approaches that have added to our understanding of public policies In this collection of fourteen essays public policy is examined in ranging environments Greece Zimbabwe Nigeria and South Africa The policies of these countries and some other issues relating to social security poverty welfare consumer rights are covered The first paper introduces us to the differences between public and private policies and shows the importance of giving the right place to the former in the orderly society Journal of the Historical Society of Nigeria ,2005 Aging Across Cultures Helaine Selin,2022-01-01 This volume brings together chapters about aging in many non Western cultures from Africa and Asia to South America from American Indians to Australian and Hawaii Aborigines It also includes articles on other issues of aging such as falling dementia and elder abuse It was thought that in Africa or Asia elders were revered and taken care of This certainly used to be the case But the Western way has moved into these places and we now find that elders are often left on their own or in institutions as younger people have migrated to other cities and even countries Grandparents often find themselves being parents to their grandchildren a far cry from the kind of life they believed they would have as they aged This book will explore all these issues and will be of use to students and researchers in this relatively new field The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1985 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service,1921 The Federal Capital Territory of Nigeria Ola Balogun,Olayinka Y. Sustainable Ageing Nestor Asiamah, Hafiz T.A. Khan, Whitney Nesser, Frank Frimpong Opuni, Alex Siu Wing Chan, 2024-10-26. This book uniquely operationalizes sustainable ageing as a concept for reimagining ways by which 1) social and health threats (i.e. climate change events, extreme industrialization, infectious disease outbreak, and war) can constrain the implementation of healthy ageing campaigns or limit their outcomes, and 2) potential transdisciplinary strategies can be rolled out to optimize healthy ageing through the campaigns in contexts experiencing the threats. The United Nations Decade of Healthy Ageing 2021-2030 initiative drives major healthy ageing campaigns and encapsulates 10 initiatives for enabling people to maintain health as they age. Worsening social and health threats are, however, hindering the implementation of the campaigns. Consequently, healthy ageing may not be achieved or sustained even in age-friendly contexts experiencing crises. Scholars agree these threats will adversely impact public health, and an inclusive multidisciplinary approach to healthy ageing is necessary amidst the threats. This book provides an understanding of how healthy ageing should be framed and approached through the campaigns in a world experiencing crises. Among the topics covered are: Psychology of Ageing in Place, Amidst Health and Social Threats; Perspectives on the Decade of Healthy Ageing; Climate Change Adaptation for Healthy Ageing; Research Practice Gap Impact on Campaigns and Mitigation Strategies; Human Development Pathways for Empowering Older Adults; A Decade of Healthy Ageing Perspective; Initiatives to Fight Ageism, Neglect, and Elderly Abuse During Crises; A Healthy Ageing Perspective; Sustainable Ageing; Reimagining Healthy Ageing Through the Lens of Flagship Campaigns. This is a timely publication with broad appeal. Each chapter provides empirical evidence or models for improving stakeholders' understanding of campaign-related healthy ageing programmes, how the programmes are affected by the threats, and what can be done to achieve the core goals in contexts experiencing threats. Students, lecturers, and researchers can use the book as a research guide, whereas public health professionals and organizations can use it to develop or alter policies. Researchers in a wide range of disciplines can design studies based on models and insights from the book.
