Social Work Evaluation Principles And Methods:

Social Work Evaluation Leon H. Ginsberg, 2001 This book is a practical overview of evaluation in social work by a distinguished author who has also been an evaluator and an agency administrator This book includes an evaluation of one's own practice the use of group research designs for evaluation practice needs assessment and evaluation ethics Chapters also cover unique subjects including chapters on licensing accreditation auditing accounting and other methods that social work administrators and practitioners must often address The book includes examples of evaluations conducted by organizations such as the Manpower Development Research Corporation and the Urban Institute which are major forces in public policy decisions but which have not been extensively covered in the social work literature For practicing social workers or anyone interested in topics related to social work evaluation Social Work Evaluation, Second Edition James R.

Dudley, 2013-09 Accountability to stakeholders is essential for program funding and policy development It is increasingly the responsibility of all professionals to provide evidence supporting the relevance and effectiveness of their programs and individual practices Social Work Evaluation is a straightforward guide to conducting evaluations during the planning implementation and outcome stages of programs and practices Dudley has developed a seven step process for evaluations using qualitative quantitative and mixed research methods This comprehensive book offers students the knowledge and skills to play a more accountable role in the future of their profession Social Work Evaluation James R. Dudley, 2020-03-06

Social workers are increasingly faced with the demands of evaluating their own programs and practice to maintain accountability to funding agencies secure funding and remedy a number of social problems facing our society One of the nine basic competencies required by the social work accreditation agency is to be able to conduct evaluations Evaluation is a critical area of practice for demonstrating accountability to clients communities numerous other stakeholders and funding and regulatory agencies Social Work Evaluation Third Edition offers a straightforward guide to a broad range of social work evaluations at both the program and practice levels Author James R Dudley's seven step approach to evaluation makes use of qualitative quantitative and mixed research methods to provide oversight and address important issues at the planning implementation and outcome stages of a program or practice intervention His unique focus on involving clients in the evaluation process ensures that social workers consistently improve their capacity to impact their clients well being and remain accountable to them and others they serve Case examples from the extensive evaluation experience of the author and others illustrate a wide range of logic based methods discussed throughout the text for real world application This comprehensive text effectively aims to enhance student and practitioner skill sets to meet these demands of a changing field

Evaluation in Social Work Yvonne A. Unrau, Peter A. Gabor, Richard M. Grinnell Jr., 2006-09-14 Social work practice is built upon the linkage between the objectives and goals of clients programs and agencies and the evaluation process is critical for making sure those links are strong Building on its earlier editions with seven new chapters and complete revisions of the others as well as a strong online companion website presence this text is more relevant and user friendly than ever It provides a straightforward introduction to program evaluation couched within the quantitative and qualitative traditions the two approaches most commonly used to generate relevant social work knowledge The result gives students a sound conceptual understanding of how the ideas of evaluation can be used in the delivery of day to day services they will be offering your clients as well as the knowledge and skills necessary to demonstrate accountability

Program Evaluation for Social Workers Richard M. Grinnell, Peter A. Gabor, Yvonne A. Unrau, 2012-02-15 An eminently approachable and practical introduction to case and program level evaluation techniques and Evaluation of Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social Programs (P.A.T.H.S.) Daniel T.L.

SHEK,Rachel C. F. Sun,2013-06-28 This book outlines the development implementation and evaluation of a project entitled P A T H S to Adulthood A Jockey Club Youth Enhancement Scheme with P A T H S denoting Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social programmes This pioneer project was conducted in Hong Kong between 2005 and 2012 with more than 210 000 participants Its goal was to help students meet various challenges in their path to adulthood with a focus on their psychosocial competencies developmental assets and the promotion of healthy peer relationships The project was initiated by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust in collaboration with the Government s Social Welfare Department Education Bureau and five universities in Hong Kong Edited by the researchers of the project Development and Evaluation of Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social Programs explores the nature of positive youth development PYD the application of PYD constructs to youth programs and implementation issues Using multiple strategies the book evaluates the overall effectiveness of the P A T H S school based programme and reveals that stakeholders had positive perceptions of the project its implementers and benefits Students in the program showed better positive development and displayed lower levels of substance abuse and delinquent behaviour than students in the control schools The book also details lessons learned emergent issues future directions as well as insights into the development of positive youth development programs particularly in Chinese communities Development and Evaluation of Positive Adolescent Training through Holistic Social Programs will appeal to all educators administrators psychologists social workers and allied professionals looking to promote whole person development in their students especially those with in interest in education in China Evaluation in Child and Family Services Tiziano Vecchiato,Anthony N. Maluccio,Cinzia Canali, As child and family interventions assume greater international application it will be helpful to examine the various ways in which service innovations are being evaluated As demonstrated in the seminar from which these chapters resulted only by sharing our specific professional interests our too frequent problems in measurement our despair in implementing complicated studies and our successes can we advance the evaluation of human services and their outcomes This volume considers a variety of programs and issues in the field of child and family services While different perspectives are evident among the authors in terms of their focus and or emphasis there is common concern about the value of examining each program or service so as to maximize its impact as well as its potential for dissemination Intervention research should spur and motivate cross national efforts not only among researchers but also among social workers and other practitioners from diverse professions engaged in the delivery of human services Such collaboration would contribute to the ultimate goals of achieving greater clarity about the specifics of best practices in child and family services protocols for assessing outcomes and ways of improving service delivery How then can researchers and policymakers in diverse settings within diverse countries improve practice and service delivery on behalf of children and families What particular program findings can be generalized to improve services How can we share and implement new solutions The contributions to this volume address such questions from varying international perspectives Contributors provide answers and generate discussion points for consideration by practitioners as well as researchers The book is a must for social work parishioners in areas involving the delivery of goods as well as services Tiziano Vecchiato is scientific director of the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy Anthony N Maluccio is professor of social work at Boston College Graduate School of Social Work Chestnut Hill Massachusetts Cinzia Canali is research associate at the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy
