Tarascon Alphonse Daudet crafts a vibrant narrative that captures the essence of French provincial life through the whims of its titular character Tartarin an eccentric and boastful hunter from the town of Tarascon The novel employs a rich humorous style blending elements of satire and adventure as it explores themes of masculinity identity and the absurdity of societal expectations Daudet s keen observations of human behavior illuminate the contradictions within the romanticized notions of heroism and bravery prevalent in 19th century France placing Tartarin s exaggerated exploits within a broader critique of the era s cultural norms Alphonse Daudet a prominent figure in French literature drew inspiration from his own experiences in the south of France where he witnessed the charm and quirks of provincial life His encounters with local characters and folklore infuse the narrative with authenticity and depth offering readers a glimpse into the complexities of character and culture that define his literary world Daudet s storytelling reflects his belief in the power of humor and irony as tools for social commentary making Tartarin de Tarascon a significant work in the canon of French realism Readers seeking a delightful combination of wit and insight will find Tartarin de Tarascon an irresistible exploration of the human spirit This novel not only entertains but also invites reflection on the nature of aspiration and the often ludicrous gap between reality and heroism Daudet s masterful prose and unforgettable characters render this work essential for those interested in French literature humor and the portrayal of life in the countryside Tartarin of Tarascon Alphonse Daudet, 1900

With Notes And Vocabulary In November 1861 Daudet<sup>2</sup> and a fellow traveler set out from southern France to hunt lions in Algeria To tell the truth I didn't go to Algeria expressly to hunt lions Above all I wanted to caulk my somewhat dilapidated lungs in the good warm sunshine But as soon as I set foot on the deck of the Zouave on which our enormous box of weapons had been embarked I really imagined that I was going to exterminate all the wild beasts of the Atlas Mountains The trip across the Mediterranean the city of Algiers and its environs the valley of the Chelif River groves of tropical trees barking jackals Moorish guitars the outlandish antics of his traveling companion all these sights and experiences left their record in the little green note books that Daudet brought back with him and from them he elaborated Tartarin de Tarascon About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Tartarin of Tarascon Alphonse Daudet, 2020-04-02 MY first visit to Tartarin of Tarascon has remained a never to be forgotten date in my life although quite ten or a dozen years ago I remember it better than yesterday At that time the intrepid Tartarin lived in the third house on the left as the town begins on the Avignon road A pretty little villa in the local style with a front garden and a balcony behind the walls glaringly white and the venetians very green and always about the doorsteps a brood of little Savoyard shoe blackguards playing hopscotch or dozing in the broad sunshine with their heads pillowed on their boxes Outwardly the dwelling had no remarkable features and none would ever believe it the abode of a hero but when you stepped inside ye gods and little fishes what a change From turret to foundation stone I mean from cellar to garret the whole building wore a heroic front even so the garden O that garden of Tartarin s there s not its match in Europe Not a native tree was there not one flower of France nothing hut exotic plants gum trees gourds cotton woods cocoa and cacao mangoes bananas palms a baobab nopals cacti Barbary figs well you would believe yourself in the very midst of Central Africa ten thousand leagues away It is but fair to say that these were none of full growth indeed the cocoa palms were no bigger than beet root and the baobab arbor gigantea giant tree you know was easily enough circumscribed by a window pot but notwithstanding this it was rather a sensation for Tarascon and the townsfolk who were admitted on Sundays to the honour of contemplating Tartarin s baobab went home chokeful of admiration Try to conceive my own emotion which I was bound to feel on that day of days when I crossed through this marvellous garden and that was capped when I was ushered into the hero s sanctum His study one of the lions I should say lions dens of the town was at the end of the garden its glass door opening right on to the baobab
