The Idea of Development in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit and Its Development<sup>1</sup>

CHRISTOPH ASMUTH

The end of the eighteenth century and the beginning of the nineteenth century saw a dynamization of philosophical theory. The Leibnizian-Wolffian terminology that had degenerated into a school philosophy was to be transformed into genetic concepts. This endeavor is also reflected in the German literature of the time. This is why I would like to begin with a famous quotation from Goethe's Faust:

What's written is: "In the beginning was the Word."
I am stopped already—I cannot play the bard.
The value of the word I cannot so inflate,
I must find another way to translate;
If by spirit's guide my way I find,
It says, "In the beginning was the Mind."
Consider well what this line means.

James J. Cassidy, 2016-09-28 The relationship between eternity and time is a common subject for theologians and philosophers What difference does it make for this discussion that God became man and inhabited time in Jesus Christ In God's Time for Us James J Cassidy examines the theology of Karl Barth to show that God is our Father who does not neglect us for lack of time he is the God who has time to be with us God also quite literally has time in his own being by virtue of the incarnation Cassidy shows that Barth seeks a rapprochement between eternity and time which is overcome by Jesus Christ There is today a resurgence in interest in the theology of Barth especially among evangelicals Yet Barth is often read without discernment and discussed in churches without full understanding Cassidy illuminates his thought so evangelicals can make a better more well informed appraisal of the man and his theology Urja Utpadan Ka Arthshastra Chandrakanta Sharma, 1997 Psychoanalysis has brought about a revolution in the understanding of religious phenomenon by exploring into the depth of our psyche Its discoveries have thrown a flood of light on the multi dimensional concept of religion A study of psychoanalysis with special reference to Freud Adler Jung and Fromm shows that it is in no way logically incompatible with the values of religion Freud's emphasis on Truth and Love Adler's vision of social ties Jung's realization of self transcendence through individuation and Fromm's Humanistic approach have given a comprehensive view of religion with new illuminations Psychoanalysis has done to mankind a real service in ruthlessly exposing the unhealthy state of neurotic religion It has attacked abuse rather than the use of religion
