Forging the Canadian Social Union Institute for Research on Public Policy, 2003 Social Union Framework evaluates the Social Union Framework Agreement SUFA as well as subsequent developments in intergovernmental relations as the deadline for the review of the Agreement approaches Changing Politics of Canadian Social Policy James J. Rice, Michael J. Prince, 2013-01-01 Changing Politics of Canadian Social Policy is a one of a kind resource in the fields of political science and social work Health Policy in Canada Toba Bryant, 2016-12-13 Health Policy in Canada explores the process implementation and outcomes of health policy in the Canadian context This engaging text provides students with a solid foundation in the key theories and developments in health policy while also delivering illustrative examples and case studies from across the country Employing a strong comparative and international perspective Toba Bryant critically compares the Canadian system to alternative models in countries such as the United States Sweden and the United Kingdom With its focus on the themes of health equity and the social determinants of health this text takes into account the role of public policy not only in providing health care but also in shaping the health and well being of a population The second edition has been well updated to reflect current research and issues including a consideration of the impact of economic globalization on health policy and health care in Canada Featuring critical thinking questions and annotated lists of recommended readings and websites this text was developed with the intent of making health policy accessible to students and practitioners in a wide range of disciplines including nursing social work medicine health sciences and public policy

Intergovernmental Policy Capacity in Canada Gregory J. Inwood, Patricia O'Reilly, Carolyn M. Johns, 2011 In a highly networked world where governments must cope with increasingly complex and inter related policy problems the capacity of policy makers to work intergovernmentally is not an option but a necessity regory Inwood Carolyn Johns and Patricia O Reilly offer unique insights into intergovernmental policy capacity revealing what key decision makers and policy advisors behind the scenes think the barriers are to improved intergovernmental policy capacity and what changes they recommend Senior public servants from all jurisdictions in Canada discuss the ideas institutions actors and relations that assist or impede intergovernmental policy capacity Covering good and bad economic times and comparing insiders concerns and recommendations with those of scholars of federalism public policy and public administration they provide a comparative analysis of major policy areas across fourteen governments ntergovernmental policy capacity while of increasing importance is not well understood By examining how the Canadian federation copes with today s policy challenges the authors provide guideposts for federations and governments around the world working on the major policy issues of our day Employment Policies and Multilevel Governance Roger Blanpain, Brian Langille, 2009-04-29 In Europe work has long been a symbol of full citizenship and today work is a fundamental goal of European social policy However although every person has the right to work it is becoming clearer all the time that unemployment is not due merely to a lack of encouragement to exercise this right but at least in part to some deeper defects in the implementation of effective employment policies As a contribution to defining the nature of these problems this important collection of essays targets the phenomena of multilevel governance both vertical European national regional local and horizontal administrative institutions trade unions business representatives NGOs showing with detailed analysis and data how coordination or conflict between the various levels advances or fails to advance the goals of employment policy Regarding the EU five EU Member States are examined plus for comparative analysis the parallel Canadian federal model with the authors addressing such concrete issues as the impact of globalisation and Europeanisation on employment policies distribution of tasks in the Open Method of Coordination OMC involvement of private and economic agents the increasing significance of international political agents flexicurity as an employment strategy the difficulty of integrating the excluded coordination with education and fiscal policies social inclusion from the point of view of international human rights and gender mainstreaming as a weakening of the EU guarantee of gender equality The essays originated in a research meeting held at the Instituto Internacional de Sociología Jurídica at Oñati Spain in June of 2007 Some of the contributors all employment law experts discuss problematic aspects of the European Employment Strategy EES and its influence on the decentralization of employment policies and related elements of social protection Other authors concentrate on built in multilevel problems resulting from existing constitutional and administrative structures while a third group focuses on substantive approaches to employment policies within individual member states The Bulletin contains updated versions of all papers In this book the degree of administrative legal political and cultural intricacy involved in a serious engagement with multilevel governance of employment on the European model is put on full view As a deeply informed analysis of how the idea of multilevel governance has played out within the political and administrative reality of Member States the book will prove of enormous value to labour and employment law professionals anywhere as the problems identified here have a global reach
