

The Hungry Angel

Hans Landström, Colin Mason

The Hungry Angel:

The Hungry Angel Roger Vadim, 1983 The Hunger Angel Herta Müller, 2012-04-24 A masterful new novel from the winner of the 2009 Nobel Prize hailed for depicting the landscape of the dispossessed with the concentration of poetry and the frankness of prose Nobel Prize Committee It was an icy morning in January 1945 when the patrol came for seventeen year old Leo Auberg to deport him to a camp in the Soviet Union Leo would spend the next five years in a coke processing plant shoveling coal lugging bricks mixing mortar and battling the relentless calculus of hunger that governed the labor colony one shovel load of coal is worth one gram of bread In her new novel Nobel laureate Herta Müller calls upon her unique combination of poetic intensity and dispassionate precision to conjure the distorted world of the labor camp in all its physical and moral absurdity She has given Leo the language to express the inexpressible as hunger sharpens his senses into an acuity that is both hallucinatory and profound In scene after disorienting scene the most ordinary objects accrue tender poignancy as they acquire new purpose a gramophone box serves as a suitcase a handkerchief becomes a talisman an enormous piece of casing pipe functions as a lovers trysting place The heart is reduced to a pump the breath mechanized to the rhythm of a swinging shovel and coal sand and snow have a will of their own Hunger becomes an insatiable angel who haunts the camp but also a bare knuckled sparring partner delivering blows that keep Leo feeling the rawest connection to life Müller has distilled Leo's struggle into words of breathtaking intensity that take us on a journey far beyond the Gulag and into the depths of one man's soul Rage in the Belly Luzia Sutter Rehmann, 2021-02-03 How is rage related to hunger Hunger is a liminal experience connected to powerlessness shame and violence Hunger does not issue into speech It cannot therefore be easily found in the biblical texts written by and about people who knew hunger It hides behind the words in these texts Rage conversely finds expression and in the texts it can alert readers to hidden experiences of hunger But rage is not just a response to the lack of food It is also a transformative force reaching towards a justice that is not yet real The experience of hunger and the fear of famine often go hand in hand with anger a rage that can bring whole populations to their feet Luzia Sutter Rehmann develops a biblical hermeneutic that centers on the fire in the belly of the hungry their rage that leads to protests and uprisings Her reading shows the poor or the many as those with whom Jesus cooperates and as subjects acting on their own initiative The book also highlights key socio historical information on the food situation of ancient Rome and Palestine on poverty political dependence and unrest droughts and famines Holy Extermination Emmanuel Calderon, 2004-06 And so the god said Let there be darkness The government has found a way to engineer a god The only problem is that a fanatic has released this ultimate force Emmanuel Anderson is a hit man for the Mafia Wean strange creatures appear in San Diego California slaughtering what ever moves he finds his adopted daughter dead Some how he believes another creature is responsible In his quest for revenge he must team up with a group of Marines and an unlikely group of civilians which must face seven plagues which Project Genesis has created around the world Freedom,

Responsibility and Economics of the Person Jérôme Ballet, Damien Bazin, Jean-Luc Dubois, François-Régis Mahieu, 2013-07-31
 The capability approach has developed significantly since Amartya Sen was awarded the Nobel Prize in Economics in 1998. It is now recognised as being highly beneficial in the analysis of poverty and inequality but also in the redefinition of policies aimed at improving the well being of individuals. The approach has been applied within numerous sectors from health and education to sustainable development but beyond the obvious interest that it represents for the classical economics tradition it has also encountered certain limitations. While acknowledging the undeniable progress that the approach has made in renewing the thinking on the development and well being of a population this book takes a critical stance. It focuses particularly on the approach's inadequacy vis-à-vis the continental phenomenological tradition and draws conclusions about the economic analysis of development. In a more specific sense it highlights the fact that the approach is too bound by standard economic logic which has prevented it from taking account of a key person dimension namely the ability of an individual to assume responsibility. As a result this book advocates the notion that if the approach is used carelessly in relation to development policies it can cause a number of pernicious effects some of which may lead to disastrous consequences. Due to its multidisciplinary nature this book will be of interest to those working in the fields of economics philosophy development studies and sociology.

Herta Müller Bettina Brandt, Valentina Glajar, 2013-11-01 Two languages German and Romanian inform the novels essays and collage poetry of Nobel laureate Herta Müller. Describing her writing as autofictional Müller depicts the effects of violence cruelty and terror on her characters based on her own experiences in Communist Romania under the repressive Nicolae Ceaușescu regime. Herta Müller Politics and Aesthetics explores Müller's writings from different literary cultural and historical perspectives. Part 1 features Müller's Nobel lecture five new collage poems and an interview with Ernest Wichner a German Romanian author who has traveled with her and sheds light on her writing. Parts 2 and 3 featuring essays by scholars from across Europe and the United States address the political and poetical aspects of Müller's texts. Contributors discuss life under the Romanian Communist dictatorship while also stressing key elements of Müller's poetics which promises both self-conscious formal experimentation and political intervention. One of the first books in English to thoroughly examine Müller's writing this volume addresses audiences with an interest in dissident exile migration experimental and transnational literature.

