Social Psychology Identities And Relationships:

Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting Social Psychology, 2017 Social Psychology - Identities and Relationships K. Ratele, N. Duncan, 2004-05-01 Community Psychology Anthony Naidoo, Jace Pillay, Brett Bowman, 2007 Book CD Community Psychology contains a rich diversity of insights and critical debates on the key theoretical analytic teaching learning and action approaches in community psychology The book offers an incisive examination of a range of contextual factors that influence the practice of community psychology in South Africa Social Psychology Stainton Rogers, Wendy, 2011-06-01 This is an introductory social psychology textbook that acknowledges two very different approaches being taken to social psychology experimental and critical These conflicting approaches are brought together in a single coherent text Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford, Rose Capdevila, Vindhya Undurti, Ingrid Palmay, 2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced Self, Community and Psychology Norman Duncan, 2004 A reader for students at the University of South Africa studying community psychology It addresses ideologies of race gender and sexuality that together create particular South African post colonial realities which legitimise oppression and cultural dispossession The Dynamics and Complexities of Interracial Gay Families in South Africa: A New Frontier Oluwafemi Adeagbo, 2018-12-12 This book provides an in depth account of a qualitative study on the familial arrangements and domestic settings shaping interracial gay partnerships in the South African context and it offers both empirical and theoretical insights on the topic While heterosexual intimate relationships particularly mixed race couples have attracted societal and scholarly attention in South Africa due to the country's past history of racial segregation it is however striking how little emphasis is placed on understanding same sex unions in a transforming South Africa This book is timely and important because it explores the vignettes complexities and dynamics of interracial gay intimate relationships an area that hardly gets the scholarly attention it deserves The book addresses the intersectionality and the question of how sexuality gender racial identity and personal resources influence the relationship as well as the way resilience strategies are drawn upon to sustain the partnership

Inter-group Relations Kopano Ratele, 2006 Following the undoing of the racist apartheid government this study critically examines the social and psychological issues that continue to trouble South Africans Topical concerns include language barriers homelessness stereotyping and racism HIV AIDS social influence and dominance as well as different ways of understanding intergroup conflict and cooperation

Shefer, Floretta Boonzaier, Peace Kiguwa, 2006 Psychology as a discipline has been criticised for perpetuating sexism reproducing gender inequality and neglecting marginalised perspectives Individual and Society Lizabeth A. Crawford, Katherine B. Novak, 2024-05-14 Unlike other texts for undergraduate sociological social psychology courses Individual and Society covers each of the three research traditions in sociological social psychology symbolic interactionism social structure and personality and group processes and structures With this approach the authors make clear the link between sociological social psychology theory and methodology Students will gain a better understanding of how and why social psychologists trained in sociology ask particular kinds of questions the types of research they are involved in and how their findings have been or can be applied to contemporary societal patterns and problems This new third edition makes the emphasis on social inequality within sociological social psychology a key theme in earlier versions of the book more salient throughout the text by including new or expanded discussions of intersectionality positionality the experiences of gender and sexual minorities racial microaggression contemporary social movements and the complexities of allyship Other additions to the text address the ubiquity of the Internet and social media where the authors consider how these phenomena have shaped the experiences of Generation Z the first digital natives and altered individuals self concepts and social relationships Engaging exercises and group activities are also embedded within each chapter to enhance students readiness to reflect and think critically about the social world around them and to improve their understanding of the different dimensions of sociological social psychology and how they relate to everyday life The Evolving Psyche of Law in Europe Magdalena

Smieszek,2021-06-04 The book applies an interdisciplinary analytical framework based on social psychology theories of inclusion and exclusion to a discussion of legal discourse and the development of legal frameworks in Europe concerning migrants asylum seekers refugees and European citizens It adopts a psycho historical perspective to discuss the evolution of international and European law with regard to the rights of citizens and asylum seeking non citizens from the law s inception following the Second World War up to present day laws and policies The book reveals the embracing of a European identity based on human rights as the common feature in European treaties and institutions one that is focused on European citizens and has inclusionary objectives However a cognitive dissonance can also be found as this common identity making runs counter to national proclivities as well as securitized threat perception oriented perspectives that can produce exclusionary manifestations concerning persons seeking asylum In particular a view of inclusion and exclusion via legal categorizations of status as well as distributions of social and economic rights draws attention to the links between social psychology and international law What emerges in the analysis a process of creating value is present both at its psychological roots and the expressions of value in the law Fundamentally speaking the emergence of laws and policies that center on human beings and human dignity when understood from a psychological and emotion based perspective has the potential to transcend the dissonances identified

The Relevance of Critical Citizenship Education in an African Context Elmarie Costandius,Freeman Odiboh,2016-04-30 Critical citizenship is a multi faceted contemporary social political and educational issue being discussed from a wide range of disciplines and points of view Unusually this collection brings together scholars in the fields of theology art and design to ponder various levels and forms of education including early childhood interventions the rehabilitation of young offenders and the impact of homosexuality in Malawi on citizenship and the links with theological teachings The common ground that brought participants together was a mutual collaborative search for the relevance for the African context of the notion of citizenship education be it critical democratic responsible active or preferably all of these forms or aspects of citizenship brought together

A Reflexive Inquiry into Gender Research Samantha Van Schalkwyk,2016-01-14 Questions that concern gender and violence against women have been placed firmly on the agenda of interdisciplinary research within the humanities in recent years Gender based violence against women has increased exponentially in South Africa and in other countries on the African continent particularly those with a history of political conflict Researchers who explore such gender issues have paid limited attention to the intersection between the social contexts of the researched the positionality of the researcher and the research product This book brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and scholar activists to explore new terrains of knowledge production interrogating the connection between the intellectual project of this kind of research and the process of its production Some chapters draw on theoretical insights and provide new ways of thinking about the kinds of questions that should be asked when conducting research in the field of gender. Other authors grapple with an acknowledgement of their multiple social positions in the world, the ways in which they experience these ever-shifting boundaries and how this influences their theoretical and practical work. Some contributions go further, discussing the ways in which the researcher and the researched influence each other and the link between feminist research and social change. These chapters contribute to an understanding of how social movement activism can be developed. Overall, this book represents an important combination of scholarly insights and provides multiple reflections about practical aspects of conducting gender research in the African context. The work of the contributors to the volume is situated within a post-structural feminist agenda, and collectively the chapters link scholarship and activism in a way that pursues a social change agenda in research on gender and gender-based violence.
