Desperate times call for desperate measures Even marriage Single dad Jax Wellington s world turns upside down when his former in laws show up in Emerald Ridge Texas demanding full custody of his beloved son What better way for the wealthy rancher to prove his upstanding nature in court than to marry the daughter of one of the most venerable families in town for appearances only of course Kindhearted Priscilla Fortune is game to become Jax s temporary bride But playing house with the closed off cowboy leads to powerful sparks Priscilla knew their arrangement was just for show But she never dreamed that this make believe romance might lead to the real thing a child she adores and the love she never thought she d find From Harlequin Fortunes of Texas Book 1 His Family Fortune by Elizabeth Bevarly Book 2 Fortune s Fake Marriage Plan by Tara Taylor Quinn Book 3 Fortune for a Week by Nancy Robards Thompson Book 4 Fortune on his Doorstep by Michelle Lindo Rice Ludwig Minkus; Fiammetta/Néméa Robert Ignatius Letellier,2010-03-08 Aloysius Ludwig Minkus 1826 1917 famous for his ballets Don Quixote 1869 and La Bayad re 1877 was born in Bohemia and grew up in the dance capital Vienna He hoped to establish a reputation as a violinist and composer and by 1853 had emigrated to St Petersburg where he became the conductor and solo violinist of the private orchestra of Prince Nikolai Yusupov In 1861 he was appointed violin soloist and a year later conductor of the Moscow Bolshoi Orchestra He began a happy collaboration with the great French choreographer Arthur Saint L on 1821 1870 who was a real friend and inspiration to Minkus and more than anyone else helped to launch his career as a theatrical composer producing five works in association with him in St Petersburg and Paris Minkus s first ballet the three act Plamya lyubvi ili Salamandra The Flame of Love or the Salamander also called Fiammetta was given its premiere on 13 February 1864 at the Bolshoi Kamenny Theater in St Petersburg with Marfa Muravyeva in the leading role The scenario and the choreography were by Saint L on the most important dance master of the day in both Paris and Russia Saint L on s influence secured this work production in the French capital and it was perhaps for this occasion that Minkus accompanied Saint L on to Paris to mount the work at the Acad mie Royale de Musique Reduced to two acts and re christened N m a ou l Amour veng with a scenario adapted by Henri Meilhac Ludovic Hal vy the ballet was performed at the Paris Op ra on 11 July 1864 with considerable success again with Marfa Muravyeva and with Eug nie Fiocre as Cupid It remained in the repertoire for seven years attaining 53 performances by 1871 Th ophile Gautier remarked on the atmospheric quality of Minkus s music its haunting dreamy quality Roqueplan singled out Saint L on s choreography for its imagination and originality his ability to handle masses Some of the Airs de Ballet were almost immediately published by Henri Hegel 1865 and are reproduced here By now Minkus was becoming known internationally So when five years later the Paris Op ra ordered a new grand ballet from Saint L on to a libretto by Charles Nutter Saint L on involved Minkus in the project securing for him a hand in the composition of the first and fourth scenes of this new work La Source. The other two scenes were entrusted to the young L. Delibes thirty at the time who had drawn favourable attention to himself in the preparation of the ballet music for the premiere of Meyerbeer's posthumous L'Africaine in 1865. The first performance of La Source on 12 November 1866 was great success for Delibes whose bold and colourful composition was praised at the expense of Minkus's subtler contribution. Saint-Lon immediately began planning another work with Nutter and Delibes and one which would crown the young French composer's success with triumph. Coppélia. Saint-Lon nevertheless continued to work with Minkus despite his busy engagements in Paris. The choreographer's greatest ballet for Russia was his work with Cesare Pugni Koniok Gorbunok The Little Humpbacked Horse 1864 based on a Russian fairytale. He now tapped into the same folk material in a new work with Minkus Zolotaya rybka The Golden Fish based on Alexander Pushkin's Legend of the fisher and the little fish. On 20 November 1866 for the celebration of the Tsarevitch's wedding Saint-Lon oversaw the production of a one act version of this new ballet Le Poisson dor at the Bolshoi Kamenny Theater in St Petersburg. The work was then developed as a three act ballet for the same theater a year later 8 October 1867. Minkus's music was very well received. As with La Source it was carefully adapted in form and mood to the scenario remarkable for its panache and beautiful writing for solo instruments violin flute cello cornet and for reflecting the nature of the fairytale scenario in the appropriation of national folk styles Polish Kazak Cossack. The score was considered worthy of full publication in piano reduction by the St Petersburg house of Stollowsky c 1870 and is reproduced here. The last collaboration between Minkus and Saint-Lon followed two years after that a partial arrangement of La Source given in St Petersburg as Liliya Le Lys in 1869.

