Tarnished Vision Crime And Conflict In The Inner City:

Tarnished Vision David Robins,1992 Tarnished Vision is the story of the rise and fall of a utopian community project told against a background of crime and delinquency in a troubled neighbourhood This vivid and authentic account of life in Satellite City is set in the 1980s a decade when the promises of the enterprise culture failed to deliver and the conditions were created for a generation to become hooked on crime Youth Crime and Youth Culture in the Inner City Bill Sanders,2004-12-15 Youth Crime and Youth Culture in the Inner City offers an interpretive account of juvenile delinquency within the modern inner city an environment which is characterized by a long history of social deprivation and high rates of crime A wide range of topics are explored such as young people s motivation for frequency of and attitudes towards a variety of illegal behaviors such as street robbery burglary theft drug use drug selling and violence Why do young people commit these offences Who do they commit them against How do they feel afterwards This book attempts to answer these important theoretical questions utilizing ethnographic research collected over a seven year period and based around the London inner city borough of Lambeth Making Sense of Suburbia Through Popular Culture Rupa Huq,2013-08-15 This book explores how notions of suburbia have developed in our collective imagination examining novels cinema popular music and television in the US and UK The Factors Responsible for Low Educational Achievement Among African-Caribbean Youths Cajetan Iwunze,2009-10-20 There is no available information at this time We Hate Humans David Robins,2011-10-27 We Hate Humans is a landmark in the study of soccer violence The first book to give voice to the denizens of the terraces it followed seven years of research onto the violent ends of Britain s football grounds such as Chelsea s Shed and Manchester United s Stretford End Through the vivid speech of the fans themselves it chronicles a subculture of disaffected young men their lives and backgrounds and their reasons for fighting We Hate Humans is a bizarre scary sometimes funny and always thought provoking look at one of the most intriguing social topics of our times The New East End Michael Young,Kate Gavron,Geoff Dench,2011-09-30 This is non fiction Brick Lane what life is really like around Brick Lane and the East End One of the most influential non fiction books of the 1950s was Family and Kinship in East London which examined in great depth the life of people living in the dockland areas that had been so comprehensively destroyed in the blitz What has happened since In the 50 years since the whole area has gone into terrible decline has been comprehensively redeveloped sometimes more than once and most important of all has seen the traditional families largely leave to be replaced by a huge influx of Bangladeshi families many of whom are now into the second generation What are their lives like How is the community coping with the radical change What are relations like between the old white population and the new Asian population Does government policy affect racism Here the authors show startlingly that housing policies have made race relations much worse and must be changed This will be very controversial The book is a comprehensive examination of life in one of the most intriguing parts of England but it stands for all Britain and indeed everywhere in the world with large new immigrant populations Race and Criminal Justice Hindpal Singh Bhui,2008-12-18 The social landscape of race and ethnicity within contemporary Britain has become increasingly diverse and complex The old exclusive research emphasis in criminology on the outcomes of social inequalities and policies is now challenged by an appreciation of how race and ethnicity are constructed and other theoretical perspectives This collection of papers will introduce students to these subjects and do so usefully by addressing contemporary themes that must be given attention by criminologists Professor Simon Holdaway University of Sheffield This collection provides useful and up to date information on the response of police prosecution prisons and probation services to the challenges of increasing ethnic diversity It is an excellent source for students and practitioners concerned with reforming policy and improving practice Professor David J Smith University of Edinburgh London School of Economics This text delivers a comprehensive overview of race and ethnicity across the criminal justice system It unpacks terms such as race diversity and multiculturalism to equip students with a thorough understanding of this complex subject area Featuring chapters by leading experts Race and Criminal Justice provides a specialist introduction to each area of the criminal justice system including police prosecution prisons and probation It also features stimulating discussion of contemporary issues such as criminal justice responses to refugees and asylum seekers and the experiences of Muslims within the criminal justice system post 9 11 and 7 7 Each chapter follows a consistent structure offering an overview of key theories relating to the study of race ethnicity and criminal justice analysis of research policy and practice chapter summaries and further reading to support understanding Politics of Ideocracy Jaroslaw Piekalkiewicz,Alfred Wayne Penn,1995-01-01 Explains why and how ideocratic and totalitarian governments emerge establish themselves evolve eventually collapse and disintegrate or transform themselves into new ideocracies The Borders of Subculture Alexander Dhoest,Steven Malliet,Jacques Haers,Barbara Segaert,2015-06-05 This book aims to revisit the notion of subculture for the 21st century reinterpreting it and extending its scope On the one hand the notion of resistance is redefined and applied to contemporary practices of cultural production and entrepreneurship On the other hand contributors reconsider the connection of subcultures to everyday culture exploring more mainstream forms of cultural production and consumption across a wider range of social groups As a consequence this book extends the scope to look beyond the white male adolescent urban cultures identified with earlier subcultural studies Contributors also examine fusions and crossovers between Western and non Western cultural practices Out of Sight Robert McAuley,2013-06-17 Youth crime is simultaneously a social problem and an intrinsic part of consumer culture while images of gangs and gangsters are used to sell global commodities young people not in work and education are labelled as antisocial and susceptible to crime This book focuses on the lives of a group of young adults living in a deprived housing estate situated on the edge of a large city in the North of England It investigates the importance of fashion music and drugs in young people s lives providing a richly detailed ethnographic account of the realities of exclusion and explaining how young people become involved in crime and drug use

Young men and women describe their own personal experiences of exclusion in education employment and the public sphere They describe their history of exclusion as the life and the term identifies how young people grew up as objects of suspicion in the eyes of an affluent majority While social exclusion continues to be seen as a consequence of young people s behaviour Out of Sight crime youth and exclusion in modern Britain examines how stigmatising poor communities has come to define Britain s consumer society The book challenges the view underlying government policy that social exclusion is a product of crime antisocial behaviour and drug use and in focusing on one socially deprived neighbourhood it promotes a different way of seeing the problematic relationship between socially excluded young people society and government Youth, The 'Underclass' and Social Exclusion Robert MacDonald, Robert Macdonald, 2020-07-24 The idea that Britain the US and other western societies are witnessing the rise of an underclass of people at the bottom of the social heap structurally and culturally distinct from traditional patterns of decent working class life has become increasingly popular in the 1990s Anti work anti social and welfare dependent cultures are said to typify this new dangerous class and dangerous youth are taken as the prime subjects of underclass theories Debates about the family and single parenthood about crime and about unemployment and welfare reforms have all become embroiled in underclass theories which whilst highly controversial have had remarkable influence on the politics and policies of governments in Britain and the US Youth the Underclass and Social Exclusion constitutes the first concerted attempt to grapple with the underclass idea in relation to contemporary youth It focuses upon unemployment training the labour market crime homelessness and parenting and will be essential reading for students of social policy sociology and criminology Cool Rules Dick Pountain, David Robins, 2000-08-01 Cool Rules introduces the reader to a new cultural category While the authors do not claim to have discovered Cool they believe they are the first to attempt a serious systematic analysis of Cool s history psychology and importance Britain's Inner Cities Monica Charlot, 1994 Emotions Monica Greco, Paul Stenner, 2013-10-31 Are emotions becoming more conspicuous in contemporary life Are the social sciences undergoing an affective turn This Reader gathers influential and contemporary work in the study of emotion and affective life from across the range of the social sciences Drawing on both theoretical and empirical research the collection offers a sense of the diversity of perspectives that have emerged over the last thirty years from a variety of intellectual traditions Its wide span and trans disciplinary character is designed to capture the increasing significance of the study of affect and emotion for the social sciences and to give a sense of how this is played out in the context of specific areas of interest The volume is divided into four main parts universals and particulars of affect embodying affect political economies of affect affect power and justice Each main part comprises three sections dedicated to substantive themes including emotions history and civilization emotions and culture emotions selfhood and identity emotions and the media emotions and politics emotions space and place with a final section dedicated to themes of compassion hate and terror Each of the twelve sections begins with an editorial introduction that contextualizes the readings and highlights points of comparison across the volume Cross national in content the collection provides an introduction to the key debates concepts and modes of approach that have been developed by social scientist for the study of emotion and affective life Unleashed Simon Harding,2014-02-01 Drawing on evidence from both sides of the Atlantic Simon Harding explores the culture of the status dog in Unleashed In housing projects in the United States and United Kingdom certain dog breeds convey status authority respect power and control on their owners while urban street gangs have developed the dangerous practice of training dogs to be weapons Combining perspectives from sociology criminology and public policy Harding contextualizes these related phenomena and considers the complex mix of factors motivating them including urban deprivation social control of public space and the influence of media imagery Ethnography John Brewer,2000-12-16 What is ethnography in social research To what use can ethnographic data be put Who are its fiercest critics Does ethnography have a future Ethnography is one of the principal methods of qualitative research and has a long established tradition of use in the social sciences However the literature on ethnography has