War poems, Heartsease and rue, etc James Russell Lowell, 1890      HORIZON OF FIELD CROPS Ratikanta Maiti, 2017-08-14 The colossal importance of various field crops to satisfy hunger and other requirement of human beings is well known The roles of cereals and pulses on human nutrition deserves special emphasis for billions of human populations in the world The present books brief accounts of various aspects of important cereal crops sugarcane various legumes oil seed crops and fiber yielding crops of the world in different chapters with illustrations It deals origin and domestication systematic positions utilization botanical description vegetative and reproductive growth physiology mineral nutrition productivity and abiotic stress resistance of most of the crops and also discusses the mechanism of tolerance to drought and salinity The book also deals with various aspects of fiber crops In the last two chapters are discussed researches undertaken on salinity tolerance of few crops Therefore the book deals in brief the major aspects of most of the field crops in the world Not a single book is available in the market dealing with so many aspects all together The book can serve as a text book in economic botany agriculture and serve the needs of researcher s working on various crops with research advances obtained on these crops

The Hierarchies of Rue Roger Sauls, 2000 These exceptional poems create a kind of polar front a transitional belt in which the currents of love and estrangement grace and loss can come together      Sapphic Modernities L. Doan, J. Garrity, 2006-06-10 An examination of the representation of the lesbian in modernity from the multiple perspectives of literary visual and cultural studies this book shows how the sapphic figure in her multiple and contradictory guises refigured and redefined citizenship in the early decades of the twentieth century      The Tricolor and the Lone Star Peter J. Murdza, 1979

The Dark Fantastic Ebony Elizabeth Thomas, 2020-09-22 Winner 2022 Children s Literature Association Book Award given by the Children s Literature Association Winner 2020 World Fantasy Awards Winner 2020 British Fantasy Awards Nonfiction Finalist Creative Nonfiction IGNYTE Award given by FIYACON for BIPOC in Speculative Fiction Reveals the diversity crisis in children s and young adult media as not only a lack of representation but a lack of imagination Stories provide portals into other worlds both real and imagined The promise of escape draws people from all backgrounds to speculative fiction but when people of color seek passageways into the fantastic the doors are often barred This problem lies not only with children s publishing but also with the television and film executives tasked with adapting these stories into a visual world When characters of color do appear they are often marginalized or subjected to violence reinforcing for audiences that not all lives matter The Dark Fantastic is an engaging and provocative exploration of race in popular youth and young adult speculative fiction Grounded in her experiences as YA novelist fanfiction writer and scholar of education Thomas considers four black girl protagonists from some of the most popular stories of the early 21st century Bonnie Bennett from the CW s The Vampire Diaries Rue from Suzanne Collins s The Hunger Games Gwen from the BBC s Merlin and Angelina Johnson from J K Rowling s Harry Potter Analyzing their narratives and audience reactions to them reveals how these characters mirror the violence against black and brown people in our own world In response Thomas uncovers and builds upon a tradition of fantasy and radical imagination in Black feminism and Afrofuturism to reveal new possibilities Through fanfiction and other modes of counter storytelling young people of color have reinvisioned fantastic worlds that reflect their own experiences their own lives As Thomas powerfully asserts we dark girls deserve more because we are more

