Book Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013-04-02 Literary culture has become a form of popular culture over the last fifteen years thanks to the success of televised book clubs film adaptations big box book stores online bookselling and face to face and online book groups This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organizers The resurgence of book groups has inspired new cultural formations of what the authors call shared reading They interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading Bridges and Barriers Eddie

Williams, 2014-06-03 Recent decades have seen sub Saharan Africa decline in both economic and human terms The rich North has responded with a barrage of well publicized initiatives from pop concerts to international commitments on debt relief aid trade and good governance Among the complex of factors necessary to sustain economic and human development education receives little media coverage although it is crucial However education must be effective This book argues that in Anglophone Africa education is not effective because of the use of English rather than children s first languages both as the medium of instruction and also as the language in which children are first taught to read Research is presented from Malawi and Zambia countries with contrasting language policies using evidence from tests in English and African languages small group discussions and classroom observation The findings show that English medium policies in Africa do not give students any advantage in English over first language policies while the use of English discriminates against girls and rural children The book concludes that much education in Africa is a barrier rather than a bridge to learning because of the prevailing language ideology which has resulted in massive over estimation of the value of English While appropriate language policies alone will not solve education and development difficulties in Africa they do have a positive contribution to make The evidence presented here suggests they are failing to make that contribution The World Tomorrow Norman Thomas, John Nevin Sayre, Devere Allen, Kirby Page, 1923 Resources in Education, 1982 The Challenge of Late Industrialization S. Kimura, 2006-12-12 Globalization has created new opportunities and challenges for late industrialization This book identifies underlying factors for latecomer firms to catch up as system integrators or upgrade as suppliers in fast globalizing industries With in depth case studies several perspectives on firm growth are integrated into a comprehensive framework
