The Taste of Angels, a History of Art Collecting from Rameses to Napoleon. Francis Henry Taylor Francis Henry Taylor,1948     The Taste of Angels. A History of Art Collecting from Rameses to Napoleon Francis Henry Taylor,1955

Museums in Motion Edward P. Alexander,Mary Alexander,2008 In 1979 Edward P Alexander s Museums in Motion was hailed as a much needed addition to the museum literature In combining the history of museums since the eighteenth century with a detailed examination of the function of museums and museum workers in modern society it served as an essential resource for those seeking to enter to the museum profession and for established professionals looking for an expanded understanding of their own discipline Now Mary Alexander has produced a newly revised edition of the classic text bringing it the twenty first century with coverage of emerging trends resources and challenges New material also includes a discussion of the children s museum as a distinct type of institution and an exploration of the role computers play in both outreach and traditional in person visits     Women and the Art and Science of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century Europe Arlene Leis,Kacie L. Wills,2020-08-31 Through both longer essays and shorter case studies this book examines the relationship of European women from various countries and backgrounds to collecting in order to explore the social practices and material and visual cultures of collecting in eighteenth century Europe It recovers their lives and examines their interests their methodologies and their collections and objects some of which have rarely been studied before The book also considers women s role as producers that is creators of objects that were collected Detailed examination of the artefacts both visually and in relation to their historical contexts exposes new ways of thinking about collecting in relation to the arts and sciences in eighteenth century Europe The book is interdisciplinary in its makeup and brings together scholars from a wide range of fields It will be of interest to those working in art history material and visual culture history of collecting history of science literary studies women s studies gender studies and art conservation     Modern Perspectives in Western Art History

W. Eugene Kleinbauer,Medieval Academy of America,1989-01-01 A collection of essays that reflect the breadth of twentieth century scholarship in art history Kleinbauer has sought to illustrate the variety of methods scholars have developed for conveying the unfolding of the arts in the Western world Originally published by Holt Rinehart and Winston 1971     Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach,2010-01-15 This is the second volume in a series that traces century by century the role of Asia in the making of Europe The rise to world dominance of the Western nations in modern times and the rapid industrial growth of the West which outpaced the East in technical and military achievements have led to a historical eclipse of the ancient and brilliant cultures of Asia Historican Donald F Lach in his influential scholarly work Asia in the Making of Europe points out that an eclipse is never permanent that this one was never total and that there was a period in early modern times when Asia and Europe were close rivals in brilliance and mutual influence     The First Modern Museums of Art Carole Paul,2012-11-16 In the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the first modern public museums of art civic state or national appeared throughout Europe setting a standard for the nature of such institutions that has made its influence felt to the present day Although the emergence of these museums was an international development their shared history has not been systematically explored until now Taking up that project this volume includes chapters on fifteen of the earliest and still major examples from the Capitoline Museum in Rome opened in 1734 to the Alte Pinakothek in Munich opened in 1836 These essays consider a number of issues such as the nature display and growth of the museums collections and the role of the institutions in educating the public The introductory chapters by art historian Carole Paul the volume s editor lay out the relationship among the various museums and discuss their evolution from private noble and royal collections to public institutions In concert the accounts of the individual museums give a comprehensive overview providing a basis for understanding how the collective emergence of public art museums is indicative of the cultural social and political shifts that mark the transformation from the early modern to the modern world The fourteen distinguished contributors to the book include Robert G W Anderson former director of the British Museum in London Paula Findlen Ubaldo Pierotti Professor of Italian History at Stanford University Thomas Gaetgens director of the Getty Research Institute and Andrew McClellan dean of academic affairs and professor of art history at Tufts University Show more Show less

International Law, Museums and the Return of Cultural Objects Ana Filipa Vrdoljak, 2006-07-13 While the question of the return of cultural objects is by no means a new one it has become the subject of increasingly intense debate in recent years This important book explores the removal and the return of cultural objects from occupied communities during the last two centuries and analyses the concurrent evolution of international cultural heritage law The book focuses on the significant influence exerted by British U S and Australian governments and museums on international law and museum policy in response to restitution claims It shows that these claims far from heralding the long feared dissolution of museums and their collections provide museums with a vital new role in the process of self determination and cultural identity Compelling and thought provoking throughout this book is essential reading for archaeologists international lawyers and all those involved in cultural resource management

Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II Donald F. Lach, 1965 First systematic inclusive study of the impact of the high civilizations of Asia on the development of modern Western civilization

Interpreting Objects and Collections Susan Pearce, 2012-10-12 This volume brings together for the first time the most significant papers on the interpretation of objects and collections and examines how people relate to material culture and why they collect things The first section of the book discusses the interpretation of objects setting the philosophical and historical context of object interpretation Papers are included which discuss objects variously as historical documents functioning material and as semiotic texts as well as those which examine the politics of objects and the methodology of object study The second section on the interpretation of collections looks at the study of collections in their historical and conceptual context Many topics are covered such as the study of collecting to structure individual identity its affect on time and space and the construction of gender There are also papers discussing collection and ideology collection and social action and the methodology of collection study This unique anthology of articles and extracts will be of inestimable value to all students and professionals involved in the interpretation of objects and collections

Art History and Its Institutions Elizabeth Mansfield, 2002 What is art history The answer depends on who asks the question Museum staff academics art critics collectors dealers and artists themselves all stake competing claims to the aims methods and history of art history Dependent on and sustained by different and often competing institutions art history remains a multi faceted field of study Art History and Its Institutions focuses on the professional and institutional formation of art history showing how the discourses that shaped its creation continue to define the field today Grouped into three sections articles examine the sites where art history is taught and studied the role of institutions in conferring legitimacy the relationship between modernism and art history and the systems that define and control it From museums and universities to law courts and photography studios the contributors explore a range of different institutions revealing the complexity of their interaction and their impact on the discipline of art history BOOK JACKET

The Display of Distinction Monika Anne Schmitter, 1997 The Shows of London Richard Daniel Altick, 1978 A berserk elephant gunned down in the heart of London a machine for composing Latin hexameters and the original rock band 1841 these are but three of the sights that London curiosity seekers from every walk of life paid to see from the Elizabethan era to the mid Victorian period Examining hundreds of the wonderfully varied exhibitions that culminated in the Crystal Palace of 1851 this generously illustrated book sheds light on a vast and colorful expanse of English social history that has thus far remained wholly unsurveyed Drawing on a wealth of never before used information Mr Altick traces London exhibitions as they evolved from the display of relics in pre Reformation churches through the collections of eighteenth century virtuosi to the first science museums and public art galleries He also narrates for the first time the history of the panorama and diorama as an influential genre of nineteenth century popular art At every point the London shows are linked to the prevailing intellectual atmosphere and to trends in public taste The material is fresh and fascinating the range from freaks to popular science from the funeral effigies at Westminster Abbey to Madame Tussaud's waxworks impressive Like the exhibitions that best served the Victorian ideal of mass culture The Shows of London is both entertaining and informative

Handbook of Material Culture Chris Tilley, Webb Keane, Susanne Kuechler, Mike Rowlands, Patricia Spyer, 2006-01-05 The study of material culture is concerned with the relationship between persons and things in the past and in the present in urban and industrialized and in small scale societies across the globe The Handbook of Material Culture provides a critical survey of the theories concepts intellectual debates substantive domains and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things It is cutting edge rather than simply reviewing the field as it currently exists It also attempts to chart the future the manner in which material culture studies may be extended and developed The Handbook of Material Culture is divided into five sections Section I maps material culture studies as a theoretical and conceptual field Section II examines the relationship between material forms the human body and the senses Section III focuses on subject object relations Section IV considers things in terms of processes and transformations in terms of production exchange and consumption performance and the significance of things over the long term Section V considers the contemporary politics and poetics of displaying representing and conserving material and the manner in which this impacts on notions of heritage tradition and identity The Handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes an unique and fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human It will be of interest to all who work in the social and historical sciences from anthropologists and archaeologists to human geographers to scholars working in heritage design and cultural studies

