The Ideological Weapons Of Death A Theological Critique Of Capitalism:

The Ideological Weapons of Death Franz J. Hinkelammert, 1986 The Ideological Weapons of Death Franz Josef Hinkelammert, 1986 The Theological Metaphors of Marx Enrique Dussel, 2024-04-02 Enrique Dussel provides a groundbreaking combination of Marxology, theology, and ethical theory showing that Marx unveils the theology of capitalism in his critique of commodity fetishization Public Theology in an Age of World Christianity P. Chung, 2010-04-26 This book aims to rearticulate and reinterpret a Christian concept of God's mission and evangelization in light of the universal irregular and transversal horizon of God's narrative as it pertains to the realities of the public sphere Globalizing Theology Craig Ott, Harold A. Netland, 2006-10-01 One of the most powerful forces in the twenty-first century is the increasing phenomenon of globalization. In nearly every realm of human activity, traditional boundaries are disappearing, and people worldwide are more interconnected than ever. Christianity has also become more aware of global realities and the important role of the church in non-Western countries. Church leaders must grapple with the implications for theology and ministry in an ever-shrinking world. Globalizing Theology is a groundbreaking book that addresses these issues of vital importance to the church. It contains articles from leading scholars including Tite Ti nou, Kevin Vanhoozer, Charles Van Engen, M. Daniel Carroll, R. Andrew Walls, Vinoth Ramachandra, and Paul Hiebert. Topics covered include the challenges that globalization brings to theology, how we can incorporate global perspectives into our thinking, and the effect a more global theology has on a variety of important issues Latin American Liberation Theology David Tombs, 2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence. Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s. This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades, thus presenting a contextual theology. The book is divided into five main sections: the historical role of the church from Columbus's arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959; the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s; the transitional decade of the 1970s; the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s; and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s. This book offers insights into liberation theology's profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies. This publication has also been published in paperback; please click here for details Beyond Liberation Theology Ivan Petrella, 2013-01-03 Liberation theologies are the most important theological movement of our time. In the 20th century, their influence shook the Third and First Worlds' grass root organizations and the affluent Western academy, as well as the lives of priests and laypeople persecuted and murdered for living out their understanding of the Christian message. In the 21st C, their insights and goals remain unfortunately as valid as ever Key Theological Thinkers Svein Rise, 2016-04-22 The 20th and 21st Centuries have been characterized by theologians and philosophers rethinking theology and revitalizing the tradition. This unique anthology presents contributions from leading contemporary theologians including Rowan Williams Fergus Kerr Aidan Nichols G R Evans and Tracey Rowland who offer portraits of over fifty key theological thinkers in the modern and postmodern era Distinguished by its broad ecumenical perspective this anthology spans arguably one of the most creative periods in the history of Christian theology and includes thinkers from all three Christian traditions Protestant Catholic and Orthodox Each individual portrait in this anthology includes a biographical introduction an overview of theological or philosophical writing presentation of key thoughts and contextual placing of the thinker within 20th Century religious discourse Overview articles explore postmodern theology radical orthodoxy ecumenical theology feminist theology and liberation theology A final section includes portraits of important thinkers who have influenced Christian thought from other fields not least from Continental philosophy and literature

Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics Paul S. Chung, 2013-10-23 Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics is a groundbreaking attempt to present constructive missional theology in an integrative and interdisciplinary framework as it provocatively utilizes and contextualizes Reformation theology and hermeneutics concerning ethical theology embedded within the wider horizon of World Christianity Mission as constructive theology is explored and refined in an hermeneutical and interdisciplinary fashion underlying a new horizon of postcolonial theology and mission in light of God's act of speech Missional church founded up God's grace of justification and Christ's diakonia of reconciliation becomes ethically oriented public church as it is engaged in multireligious diversity of people's lives and lifeworld in the postcolonial context of World Christianity

A Liberation Theology of the Brain Carmelo Santos-Rolón, 2025 Using insights from neuroscience theology and his experiences as pastor professor and activist Santos Rolón explores how science and theology illuminate God's decolonizing effects on the brain and nervous system Structures of injustice in the world must also be dismantled in us and the future that God is birthing is taking shape within us

Reconstructing the Common Good Gary J. Dorrien, 2008-05-01 This landmark study in the history and theory of modern Christian socialism examines the work of such major figures as Rauschenbusch Tillich Moltmann Gutiérrez and Miguez Bonino Dorrien argues that these theologians provide a singular context for addressing questions of freedom and totalitarianism sacralization and democratization individual autonomy and the common good He focuses on the differing conceptions of the common good that these major theorists have propounded and explicates as well their theological arguments on the relationship between the Kingdom of God and projects of historical praxis With a new Preface addressing the tumultuous events in Eastern Europe Reconstructing the Common Good develops and sustains a forceful argument for the continuing relevance of a decentralized pluralistic democratic form of socialism

Less Than Two Dollars a Day Kent A. Van Til, 2007-03-02 Christian tradition demands basic sustenance for all as a human right Yet the contemporary capitalist economy makes no such demands and the free market is not designed to provide basic human sustenance As Western Christians how ought we to solve this conundrum Kent Van Til maintains that the gulf between the two calls for an alternative system of distribution In this constructively critical work Van Til takes a hard look at the realities of life in a free market system including illuminating examples from his own experience in Latin America He considers how the contemporary capitalist economy guides the distribution of goods around the world and he examines the inadequacies of this system Drawing heavily on the ideas of political theorist Michael Walzer and nineteenth century theologian statesman Abraham Kuyper Van Til proposes an alternative system of distributive justice equalizing the claims to both burdens and benefits

