Resources in Education ,1999      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996      The Idea of Difficulty in Literature Alan C. Purves,1991-09-03 This book redefines the nature of textual difficulty in literature and shows the implications of the new definition for teachers at all levels of education Contrary to the traditional use of grade levels or readability formulae the authors redefine difficulty in terms of readers and the texts they meet They base their arguments on contemporary linguistic theory on historical and comparative studies of criticism on literary theory about readers and texts on post Freudian psychology on empirical research concerning the nature of reading literature and on studies of classrooms curricula and testing What emerges is a coherent work that builds a case for seeing difficulty in literature as a human phenomenon more than a textual one      ERIC Information Analysis Products Educational Resources Information Center (U.S.),1979