The Museum Michael S. Sharpiro, 1990-07-24 This critical bibliography of museum studies comprises an organized collection of essays on the various types of museums art natural history history science and technology and folk and on general aspects collections education exhibitions etc that cut across the media Most of the essays are cogent substantial if not comprehensive and clear The editor has taken care to see that they follow a similar format of historical essay followed by a full bibliography of items discussed Library Journal As the number of museums in the United States has grown to more than 6500 in this century the museum profession has experienced similar growth In addition to academic training and accreditation programs in the field an expanding body of literature on museum history philosophy and functions has evolved little of which has received the critical attention it deserves This reference volume serves as an up to date guide to this wealth of literature identifying and evaluating works that introduce the general reader the museum studies student and the beginning professional to the history philosophy and functions of museums The volume presents a series of informative historical outlines and critical bibliographic essays on all aspects of museum history philosophy and functions Contributors treat such subjects as art museums natural history museums science and technology museums history museums collections exhibition education and interpretation and the public and museums Each chapter consists of an introductory historical narrative a survey of sources and a bibliographic checklist that contains cited and additional sources A set of appendices include a geographically organized bibliography of museum directories a guide to archives and special collections and a selective list of museum related periodicals The book concludes with a comprehensive general subject index This work will be an important reference tool for museum professionals and cultural historians as well as for courses in museum studies It will also be a valuable addition to both academic and public libraries

A History of Art Education Arthur D. Efland, 1990 Arthur Efland puts current debate and concerns in a well researched historical perspective He examines the institutional settings of art education throughout Western history the social forces that have shaped it and the evolution and impact of alternate streams of influence on present practice A History of Art Education is the first book to treat the visual arts in relation to developments in general education Particular emphasis is placed on the 19th and 20th centuries and on the social context that has affected our concept of art today This book will be useful as a main text in history of art education courses as a supplemental text in courses in art education methods and history of education and as a valuable resource for students professors and researchers The book should become a standard reference tool for art educators at all levels of the field The Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism Efland has filled a gap in historical research on art education and made an important contribution to scholarship in the field Studies in Art Education Implicit Understandings Stuart B. Schwartz, 1994-11-25 World wide in scope this volume brings together the work of twenty historians anthropologists and literary scholars who have tried to examine the nature of the encounter between Europeans and the other peoples of the world from roughly 1450 to 1800 the Early Modern era Poetic Exhibitions Eric Gidal, 2001 In the process of tracing poetic and critical responses to the museum and its collections Poem Exhibitions simultaneously demonstrates the impact of nationalist ideologies and scientific discourse on formal and thematic developments in Romantic poetry and aesthetics Private Collectors of Islamic Art in Late Nineteenth-Century London Isabelle Gadoin, 2021-09-09 This book examines British collectors of so called Persian art a broad umbrella term then covering a large portion of Islamic art in the late 19th century including ceramics metalwork carpets textiles and woodwork Based on a foundational event the very first exhibition of Persian and Arab Art held by a London Gentlemen s Club in 1885 this book follows one generation of men retracing the subtle shades of difference among amateurs connoisseurs experts and collectors and exploring all the mechanisms of the construction of a collective fascination for the Orient Isabelle Gadoin uncovers some of the first scientific analyses of Islamic objects and of the first private notebooks or exhibition catalogues to provide an in depth study of the way Westerners talked about Islamic objects and began to define what would become Islamic art history All the while Gadoin unravels the skein of Western prejudice Romantic fancy sincere admiration and ruthless appropriation in art collecting to write a new chapter of Orientalist history The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of collecting colonialism and postcolonialism and Orientalism Preaching and New Worlds Timothy Johnson, Katherine Shelby, John Young, 2018-12-07 This collection of essays examines the polyvalent concept of New Worlds in the context of medieval and early modern sermon studies While the terms Old World and New World are commonplace in studies of Europe and the Americas this volume explores how preaching in the Atlantic world and beyond creatively engaged audiences in addressing new cultural and religious perspectives regardless of their geographical location and time period The identification of the other in sermons is already an implicit recognition of a novel world which could be equally enticing and intimidating The scholars represented in this volume examine a wide panorama of medieval and early modern efforts as they identify how sermons which often served as a highly effective media of mass communication reflect shifting identities sometimes contested and sometimes embraced within long standing traditional constructs Particular themes include apocalypticism art and mission cultural interaction multilingualism forms of religious life and theological innovation
