contributions the Encyclopedia of Educational Psychology opens up the broad discipline of educational psychology to a wide and general audience Written by experts in each area the entries in this far reaching resource provide an overview and an explanation of the major topics in the field of human development While the Encyclopedia includes some technical topics related to educational psychology for the most part it focuses on those topics that evoke the interest of the everyday reader

Key Features Addresses topics that are of particular interest to the general public such as vouchers Head Start divorce learning communities and charter schools Shares subjects that are rich diverse and deserving of closer inspection with an educated reader who may be uninformed about educational psychology Draws from a variety of disciplines including psychology anthropology education sociology public health school psychology counseling history and philosophy Presents many different topics all tied together by the theme of how the individual can best function in an educational setting from pre school through adult education

Key Themes Classroom Achievement Classroom Management Cognitive Development Ethnicity Race and Culture Families Gender and Gender Development Health and Well Being Human Development Intelligence and Intellectual Development Language Development Learning and Memory Organizations Peers and Peer Influences Public Policy Research Methods and Statistics Social Development Teaching Testing Measurement and Evaluation Theory This practical Encyclopedia brings the field of educational psychology to the everyday person making it a welcome addition to any academic or public library

Handbook of Reading Disability Research Anne McGill-Franzen, Richard Allington, 2010-09-17 Bringing together a wide range of research on reading disabilities this comprehensive Handbook extends current discussion and thinking beyond a narrowly defined psychometric perspective Emphasizing that learning to read proficiently is a long term developmental process involving many interventions of various kinds all keyed to individual developmental needs it addresses traditional questions What is the nature or causes of reading disabilities How are reading disabilities assessed How should reading disabilities be remediated To what extent is remediation possible but from multiple or alternative perspectives Taking incursions into the broader research literature represented by linguistic and anthropological paradigms as well as psychological and educational research the volume is on the front line in exploring the relation of reading disability to learning and language to poverty and prejudice and to instruction and schooling The editors and authors are distinguished scholars with extensive research experience and publication records and numerous honors and awards from professional organizations representing the range of disciplines in the field of reading disabilities Throughout their contributions are contextualized within the framework of educators struggling to develop concrete instructional practices that meet the learning needs of the lowest achieving readers

Measuring Socioeconomic Status and Its Effects at Individual and Collective Levels Yang Yang, 2003

Handbook of International Research in Mathematics Education Lyn D. English, 2002-03 This state of the art Handbook brings together important mathematics education research that makes a difference in both theory and practice research that anticipates problems and needed knowledge before they become impediments to progress interprets future oriented problems into researchable issues presents the implications of research and theory development in forms that are useful to practitioners and policymakers and facilitates the development of research communities to focus on neglected priorities or strategic opportunities The volume represents a genuine attempt by contributors from around the world to advance the discipline rather than simply review what has been done and what exists The Handbook was developed in response to a number of major global catalysts for change including the impact of national and international mathematics comparative assessment studies the social cultural economic and political influences on mathematics education and research the influence of progressively sophisticated and available technology and the increasing globalization of mathematics education and research From these catalysts have emerged specific priority themes and issues for mathematics education research in the 21st century Three key themes were identified for attention in this volume life long democratic access to powerful mathematical ideas advances in research methodologies and influences of advanced technologies Each of these themes is examined in terms of learners teachers and learning contexts with theory development as an important component of all these aspects Dynamic and forward looking the Handbook of International Research in Mathematics Education is distinguished by its focus on new and emerging theoretical models perspectives and research methodologies its uniformly high standard of scholarship and its emphasis on the international nature of mathematics education research It is an essential volume for all researchers professionals and students interested in mathematics education research in particular and more generally in international developments and future directions in the broad field of educational research