become a battleground as ethnography is attacked from within and without the qualitative tradition Post modern critics attack the methodological status of ethnography and challenge the importance of its representations of reality and others argue that globalization narrows its application as localism disappears Ethnography provides a robust defence of this research method and establishes its continued relevance in the social sciences It sets out the competing methodological bases of ethnography and details its different uses as a research method The author offers guidelines for good practice in the research process as well as advice on the analysis interpretation and presentation of ethnographic data Although written as a textbook the contents are research led informed by the author s own extensive experience of undertaking ethnographic research in dangerous and sensitive locations in Northern Ireland and elsewhere The result is a lively and engaging read on an essential topic for both students and researchers Youth Crime and Justice Barry Goldson,John Muncie,2006-06 Youth Crime and Justice presents a detailed and comprehensive critical analysis of evidence from leading national and international scholars As such it provides a powerful antidote to the excesses of contemporary correctionalism Professor Andrew Rutherford University of Southampton Youth Crime and Justice is the most comprehensive and up to date collection on the market today A must for all researchers teachers and students of youth justice Professor Tim Newburn London School of Economics and Political Science and President of the British Society of Criminology For the first time leading national and international scholars have been brought together to engage explicitly with a comprehensive critical assessment of the relation between evidence and contemporary youth justice policy formation This book along with its companion volume Comparative Youth Justice edited by John Muncie and Barry Goldson will significantly advance the development of an emerging youth criminology The book is essential reading for criminology and criminal justice students researchers and practitioners Contributors Affiliations Tim Bateman is a Senior Policy Development Officer with Nacro a UK based crime reduction agency Chris Cunneen is Professor of Criminology and Director of the

The Palgrave Handbook of Youth Gangs in the UK Paul Andell, John Pitts, 2023-02-17 This handbook brings together cutting edge research from key contributors on the rapidly expanding and fast changing field of UK youth gangs It examines the contours of the academic debates describes and explains the origins and evolution of violent street gangs in the UK against a backdrop of globalization and discusses the factors surrounding the emergence of these gangs in each of the four UK nations and some English regions It also examines the relationship between gangs and wider issues relating to gender ethnicity drug distribution and organised crime It critically assesses the potential and limitations of Public Health approaches to gang violence reduction and the government s policy responses to violent street gangs in the UK Providing a broad examination of the latest UK gangs research with international comparisons it is essential reading for undergraduate and post graduate students in criminology sociology social policy and law policy makers at local and central government level and practitioners in the fields of law policing youth work social work housing and workers in dedicated voluntary sector organizations

Principles and Practice of Informal Education Linda Deer Richardson, Mary Wolfe, 2004-11-23 This new and exciting text is aimed at informal educators involved in youth work community work and adult education and health promotion The contributors explore the principles and practice of informal education and focus in particular on the notion of working with which is central to practice in this sector The book argues for an approach which is relevant to a number of professional fields and which focuses on a way of working rather than upon a specific target group The book looks at the role of an educator in informal education and youth work settings Comprehensive and analytical it looks at social cultural and political contexts of education The authors discuss the practical side of teaching from the setting programme planning and communication to activity based work one to one case work formal group work and managing the work load Finally the book analyses developing professional practice the use of line management and supervision and evaluation of work Persistent Young Offenders David Lobley,David Smith,2016-05-13 Based on some of the most interesting research of the last ten years this book discusses effective practice in work with persistent young offenders It contrasts two major evaluations of projects for juvenile offenders one of which was successful and the other less so The projects Freagarrach and CueTen were funded by The Scottish Office and the Scottish Executive Freagarrach was evaluated over five years from 1995 and CueTen over three years its entire lifespan from 1996 This book makes the findings of these projects available to a wider readership setting them in a wider discursive framework than is appropriate in a government report The authors identify the factors that made Freagarrach a more successful project than CueTen arguing that an understanding of these factors is important in drawing general conclusions from the experience of the two projects and that this is particularly the case because some of these factors have received little attention in recent discussions of what works in community based programmes for offenders This is a detailed and thorough study of work with juvenile offenders which will be of particular value to those interested in less punitive approaches It will be of interest both to practitioners and to academics in criminology social policy and social work