The Hungry Are Dying Susan R. Holman, 2001-07-19 This study examines a collection of sermons about poverty starvation and disease written by three leading Christian bishops of late antiquity Basil of Caesarea Gregory of Nazianzus and Gregory of Nyssa.

Eliot's Angels Bernadette Waterman Ward, 2022-06-15 Ren Girard's mimetic theory opens up ways to make sense of the tension between the progressive politics of George Eliot and the conservative moralism of her narratives. In this innovative study Bernadette Waterman Ward offers an original rereading of George Eliot's work through the lens of Ren Girard's theories of mimetic desire violence and the sacred. It is a fruitful mapping of a twentieth century theorist onto a nineteenth century novelist revealing Eliot's understanding of imitative desire rivalry idol making and sacrificial victimization as critical elements of the social mechanism While the unresolved tensions between Eliot s realism and her desire to believe in gradual social amelioration have often been studied Ward is especially adept at articulating the details of such conflict in Eliot s early novels In particular Ward emphasizes the clash between the ruthless mechanisms of mimetic desire and the idea of progress or as Eliot stated growing good Eliot s Christian sympathy for sacrificial victims against her general rejection of Christianity and her resort to Nemesis to evade the systemic injustice of the social sphere The angels in the title are characters who appear to offer a humanist way forward in the absence of religious belief They are represented in Girardian terms as figures who try to rise above the snares of the mimetic machine to imitate Christ s self sacrifice but are finally rendered ineffectual Very few studies have tackled Eliot s short fiction and narrative poetry Eliot s Angels gives the short fiction its due and it will appeal to scholars of mimetic and literary theory Victorianists and students of the novel

Angels and heaven Thomas Mills,1872 Growing Up with America Emily A. Murphy,2020-09-15 When D H Lawrence wrote his classic study of American literature he claimed that youth was the true myth of America Beginning from this assertion Emily A Murphy traces the ways that youth began to embody national hopes and fears at a time when the United States was transitioning to a new position of world power In the aftermath of World War II persistent calls for the nation to grow up and move beyond innocence became common and the child that had long served as a symbol of the nation was suddenly discarded in favor of a rebellious adolescent This era marked the beginning of a crisis of identity where literary critics and writers both sought to redefine U S national identity in light of the nation s new global position The figure of the adolescent is central to an understanding of U S national identity both past and present and of the cultural forms e g literature that participate in the ongoing process of representing the diverse experiences of Americans In tracing the evolution of this youthful figure Murphy revisits classics of American literature including J D Salinger s The Catcher in the Rye and Vladimir Nabokov s Lolita alongside contemporary bestsellers The influence of the adolescent on some of America s greatest writers demonstrates the endurance of the myth that Lawrence first identified in 1923 and signals a powerful link between youth and one of the most persistent questions for the nation What does it mean to be an American

Angels: Heralds of God Robert F. Feller,2024-01-23 This book depicts angels as the heralds of God in the special areas of Joy Peace Salvation Protection Communication Death and Judgement Archangel Michael is featured as well as Gabriel Seraphim and Cheribim The author has interposed some humor in order to interest the reader There is an Angel Quiz that readers will fill out and ponder before reading the book as well as an Opinion Poll asking their concept of an angel as a child and now is an adult

