Social Welfare With Indigenous Peoples:

Social Welfare with Indigenous Peoples Professor John Dixon, John Dixon, Robert P. Scheurell, 2002-09-11 Presents articles that provide a comparison of Indigenous social welfare policy in Africa Australia Pacific Central and South America Europe and North America see separate entry for article by J C Altman and W Sanders Social Welfare with Indigenous Peoples Professor John Dixon, John Dixon, Robert P. Scheurell, 2002-09-11 In many areas of the world there has been an earlier indigenous population which has been conquered by a more recent population group In Social Welfare with Indigenous Peoples the editors and contributors examine the treatment of many indigenous populations from five continental areas Africa Sierra Leone Zimbabwe Australasia New Zealand Central and South America Brazil Mexico Europe Scandinavia Spain and North America They found that regardless of whether the newer immigrants became the majority population as in North America or the minority population such as in Africa there were many similarities in how the indigenous peoples were treated and in their current situations This treatment is examined from many perspectives political subjugation negligence shifting focus of social policy social and legal discrimination provision of social services and ethnic cultural and political rejuvenation

Globalization and the Health of Indigenous Peoples Ahsan Ullah, 2016-11-18 In 70 countries worldwide there is an estimated 370 million indigenous peoples and their rich diversity of cultures religions traditions languages and histories has been significant source of our scholarships However the health status of this population group is far below than that of non indigenous populations by all standards Could the persisting reluctance to understand the influence of self governance globalization and social determinants of health in the lives of these people be deemed as a contributor to the poor health of indigenous peoples Within this volume Ullah explores the gap in health status between indigenous and non indigenous peoples by providing a comparative assessment of socio economic and health indicators for indigenous peoples government policies and the ways in which indigenous peoples have been resisting and adapting to state policies A timely book for a growing field of study Globalization and the Health of Indigenous Peoples is a must read for academics policy makers and practitioners who are interested in indigenous studies and in understanding the role that globalization plays for the improvement of indigenous peoples health across the world Population Mobility and Indigenous Peoples in Australasia and North America Martin Bell, John Taylor, 2003-12-25 This book draws together relevant research findings to produce the first comprehensive overview of Indigenous peoples mobility Chapters draw from a range of disciplinary sources and from a diversity of regions and nation states Within nations mobility is the key determinant of local population change with implications for service delivery needs assessment and governance Mobility also provides a key indicator of social and economic transformation As such it informs both social theory and policy debate For much of the twentieth century conventional wisdom anticipated the steady convergence of socio demographic trends seeing this as an inevitable concomitant of the development process However the patterns and trends in population movement observed in this book

Indigenous Politics Mikkel Berg-Nordlie, Jo Saglie, Ann Sullivan, 2016-08-19 Over the last fifty years indigenous politics has become an increasingly important field of study Recognition of self determination rights are being demanded by indigenous peoples around the world Indigenous struggles for political representation are shaped by historical and social circumstances particular to their nations but there are nevertheless many shared experiences What are some of the commonalities similarities and differences to indigenous representation participation and mobilisation This anthology offers a comparative perspective on institutional arrangements that provide for varying degrees of indigenous representation including forms of self organisation as well as government created representation structures A range of comparative and country specific studies provides a wealth of information on institutional arrangements and processes that mobilise indigenous peoples and the ways in which they negotiate alliances and handle conflict Theoretical and Empirical Insights into Child and Family Poverty Elizabeth Fernandez, Anat Zeira, Tiziano Vecchiato, Cinzia Canali, 2015-06-04 This book brings together a range of theoretical and empirical perspectives on conceptualization measurement multidimensional impacts and policy and service responses to address child and family poverty It illuminates issues and trends through country level chapters thus shedding light on dynamics of poverty in different jurisdictions The book is structured into three sections The first includes introductory chapters canvassing key debates around definition conceptualization measurement and theoretical and ideological positions The second section covers impacts of poverty on specific domains of children s and families experience using snapshots from specific countries geographic regions The third section focuses on programs policies and interventions and addresses poverty and its impacts It showcases specific interventions programs and policies aimed at responding to children and families and communities and how they are or might be evaluated Cross national case studies and evaluations illustrate the diversity of approaches and outcomes The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin (ed), Yvonna S. Lincoln, 2005 A thoroughly revised updated edition this volume includes new chapters on auto ethnography critical race theory queer theory testimonies Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness Jane Barter, 2025-06-30 Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness focuses on witnessing in the aftermath of political atrocity or genocide It offers a diachronic study of the relationship between theological forms of witnessing within Jewish and Christian traditions and public forms of witnessing in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book explores the ways in which various witnesses to political atrocity and their mediators tacitly drew on religious themes of salvation to make sense of their suffering It investigates survivor testimony and the use made of it through scholarly interpretations of testimony within the Hebrew Bible New Testament and theological and philosophical traditions within Judaism and Christianity The chapters move from a consideration of the early post Shoah writings of Paul Celan and Primo Levi through to a discussion of the Truth and

Reconciliation Commissions of South Africa and Canada The author makes the case for a weak messianism or remnant witnessing as an antidote to overdetermined and politicized uses made of survivor testimonies This book makes a valuable contribution to the work of theopolitics which claims that theology despite its persistent misuse can serve a constructive and critical force within public life albeit in a chastened key
