Veilshatter Toni Poburski, 2025-05-10 Some memories save you Others break you The city of Avestra lies in the mist between worlds Its bridges whisper in forgotten tongues Its runes glow with echoes of a time no one remembers And something beneath it all is waking Liora rises from sleep with images in her mind that don't belong to her Places she's never seen Lives she's never lived As the veil between realities begins to unravel she is drawn into a story that started long before her and may end with her alone Veilshatter is the story of a young woman caught between the weight of forgotten magic and the pull of something far older It is about soul binding power fractured memory and the fight to reclaim who you truly are This book is for readers who crave more than just adventure It speaks to those who love their fantasy with depth mystery and emotion Ideal for ages 16 and up especially those drawn to atmospheric worlds complex characters and stories that linger after the last page A novel of soul shadow and the fragile thread of memory

Rebirth: Game of the World Bei Haishenfeng, 2019-12-27 If I want to become a Buddha or a Dragon Elephant I'll have to become an ox or a horse a mortal at the ninth level and be reborn I'll take the Nine Transformation of Spirit and fight for my life with the heavens if I step into the Spirit Sea then I can transcend the five elements of heaven and earth A chess piece could point to the rivers and mountains a chess piece could contain the heavens of all worlds a chess piece could bring down countless stars and within the chess board there would be a chess game and within the chess piece there would be heaven and earth

Indigenous Cultural Translation Darryl Sterk, 2020-05-01 Indigenous Cultural Translation is about the process that made it possible to film the 2011 Taiwanese blockbuster Seediq Bale in Seediq an endangered indigenous language Seediq Bale celebrates the headhunters who rebelled against or collaborated with the Japanese colonizers at or around a hill station called Musha starting on October 27 1930 while this book celebrates the grandchildren of headhunters rebels and collaborators who translated the Mandarin language screenplay into Seediq in central Taiwan nearly eighty years later As a thick description of Seediq Bale this book describes the translation process in detail showing how the screenwriter included Mandarin translations of Seediq texts recorded during the Japanese era in his screenplay and then how the Seediq translators backtranslated these texts into Seediq changing them significantly It argues that the translators made significant changes to these texts according to the consensus about traditional Seediq culture they have been building in modern Taiwan and that this same consensus informs the interpretation of the Musha Incident and of Seediq culture that they articulated in their Mandarin Seediq translation of the screenplay as a whole The argument more generally is that in building cultural consensus indigenous peoples like the Seediq are translating their traditions into alternative modernities in settler states around the world