The Angel's Lamp Ashby Jones,2016-01-29 The Angel s Lamp set in war torn Ireland just after the Easter Rising centers around a love affair between Johnny Flynn an Irish bred English staff sergeant in charge of the rebellion s soon to be executed leaders and Nora Connolly the firebrand daughter of James Connolly the uprising s charismatic leader Johnny meets Nora while standing guard over her soon to be executed father and is struck by her determination to take the fight to the British But then unknown to Nora and under the threat of death Johnny is unexpectedly summoned to serve on the firing squad that executes Connolly Ridden with guilt after the execution and feeling a traitor to his heritage given all he has seen and done Johnny deserts the British Army joins the ragtag Irish rebels and soon crosses paths with Nora The story that follows culminates in an fiery emotional conflict between Johnny and Nora that pits the possibilities of love against the unyielding obstacles to forgiveness The Angels Pascale Parente,1994-12-03 From Scripture Fathers Doctors of the Church St Thomas official pronouncements holy writers Their creation test fall nature powers duties Saints who conversed with nine choirs famous Angels etc Literature and Mnemonic Migration Eneken Laanes,Jessica Ortner,Tea Sindbæk-Andersen,2025-05-19 This book deals with mnemonic migration understood as the movement of memories across linguistic cultural and mnemonic borders via the medium of literature In contemporary literature there is a growing number of authors with migration experience some of whom write not in native tongue but in their second or third language and who represent their experience of migration as encounter of different historical memories When migrating to a new place people enter not only a new political and cultural structure but also a new framework of memory They need to adjust their historical imaginaries thereby also contesting and expanding the framework they enter The volume explores how contemporary literature addresses specific historical legacies juxtaposes them multidirectionally and disseminates them in original and through translation in different parts of the world and in various social contexts Furthermore this volume traces literature s role in the processes of memory circulation translation and reception from the interdisciplinary perspectives of cultural memory studies translation studies reception studies and the studies of migrant and multilingual literature Clouds and Silverlinings Josie Paige,2012-05-18 This segment begins with a terrible tragedy Angels mother has been involved in a fatal accident thus her world seemingly has come far too quickly to an end What will she do now Where shall she go How will she cope Then at the funeral a stranger comes and offers her a chance to meet a family member that she didnt even know she had and an opportunity to change her life forever should she take the chance What would her mother say she should do Why has she never met any other family Maybe she could get some questions answered about that at least This could be the opportunity she has been waiting for or the worst decision she has ever made in her life This could be the start of the rest of her life In more ways than one This chance of a new life would send her to Europe where she meets her soul mate a woman who sweeps her off her feet so fast it seems too good So begins a vastly different life that brings challenges to overcome with a new family behind her An Angel's Surprise for Mary The Annunciation Kids' Bible Stories Ayokunle Mathew Akinbi,2025-07-03 In the quiet town of Nazareth a kind young woman named Mary lives a simple life filled with prayer and kindness But her peaceful world is changed forever when a glorious angel named Gabriel appears with a message that will alter the course of history Mary has been chosen by God to be the mother of a King whose kingdom will never end Join Mary on an incredible journey of faith from her moment of fear and confusion to her brave and happy yes to God's amazing plan Feel the warmth of the angel's light hear the joy in her cousin Elizabeth's greeting and witness the unwavering love of Joseph the carpenter who stands by her side Told with rich sensory detail that brings ancient Galilee to life An Angel's Surprise for Mary is the timeless story of how an ordinary girl's extraordinary faith welcomed the Savior into the world It's a story of courage miracles and the beautiful truth that with God anything is possible

Milton and the Making of Paradise Lost William Poole, 2023-01-18 An authoritative and accessible introduction to Milton's life and an engaging examination of the process of composing Paradise Lost Choice In early 1642 Milton promised English readers a work of literature so great that they should not willingly let it die Twenty five years later the epic poem Paradise Lost appeared in print In the interim however the poet had gone totally blind and had also become a controversial public figure a man who had argued for the abolition of bishops freedom of the press the right to divorce and the prerogative of a nation to depose and put to death an unsatisfactory ruler These views had rendered him an outcast William Poole devotes particular attention to Milton's personal life his reading and education his ambitions and anxieties and the way he presented himself to the world Although always a poet first Milton was also a theologian and civil servant vocations that informed the composition of his masterpiece At the emotional center of this narrative is the astounding fact that Milton lost his sight in 1652 How did a blind man compose this intensely visual work Poole opens up the world of Milton's masterpiece to modern readers first by exploring Milton's life and intellectual preoccupations and then by explaining the poem itself its structure content and meaning Poole's book may well become what he shows Paradise Lost soon became a classic Times Literary Supplement Smart and original Demonstrates with astonishing exactitude how Milton's life and most impressively of all his reading enabled this epic The Spectator This deeply learned and lucidly written book makes this most ambitious of early modern poets accessible to his modern readers Journal of British Studies

Handbook of Research on Business Angels Hans Landström, Colin Mason, 2016-09-28 Business angels are recognized as playing a key role in financing the start up and early stages of new ventures However our knowledge of how business angels operate remains limited and highly fragmented This Handbook provides a synthesis of research on business angels It adopts an international perspective to reflect the spread of angel investing around the world The increasing number of government initiatives to promote angel investing is also reflected in the book with an assessment of the most common support schemes Adopting an international focus the expert group of contributors examine business angels themselves the evolution of the market the various stages of the investment process and the role of public policy in influencing angel investment They each conclude their chapters with an agenda for future research on business angels Students and scholars of entrepreneurship entrepreneurial finance and related subjects will find this book to be an invaluable resource for their work In particular they will benefit from the research agendas that conclude each chapter This Handbook will also be of interest to policy makers and other practitioners looking to enhance their understanding of the design and need for such interventions