Journal of the Society of Architects Including the Proceedings, 1923      Poetry Harriet Monroe, 2000      The Pink and the Black Frédéric Martel, 1999 While acknowledging that the development of France's homosexual communities was influenced by America Martel highlights the differences arising from the fact that homosexuality has not been criminalised in France as in the United States back cover      Word and Witness Sally Buckner, 1999 This dazzling array of poems preserves in precise and imaginative language many of the crucial perceptions dreams experiences and concerns of North Carolinians during this exceptional century The quietest personal moments the noisiest public conflicts the most profound social issues all are treated in these 252 poems representing 137 poets whose work spans the last century Word and Witness demonstrates the development of poetry remarkable in both quantity and quality occurring through these tumultuous decades as well as the extraordinary versatility of the poets who have during significant years called North Carolina home Edited by Sally Buckner Word and Witness is organized chronologically with each section prefaced by an introduction explaining the literary scene during those years and the factors social economic and historic which influenced the poetry of that era Fred Chappell North Carolina Poet Laureate and winner of the national Bollingen Prize for poetry has furnished the Afterword Partially funded by a grant from the North Carolina Arts Council the book includes brief biographies a selected bibliography and lists of poets who have won significant state awards The compilation of Word and Witness was conceived and sponsored by the North Carolina Poetry Society the oldest and largest organization devoted to poetry in this state Like North Carolina's 400 Years Signs Along the Way one of the four other anthologies created by NCPS since its inception in 1932 this collection is designed as a gift to the state commemorating North Carolina's rich literary heritage It also testifies to the breadth and depth of the state's exceptional community of writers      Crosscultural Transgressions Theo Hermans, 2014-07-10 Crosscultural Transgressions offers explorations and critical assessments of research methods and models in translation studies and points up new questions and directions Ranging from epistemological questions of description and historiography to the politics of language including the language of translation research the book tackles issues of research design and methodology and goes on to examine the kind of disciplinary knowledge produced in translation studies who produces it and whose interests the dominant paradigms serve The focus is on historical and ideological problems but the crisis of representation that has affected all the human sciences in recent decades has left its mark As the essays in this collection explore the transgressive nature of crosscultural representation whether in translations or in the study of translation they remain attentive to institutional contexts and develop a self reflexive stance They also chart

new territory taking their cue from ethnography semiotics sociology and cultural studies and tackling Meso American iconic scripts Bourdieu's constructivism translation between philosophical paradigms and the complexities of translation concepts in multicultural societies     Werner's Magazine ,1900     Haunted Bodies Anne Goodwyn Jones,Susan Van D'Elden Donaldson,1997 In Haunted Bodies Anne Goodwyn Jones and Susan V Donaldson have brought together some of our most highly regarded southern historians and literary critics to consider race gender and texts through three centuries and from a wealth of vantage points Works as diverse as eighteenth century court petitions and lyrics of 1970s rock music demonstrate how definitions of southern masculinity and femininity have been subject to bewildering shifts and disabling contradictions for centuries     Cartography and Art William Cartwright,Georg Gartner,Antje Lehn,2009-02-26 This book is the fruition of work from contributors to the Art and Cartography Cartography and Art symposium held in Vienna in February 2008 This meeting brought together cartographers who were interested in the design and aesthetics elements of cartography and artists who use maps as the basis for their art or who incorporate place and space in their expressions The outcome of bringing together these like minds culminated in a wonderful event spanning three evenings and two days in the Austrian capital Papers exhibitions and installations provided a forum for appreciating the endeavors of artists and cartographers and their representations of geography As well as indulging in an expansive and expressive occasion attendees were able to reflect on their own work and discuss similar elements in each other's work It also allowed cartographers and artists to discuss the potential for collaboration in future research and development To recognise the significance of this event paper authors were invited to further develop their work and contribute chapters to this book We believe that this book marks both a significant occasion in Vienna and a starting point for future collaborative efforts between artists and cartographers The editors would like to acknowledge the work of Manuela Schmidt and Felix Ortag who undertook the task of the design and layout of the chapters     Alphonse Mucha Patrick Bade,Victoria Charles,2012-01-17 Born in 1860 in a small Czech town Alphonse Mucha 1860-1939 was an artist on the forefront of Art Nouveau the modernist movement that swept Paris in the 1910s marking a return to the simplicity of natural forms and changing the world of art and design forever In fact Art Nouveau was known to insiders as the Mucha style for the legions of imitators who adapted the master's celebrated tableaux Today his distinctive depictions of lithe young women in classical dress have become a pop cultural touchstone inspiring album covers comic books and everything in between Patrick Bade and Victoria Charles offer readers an inspiring survey of Mucha's career illustrated with over one hundred lustrous images from early Parisian advertisements and posters for Sandra Bernhardt to the famous historical murals painted just before his death at the age of 78 in 1939     The Ecclesiastical Review ,1906     American Ecclesiastical Review ,1906     Herencia Alejandra Balestra,2002 A major anthology of Hispanic writing in the U S ranging from the early Spanish explorers to the present day     Savage Attack Crispin Bates,Alpa Shah,2017-07-06 Papers presented at a conference held at London in June 2008     Ecclesiastical Review ...
