than as the actual founder of the system just as Confucianism that is a moral code based on filial piety and buttressed by altruism and righteousness may be said to have flourished long before Confucius The two cases however are somewhat dissimilar The teachings of Lao Tzu as preserved in the Tao Te Ching are not such as one can easily imagine being handed down from generation to generation among the people at large About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Taoist Teachings Liezi,Lieh-tzu, 4th cent.
