The Poems of Browning: Volume Four John

Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2014-05-12 The Poems of Robert Browning is a multi volume edition of the poetry of Robert Browning 1812 1889 resulting from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of his work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the origins and development of Browning s art Annotations and headnotes in keeping with the traditions of Longman Annotated English Poets are full and informative and provide details of composition publication sources and contemporary reception Volumes one 1826 1840 and two 1841 1846 presented the poems from his Browning s early years while volume three 1847 61 covered the period of his marriage to Elizabeth Barrett and residence in Italy Volume four 1862 71 deals with the decade following Elizabeth s death and Browning s return to England These years saw the appearance of some of his most significant work and a steady rise in his critical reputation In Dramatis Personae 1864 Browning uses his characteristic dramatic mode to expose predicaments of thought and feeling in characters ranging from Shakespeare s Caliban to the cheating medium Mr Sludge other poems dramatize Browning s complicated feelings about the deceptions and self deceptions of romantic love Balaustion s Adventure 1871 is an engaging reworking of Euripides Alcestis whose theme the resurrection of a beloved lost wife has poignant personal resonance for Browning while Prince Hohenstiel Schwangau published in the same year offers a thinly veiled account of the life and actions of Napoleon III the recently deposed Emperor of France over whom Browning and Elizabeth had quarrelled In these two long poems Browning can be seen engaged in the dialogue with Elizabeth that was to shape much of his work during the remainder of his writing life

Nister Pinkhes Kahanovitsh 1884 1950 is widely regarded as the most enigmatic author in modern Yiddish literature His pseudonym which translates as The Hidden One is as puzzling as his diverse body of works which range from mystical symbolist poetry and dark expressionist tales to realist historical epic Although part of the Kiev Group of Yiddish writers which also included David Bergelson and Peretz Markish Der Nister remained at the margins of the Yiddish literary world throughout his life mainstream success eluding him both in and outside the Soviet Union Yet to judge from the quantity of recent research and translation work der Nister is today one of the best remembered Yiddish modernists The present collection of twelve original articles by international scholars re examines Der Nister s cultural and literary legacy bringing to light new aspects of his life and creative output STYLISTIC POETRY Philip Ababio,2025-04-24 It is the intention of the author to shape the future of poetry In his idiosyncrasy poetry should not only take the form of lines and stanzas but also designs styles of different forms Poets should be able to depict whatever image they deem fit in their piece provided these images give meaning Besides every single poem no matter the context or design should be characterised by literary devices or figures of speech As a pioneer the poet has put together a collection of 1 000 poems using oceans of images designs and brands The Children's Literature Selection Handbook, K-8 Christie Kaaland,2025-09-18 Offering future school librarians teachers and working librarians an alternative to lengthier textbooks on children s literature this engaging book introduces readers to the most important genres and current conversations in the field while leaving them time to read children s literature directly As school librarian and teacher certification programs become more abridged students require succinct textbooks that still provide a valuable introduction to the field Working librarians need reference books that allow them to make good selections for their collections Students and professionals will appreciate The Children's Literature Selection Handbook K-8 because it offers a needed overview of the field while allowing for plenty of time to read children's literature Author Christie Kaaland's conversational tone speaks directly to readers and the book offers students a pathway to engage with literature directly and effectively scaffold their learning Beginning with an introduction to standard literary fiction genres including a discussion of literature trends and children's reading interests and needs the chapters turn to the most important genres fiction biography folk literature picture books informational texts poetry and graphic novels A focus on book series a deep discussion of graphic novels the inclusion of global literature and review sources for selection and information on publishers and the publishing industry set this timely book apart from others in the field Reader voices add perspective and charm This compact and engaging book is the perfect companion to the vast wealth of children's literature that future teachers and school librarians will read during their professional preparation and share with children and youth as working librarians
