Spirit Of Jerusalem Prayers Vision And Memories:

Jerusalem in Memory and Eschatology Emma O'Donnell Polyakov, 2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem

Memory, Humanity, and Meaning Neamtu, Mihail, Tataru-Cazaban, Bogdan, 2009-01-01 On the 23rd of August 2008 Professor Andrei Pleşu has marked his sixtieth birthday In view of his distinguished service to the public welfare and his manifold contributions to academic life the editors of this volume have invited a number of Romanian and international scholars to celebrate this event with a Festschrift Colleagues friends and former students of Andrei Pleşu joined together to offer a critical appreciation of his understanding of culture in today's world The participants in this volume explore the continuing debates around the place of philosophy politics aesthetics ethics and religion in shaping the identity of Western civilization

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so
