Spirit Country Jennifer Isaacs, 1999-01-01 Aboriginal Art Wally Caruana, 2025-05-06 An updated and expanded edition of this classic survey which has established itself as a superlative introduction to the full diversity of Aboriginal art This concise survey showcases the incredible diverse work of Aboriginal and Torres Strait artists Building on traditions that stretch back at least 50 000 years these artists have long worked in a variety of contexts from the sacred and secret realm of ceremony to more public spheres From isolated beginnings to postcolonialism and the present Wally Caruana explains how Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art has continually developed and responded to change and considers the impact of urban living the growth of local art centers that support the artists in these communities and the recognition of women artists This new edition has been expanded and updated to include and reflect on important artists who have emerged in the last decade with a focus on the burgeoning of activity in the Southern Desert region Queensland and the Torres Strait Islands all testament to Aboriginal art s continued dynamism and vitality Law, Knowledge, Culture Jane E.

Anderson, 2009-01-01 Combining unique practical experience with a sophisticated historical and theoretical framework this impressive work offers a new basis to explore indigenous intellectual property In this wide ranging and imaginative study Anderson has laid the groundwork for future scholarship in the field Hopefully this work will set a new trajectory for how this important topic is approached and advanced with indigenous people Brad Sherman University of Queensland Australia This informative book investigates how indigenous and traditional knowledge has been produced and positioned within intellectual property law and the effects of this position in both national and international jurisdictions Drawing upon critical cultural and legal theory Jane Anderson illustrates how the problems facing the inclusion of indigenous knowledge resonate with tensions that characterise intellectual property as a whole She explores the extent that the emergence of indigenous interests in intellectual property law is a product of shifting politics within law changing political environments governmental intervention through strategic reports and innovative instances of individual agency The author draws on long term practical experience of working with indigenous people and communities whilst engaging with ongoing debates in the realm of legal theory Detailing a comprehensive view on how indigenous knowledge has emerged as a discrete category within intellectual property law this book will benefit researchers academics and students dealing with law in the fields of IP human rights property and environmental law It will also appeal to anthropologists sociologists philosophers and cultural theorists The Australian Embassy in Tokyo and Australia-Japan Relations Kate Darian-Smith, David Lowe, 2023-03-02 Relations between Australia and Japan have undergone both testing and celebrated times since 1952 when Australia s ambassadorial representation in Tokyo commenced Over the years interactions have deepened beyond mutual trade objectives to encompass economic defence and strategic interests within the Indo Pacific region and beyond This special relationship has been characterised by the high volume of people moving between Australia and Japan for education tourism business science and research Cultural ties from artists in residence to sister city agreements have flourished Australia has supported Japan in times of need including the aftermath of the 2011 Tohoku earthquake This book shows how the Australian embassy in Tokyo through its programs and people has been central to these developments The embassy s buildings its gardens and grounds and above all its occupants from senior Australian diplomats to locally engaged staff are the focus of this multidimensional study by former diplomats and expert observers of Australia s engagement with Japan Drawing on oral histories memoirs and archives this volume sheds new light on the complexity of Australia s diplomatic work in Japan and the role of the embassy in driving high level negotiations as well as fostering soft power influences With a similar vision for the Indo Pacific region and a like minded approach to the challenges facing us Australia and Japan have become more intimate and more strategic as partners I am very pleased to see this slice of Australian diplomatic history so well accounted for in this book Jan Adams AO PSM Secretary Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Australia s Ambassador to Japan November 2020 June 2022

Art Centre Architecture Kate Goodwin, 2024-06-03 This book examines the architecture of Aboriginal art centres in the Northern Territory Art centres emerged in Australia in the 1970s alongside Aboriginal self determination and the rise of the Indigenous art market Primarily located in remote communities and towns their economic and social value has been widely acknowledged Together with supporting artists and facilitating the production and sale of art works they provide an invaluable safe space for community to come together and to practice Culture Art centres occupy existing adapted or purpose designed buildings often developed over time with varying degrees of architect involvement While each art centre is specific to Country and community they share commonalities in their activities facilities and architectural strategies This study provides a contextual introduction to art centres and remote communities in the Northern Territory It documents and analyses the architecture of twelve centres across diverse regions from the Tiwi Islands and the tropical Top End to the Central Desert The study identifies some of the key factors impacting building outcomes and pinpoints ideas that can inform discussions between architects community and funding bodies As well as the architectural profession it is intended as an informative document for those involved in art centres and anyone interested in these unique hybrid entities