Stories Real and Magical Leo Tolstoy, 2024-04-09 Outside of Russia Leo Tolstoy is known mostly as the author of the Napoleonic War epic War and Peace. Therefore this collection is bound to be a new experience for most since it includes a set of Tolstoy's stories intended for children.

The Cult of Tara Stephan Beyer, 2023-11-15 The real history of man is the history of religion. The truth of the famous dictum of Max Muller the father of the History of Religions is nowhere so obvious as in Tibet. Western students have observed that religion and magic pervade not only the forms of Tibetan art politics and society but also every detail of ordinary human existence. And what is the all pervading religion of Tibet? The Buddhism of that country has been described to us of course but that does not mean the question has been answered. The unique importance of Stephan Beyer's work is that it presents the vital material ignored or slighted by others the living ritual of Tibetan Buddhists. The reader is made a witness to cultic proceedings through which the author guides him carefully. He does not force one to accept easy explanations nor does he direct one's attention only to aspects that can be counted on to please. He leads one step by step without omitting anything through entire rituals and interprets whenever necessary without being unduly obtrusive. Oftentimes as in the case of the many hymns to the goddess Tara the superb translations speak directly to the reader and it is indeed as if the reader himself were present at the ritual. The real history of man is the history of religion. The truth of the famous dictum of Max Muller the father of the History of Religions is nowhere so obvious as in Tibet Western students have observed that religion and magic pervade not only the form

The Magical Adventures of Tara and the Talking Kitten Diana Cooper, 2011-04-01 Before Tara meets Ash ting an adorable gray kitten her life at both home and school is dreadful she doesn t know how to make friends or how to talk to her dad about things that are bothering her But soon Ash ting enters her life and turns everything around for Ash ting is more than just a handsome pet she can talk She helps Tara navigate social situations at school and provides encouragement and guidance in many ways The first in a new children s series this is a heartwarming story about a girl and her talking cat

Drops of Dew Kleopatra Kristbjörg, 2010-10-04 My life in a thousand years Bye see you in the next life Thats what they sometimes put in words But do they know who sometime say these words that these words are true In this book it tells the destiny of the same woman when experiences life after life The soul preserves its experience from previous lives and looks up those who related to ther soul before for good or evil But its all without conscious Some people take up meditation to experience their past lives others sometimes experience them through hypnotism but I dream about them Often they come to me in bits and then I have to piece them together Those who enter their past lives often recognize the people there as the people who are with them in this life friends or relatives even if they look different or are of a different nationality That is how it works with me I know the people that I have seen in past lives although of course I do not know them all and some I have yet to get to know When I get to know new people I can tell whether I have known them before in a past life or lives I feel like I know some of them and not others and I only connect with the people that I know that is those that I have known in a past life Some people I know in and out and trust completely even though I have never seen them before I have often thought about how peculiar this is and wondered about it but I got an explanation when I experienced my past lives and recognized people there that I feel connected to in this life I decided to keep a record of these dreams write them down in books and last autumn I started to make a story out of them Fact or fiction I do not know but all I can say is this These are my past lives Mine and the other peoples who appear in the stories and they are the same people who are with me today although not all of them When I sleep I return to the past to the olden days and I meet myself and others whom I know today I see the course of my life and that of others throughout many lives and I understand various things that were previously a mystery to me For example why am I interested in this Why do I like him even though I cannot stand him or more to the point even though I should not be able to stand him Why do I dislike this woman even though I do not know her Why is a certain woman such a good friend of mine even though she has so many character traits that I would not tolerate in others Why can I not eat meat Why am I so terrified of spiders Why am I so terrified of fire ved many lives and this book contains only two of them

Teacher Development for Content-Based Language Education Susan Ballinger, Ruth Fielding, Diane J. Tedick, 2024-09-10 This book fills a large gap in our understanding of how to prepare teachers for the challenging but increasingly popular task of integrating content and language instruction It brings together findings on content based teacher education from Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America in order to inform researchers and teacher educators and enable them to play a critical role in the continued success of such programs It offers a solid grounding in theories and applications of content based approaches with empirical studies investigating teacher identity materials design use of cognitive discourse functions and best practices for teacher education Responding to the growing popularity of content based programs and the shortage of qualified teachers for these contexts this book promotes teacher researcher collaboration and provides support for trainee teachers in service teachers and course leaders
