Adams, R. A. Sydie, 2001-01-30 Providing a concise and comprehensive introduction to both classical and contemporary social thought this volume makes social theory and social theorists accessible and meaningful      Law/Society John Sutton, 2001 A core text for the Law and Society or Sociology of Law course offered in Sociology Criminal Justice Political Science and Schools of Law John Sutton offers an explicitly analytical perspective to the subject how does law change What makes law more or less effective in solving social problems What do lawyers do Chapter 1 contrasts normative and sociological perspectives on law and presents a brief primer on the logic of research and inference as it is applied to law related issues Theories of legal change are discussed within a common conceptual framework that highlights the explanatory strengths and weaknesses of different arguments Discussions of law in action are explicitly comparative applying a consistent model to explain the variable outcomes of civil rights legislation Many concrete in depth examples throughout the chapters Freedom of Expression in the 21st Century Robert Trager, Donna L. Dickerson, 1999-01-25 An ideal supplement for any course with the goal to make free speech issues meaningful and relevant to young media professionals today Features of the text INTERACTIVE it helps instructors engage students in meaningful discussions about current free speech issues It presents situations often taken from court cases followed by questions that challenge students to clarify and justify their own beliefs about freedom of expression INTERNATIONAL communicates how and why countries and governments other than the United States deal with free speech issues in different ways NEUTRAL not a flag waving catechism for the American way Asks difficult questions as to whether the freedoms many U S citizens take for granted are the best approach to some issues It develops critical thinking skills Covering the Community Leigh Stephens Aldrich, 1999-03-22 A guide to the fair reporting and portrayal of minority groups with the intent of supporting community harmony in the culturally diverse world in which we live Leigh Stephens Aldrich provides a how to manual for identifying and presenting diversity in the media Women And Empowerment C. Margaret Hall, 2013-09-13 Shows how women s decisions direct their lives in both public and private spheres The book specifies critical conditions and possibilities for women who want to increase their opportunities Patterns in women s behaviour and concerns are analyzed by applying the author s sociological theory Informational Pragmatism David Krieger, 2025-02-24 This thought provoking book explores the philosophical ideas from antiquity to today that influence our understanding of the digital transformation that is ushering in a global network society Digital transformation is understood as a profoundly philosophical issue reflecting humanity s ongoing socio technical evolution Traditional philosophical issues such as the meaning of being the nature of knowing and the place of the autonomous rational subject in modern thought are challenged and redefined from the perspective of an informational pragmatism The book presents a philosophy of information based on a critique of neo pragmatism from the perspective of actor network theory A major revision of pragmatism in the form of informational pragmatism is proposed as a philosophy capable of addressing the fundamental questions of the 21st century arising from the emergence of a global network society and the digital transformation Schools and Societies Steven Brint, 1998-01-14 For use as the core text for Sociology of Education courses offered in Sociology Departments and Social Foundations of Education courses offered in Schools of Education Schools and Societies is a gem of volume that combines in one comprehensive text superb theoretical acuity and scholarly judgment a keen sense of the connection of research to policy and a breadth of coverage that reflects the multidimensionality of education as an institution in a manner rare in social scientific treatments of education It deserves to be the leading survey of this field for a long time to come Paul DiMaggio Princeton University Globalization: Specialized applications and resistance to globalization Roland Robertson, Kathleen E. White, 2003 Youth Cultures, Transitions, and Generations Dan Woodman, Andy Bennett, 2016-04-29 Within contemporary youth research there are two dominant streams a transitions and a cultures perspective This collection shows that it is no longer possible to understand the experience of young people through these prisms and proposes new conceptual foundations for youth studies capable of bridging the gap between these approaches Global Knowledge Production in the Social Sciences Wiebke Keim,ERCüment Çelik,Veronika Wöhrer,2016-04-22

An innovative contribution to debates on the internationalization and globalization of the social sciences this book pays particular attention to their theoretical and epistemological reconfiguration in the light of postcolonial critiques and critiques of Eurocentrism Bringing together theoretical contributions and empirical case studies from around the world including India the Americas South Africa Australia and Europe it engages in debates concerning public sociology and explores South South research collaborations specific to the social sciences Contributions transcend established critiques of Eurocentrism to make space for the idea of global social sciences and truly transnational research Thematically arranged and both international and interdisciplinary in scope this volume reflects the different theoretical and thematic backgrounds of the contributing authors who enter into dialogue and debate with one another in the development of a more inclusive more representative and more theoretically relevant stage for the social sciences A rigorous critique of the contemporary state of the social sciences as well as an attempt to find another way of doing transnational sociology Global Knowledge Production in the Social Sciences will appeal to scholars of sociology political science and social theory with interests in the production of social scientific knowledge postcolonialism and transnationalism in research The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn,2015-02-03

This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind s eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media