The Dead Do Not Die Sven Lindqvist, 2014-06-03 Sven Lindqvist is one of our most original writers on race colonialism and genocide and his signature approach uniting travelogues with powerful acts of historical excavation renders his books devastating and unforgettable Now for the first time Lindqvist's most beloved works are available in one beautiful and affordable volume with a new introduction by Adam Hochschild The Dead Do Not Die includes the full unabridged text of Exterminate All the Brutes called a book of stunning range and near genius by David Levering Lewis In this work Lindqvist uses Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness as a point of departure for a haunting tour through the colonial past retracing the steps of Europeans in Africa from the late eighteenth century onward and thus exposing the roots of genocide via his own journey through the Saharan desert The full text of Terra Nullius is also included for which Lindqvist traveled 7 000 miles through Australia in search of the lands the British had claimed as their own because it was inhabited by lower races the native Aborigines nearly nine tenths of whom were annihilated by whites The shocking story of how no man's land became the province of the white man was called the most original work on Australia and its treatment of Aborigines I have ever read marvelous by Phillip Knightley author of Australia

The Big Fish Anna J. Bonshek, Corrina Bonshek, Lee C. Fergusson, 2007 While debate continues in the fields of the sciences and humanities as to the nature of consciousness and the location of consciousness in the brain or as a field phenomenon in the Vedic tradition consciousness has been understood and continues to be articulated as an infinite field of intelligence at the basis of all forms of existence This infinite field of intelligence is accessible to human awareness being the very nature of the mind and the structuring dynamics of the physiology from the DNA to the cell tissues organs and to the whole body and its sophisticated functioning This two part volume The Big Fish Consciousness as Structure Body and Space considers in Part One the Vedic approach to consciousness specifically referencing Maharishi Vedic Science and discusses themes pertinent to the arts including perception and cognition memory as awareness history and culture artistic performance and social responsibility observatory instruments as spaces and structures to enhance consciousness and beyond metaphor architectural sites as multi layered enclosures of the brain detailed in the Shrimad Devi Bhagavatam and as cosmic habitat or Vastu aligned to the celestial bodies Presenting some more general consciousness based readings Part Two includes essays by various authors on Agnes Martin and her views on art perfection and the Classic unified field based education and freedom of expression versus censorship in art prints from the Renaissance to the contemporary era as allegories of consciousness the work of Australian artist Michael Kane Taylor as beyond a modern postmodern dichotomy the photographic series The Ocean of Beauty by Mark Paul Petrick referencing the Vedic text the Saundarya Lahari a Deleuzian analysis of the dual screen multi arts work Reverie I and an account of the making of Reverie II a single screen video projection inspired by the idea of dynamics of awareness This book therefore presents a broad range of interests and reading while offering a unique yet profoundly transformative perspective on consciousness Patrick White Centenary Bill Ashcroft, Cynthia vanden Driesen, 2014-08-20 This volume marks the birth centenary of a giant amongst contemporary writers the Australian Nobel prize winning novelist Patrick White 1912 1990 It proffers an invaluable insight into the current state of White studies through commentaries drawn from an international galaxy of eminent critics as well as from newer talents The book proves that interest in White's work continues to grow and diversify Every essay offers a new insight some are re-evaluations by seasoned critics who revise earlier positions significantly others admit new light onto what has seemed like well trodden terrain or focus on works perhaps undervalued in the past his poetry an early short story or novel which are now subjected to fresh attention His posthumous work has also won attention from prominent critics New comparisons with other international writers have been drawn in terms of subject matter themes and philosophy The expansion of critical attention into fields like photography and film opens new possibilities for enhancing further appreciation of his work White's interest in public issues such as the treatment of Australia's Indigenous peoples human rights and Australian nationalism is refracted through the inclusion of relevant commentaries from notable contributors For the first time in Australian literary history Indigenous scholars have participated in a celebration of the work of a white Australian writer All of this highlights a new direction in White studies the appreciation of his stature as a public intellectual The book demonstrates that White's legacy has limitless possibilities for further growth
