Tapwe Selected Columns By Doug Cuthand:

Tapwe Doug Cuthand, 2005 Doug Cuthand has his finger on the rapid pulse of the First Nations from the politics to the pop culture His columns are brimming with his dry as a stick humour and cutting wit His natural world insights of contemporary events poke fun at technology Native politicians sex and tradition No stone is left unturned He s been in the communication business for over 30 years has worked as a journalist and a politician so he knows both sides of the truth And there s nothing truer than Doug Cuthand s words Tapwe Doug Jamie Monastyrski Editor Spirit Magazine Producing Sovereignty Karrmen Crey, 2024-03-05 Exploring how Indigenous media has flourished across Canada from the 1990s to the present In the early 1990s Indigenous media experienced a boom across Canada resulting in a vast landscape of film TV and digital media Coinciding with a resurgence of Indigenous political activism Indigenous media highlighted issues around sovereignty and Indigenous rights to broader audiences in Canada In Producing Sovereignty Karrmen Crey considers the conditions social movements state policy and evolutions in technology that enabled this proliferation Exploring the wide field of media culture institutions Crey pays particular attention to those that Indigenous media makers engaged during this cultural moment including state film agencies arts organizations provincial broadcasters and more Producing Sovereignty ranges from the formation of the Aboriginal Film and Video Art Alliance in the early 1990s and its partnership with the Banff Centre for the Arts to the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation s 2016 production of Highway of Tears an immersive 360 degree short film directed by Anishinaabe filmmaker Lisa Jackson highlighting works by Indigenous creators along the way and situating Indigenous media within contexts that pay close attention to the role of media producing institutions Importantly Crey focuses on institutions with limited scholarly attention shifting beyond the work of the National Film Board of Canada to explore lesser known institutions such as educational broadcasters and independent production companies that create programming for the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network Through its refusal to treat Indigenous media simply as a set of cultural aesthetics Producing Sovereignty offers a revealing media history of this cultural moment Autobiography as Indigenous Intellectual Tradition Deanna Reder, 2022-05-03 Autobiography as Indigenous Intellectual Tradition critiques ways of approaching Indigenous texts that are informed by the Western academic tradition and offers instead a new way of theorizing Indigenous literature based on the Indigenous practice of life writing Since the 1970s non Indigenous scholars have perpetrated the notion that Indigenous people were disinclined to talk about their lives and underscored the assumption that autobiography is a European invention Deanna Reder challenges such long held assumptions by calling attention to longstanding autobiographical practices that are engrained in Cree and M tis or n hiyawak culture and examining a series of examples of Indigenous life writing Blended with family stories and drawing on original historical research Reder examines censored and suppressed writing by n hiyawak intellectuals such as Maria Campbell Edward Ahenakew and James Brady Grounded in n hiyawak ontologies and epistemologies that consider life stories to be an intergenerational conduit to pass on knowledge about a shared world this study encourages a widespread re evaluation of past and present engagement with Indigenous storytelling forms across scholarly disciplines The Fictional North John Butler,Sue Matheson,2012-03-15 Western culture may have enshrined North as a touchstone by which all other directions are defined but the North is not one but a number of Netherlands like all frontiers the North is in its essence imaginative magicked out of ice and snow muskeg and tundra Storytelling is its generative principle the activity through which the North and Northerners call themselves into being In essays on topics ranging from the Aboriginal justice system in Canada to the search for the Northwest Passage to the cultural paradigms of medieval Iceland The Fictional North examines stereotypes and iconic images of the North the relationship of North to South and ethnographic and fictional models of Northernness This diversity of subjects and methodologies not only introduces readers to the diversity found above the 53rd Parallel but also reflects the catholicity of the North itself Interdisciplinary and timely The Fictional North offers insights into the North's past as well as its present to those interested in circumpolar issues and the areas of culture literature history film sociology and education Seeing Red Mark Cronlund Anderson,Carmen L. Robertson,2011-09-02 The first book to examine the role of Canada's newspapers in perpetuating the myth of Native inferiority Seeing Red is a groundbreaking study of how Canadian English language newspapers have portrayed Aboriginal peoples from 1869 to the present day It assesses a wide range of publications on topics that include the sale of Rupert's Land the signing of Treaty 3 the North West Rebellion and Louis Riel the death of Pauline Johnson the outing of Grey Owl the discussions surrounding Bill C 31 the Banded Elbow standoff at Kenora Ontario and the Oka Crisis The authors uncover overwhelming evidence that the colonial imaginary not only thrives but dominates depictions of Aboriginal peoples in mainstream newspapers The colonial constructs ingrained in the news media perpetuate an imagined Native inferiority that contributes significantly to the marginalization of Indigenous people in Canada That such imagery persists to this day suggests strongly that our country lives in denial failing to live up to its cultural mosaic boosterism Residential Schools and Reconciliation J.R. Miller,2017-01-01 Residential Schools and Reconciliation is a unique timely and provocative work that tackles and explains the institutional responses to Canada's residential school legacy Image and Inscription Gallery 44,2005 Image and Inscription features the work of many of Canada's distinguished authors critics curators and artists who are recognized for their contribution to the discourse and practice of photography it presents the diversity and the changeable milieu of photographic practice and evokes an unanticipated moment in Canadian photography It also represents an important step in expanding the contemporary authorship on photography in Canada adapted from the Introduction by Robert Bean Cree Restorative Justice John George Hansen,2009 This book explores the concept of justice through the eyes of six Omushkegowuk Swampy Cree Elders indigenous to northern Manitoba The author presents a model of restorative justice based on the educational ideas principles and practices of his people The knowledge philosophy values and experience of the Omushkegowuk is succinctly drawn out and espoused by use of the Medicine Wheel the character Wasekechak narrative and with reference to a holistic interpretation of life based upon interconnectedness and healing Publisher s description     Quill & Quire ,2005
