The Hunters of the Hills Joseph A. Altsheler, 2013-04-17 A canoe containing two boys and a man was moving slowly on one of the little lakes in the great northern wilderness of what is now the State of New York The water a brilliant blue under skies of the same intense sapphire tint rippled away gently on either side of the prow or rose in heaps of glittering bubbles as the paddles were lifted for a new stroke Vast masses of dense foliage in the tender green of early spring crowned the high banks of the lake on every side The eye found no break anywhere Only the pink or delicate red of a wild flower just bursting into bloom varied the solid expanse of emerald walls and save for the canoe and a bird of prey darting in a streak of silver for a fish the surface of the water was lone and silent The three who used the paddles were individual and unlike none of them bearing any resemblance to the other two The man sat in the stern He was of middle years built very powerfully and with muscles and sinews developed to an amazing degree His face in childhood quite fair had been burned almost as brown as that of an Indian by long exposure He was clothed wholly in tanned deerskin adorned with many little colored beads A hatchet and knife were in the broad belt at his waist and a long rifle lay at his feet His face was fine and open and he would have been noticed anywhere But the eyes of the curious would surely have rested first upon the two youths with him The

Altsheler, 2016-04-23 The Hunters of the hills The Hunters of the Hills: A Story of the Great French and Indian War Joseph Alexander Altsheler, 2020-09-28 A canoe containing two boys and a man was moving slowly on one of the little lakes in the great northern wilderness of what is now the State of New York The water a brilliant blue under skies of the same intense sapphire tint rippled away gently on either side of the prow or rose in heaps of glittering bubbles as the paddles were lifted for a new stroke Vast masses of dense foliage in the tender green of early spring crowned the high banks of the lake on every side The eye found no break anywhere Only the pink or delicate red of a wild flower just bursting into bloom varied the solid expanse of emerald walls and save for the canoe and a bird of prey darting in a streak of silver for a fish the surface of the water was lone and silent The three who used the paddles were individual and unlike none of them bearing any resemblance to the other two The man sat in the stern He was of middle years built very powerfully and with muscles and sinews developed to an amazing degree His face in childhood quite fair had been burned almost as brown as that of an Indian by long exposure He was clothed wholly in tanned deerskin adorned with many little colored beads A hatchet and knife were in the broad belt at his waist and a long rifle lay at his feet His face was fine and open and he would have been noticed anywhere But the eyes of the curious would surely have rested first upon the two youths with him One was back of the canoe s center on the right side and the other was forward on the left The weight of the three occupants was balanced so nicely that their delicate craft floated on a perfectly even keel The lad near the prow was an Indian of a nobler type than is often seen in these later days when he has been deprived of the native surroundings that fit him like the setting of a gem The Indian although several years short of full manhood was tall with limbs slender as was usual in his kind but his shoulders were broad and his chest wide and deep His color was a light copper the tint verging toward red and his face was illumined wonderfully by black eyes that often flashed with a lofty look of courage and pride The young warrior Tayoga a coming chief of the clan of the Bear of the nation Onondaga of the League of the Hodenosaunee known to white men as the Iroquois was in all the wild splendor of full forest attire His headdress gustoweh was the product of long and careful labor It was a splint arch curving over the head and crossed by another arch from side to side the whole inclosed by a cap of fine network fastened with a silver band From the crest like the plume of a Roman knight a cluster of pure white feathers hung and on the side of it a white feather of uncommon size projected upward and backward the end of the feather set in a little tube which revolved with the wind the whole imparting a further air of distinction to his strong and haughty countenance