Public Theology in the Secular State Rudolf von Sinner, 2023-07-04 This book gives a persuasive answer to the need for public theology today Rudolf von Sinner can draw from a rich basis of scholarship and experience related to the topic of public theology His clear awareness of the contextuality of public theology is the reason for his repeated assurance in this book that we cannot speak about public theology but always only of a public theology At the same time it is very clear for him that there is also an intercontextuality One of the great strengths of this book is its embeddedness into an international discourse on public theology with a special emphasis on the South South exchange It is a contribution to public theology scholarship in its best sense I proudly welcome its publication in our series Bishop Prof Dr Heinrich Bedford Strohm

Evangelical Church in Germany Reclaiming Mission as Constructive Theology Paul S. Chung, 2012-03-09 Reclaiming Mission as Constructive Theology offers a compelling case for the need to integrate God's mission and missional church conversation with a public and post colonial study of World Christianity Driven by a commitment to publicly engaged theology that takes seriously the reality of Global Christianity Paul Chung presents a vital new model for understanding the mission of God as a dynamic word event This is argued in conversation with contemporary missional theology and analysis of the development of Global Christianity and as such brings important transcultural issues to bear on contemporary American conversations about the missional church All of this serves to innovatively stimulate this missional church conversation and more directly address the various questions that arise in pursuing mission in a multiculturalized American society

Shifting Locations and Reshaping Methods Ulrich Winkler, Henry Jansen, 2018 This collection of essays presents the reader with a fine overview and detailed discussion on the impact of interreligious studies and intercultural theology on methods and methodologies New fields of study require new methods and methodologies and although these two new fields draw from a host of existing other disciplines and areas of thought and are almost transdisciplinary in nature they nonetheless influence existing methodologies and help them evolve in new directions

The Spirit of God Transforming Life P. Chung, 2009-11-09 By re-examining the central themes of Reformation theology Chung clearly and carefully describes the fundamental shape of Reformation thinking and introduces the reader to what was and is at stake in the Reformation's insistence on the centrality of the Gospel

The Oxford Handbook of the Epistemology of Theology William J. Abraham, Frederick D. Aquino, 2017-06-15 The Oxford Handbook of the Epistemology of Theology brings together leading scholars in the fields of theology and epistemology to examine and articulate what can be categorized as appropriate

epistemic evaluation in theology Part one focuses on some of the epistemic concepts that have been traditionally employed in theology such as knowledge of God revelation and scripture reason and faith experience and tradition This section also considers concepts that have not received sufficient epistemological attention in theology such as saints authority ecclesial practices spiritual formation and discernment Part two concentrates on epistemic concepts that have received significant attention in contemporary epistemology and can be related to theology such as understanding wisdom testimony virtue evidence foundationalism realism antirealism scepticism and disagreement Part three offers examples from key figures in the Christian tradition and investigates the relevant epistemological issues and insights in these writers as well as recognizing the challenges of connecting insights from contemporary epistemology with the subject of theology proper namely God Part four centres on five emerging areas that warrant further epistemological consideration liberation theology continental philosophy modern orthodox writers feminism and Pentecostalism This authoritative collection explores how the various topics figures and emerging conversations can be reconceived and addressed in light of recent developments in epistemology Each chapter provides an analysis of the crucial moves positions and debates while also identifying relevant epistemic considerations This handbook fulfils the need for the development of this new conversation that will take its natural place in the intersection of theology and epistemology It links the fields of theology and epistemology in robust meaningful and significant ways

Reflecting Black Michael Eric Dyson, 1993 From rap music to preaching from Toni Morrison to Leonard Jeffries from Michael Jackson to Michael Jordan Reflecting Black explores as never before the varied and complex dimensions of African American culture through personal reflection expository journalism scholarly investigation and even homily A landmark text in Afro American cultural criticism There is simply nothing like it that exists The level of theoretical sophistication and political engagement is rare and badly needed Cornel West As Reflecting Black so richly demonstrates Michael Eric Dyson combines cutting edge theoretical acuity with the passionate engaged and accessible stance of a public intellectual His critical purview encompasses scholarly tomes and mass market periodicals trends in theology and in hip hop culture alike This book is a splendid introduction to a singularly important voice Henry Louis Gates Jr Dyson is a young black cultural political and religious critic whose new book directs its nastiest commentary at racism sexism capitalism and straight up immorality His is a fresh voice seemingly unfazed by Blackademe's battle royal Dyson's project is very much in the tradition of recent work by a number of young African American cultural critics like Tricia Rose Hilton Als bell hooks Greg Tate Wahneema Lubiano Elizabeth Alexander and Herman Gray to name but a few Reflecting Black is much more than a cultural critique in the formal sense It interrogates the political social and moral crises confronting American society generally and African American communities in particular In the end Dyson is not one of those cultural studies scholars concerned with debating the fine points of discourse theory He is an oppositional critic with a much higher purpose than developing analytical tools to make sense of African American culture The Reverend Dyson is not only operating within a rich

Marxist tradition but within a very old and continuing African American tradition Black communities through newspaper columns church groups street corner gatherings beauty parlor and barber shop discussions have always debated and taken responsibility for their culture s Dyson s constant lecturing chiding and encouraging embodies what Antonio Gramsci and his own mama expected us to do all along not just interpret culture but actively change it through struggle The Nation Where Michael Jackson meets spirituality where Martin Luther King meets Malcolm X where the consolidating narrative of racial unity meets the perplexing and chaotic politics of racial identity These are the border zones of Michael Eric Dyson s compassionate postmodern eclectic critical project Reflecting Black is an invigorating reader for our perplexing and chaotic times Voice Literary Supplement He shows an admirable breadth ranging from issues such as racism and political correctness in the seminary to examinations of such icons of popular culture as filmmaker Spike Lee singer Michael Jackson and athlete Michael Jordan One entire section of the book is devoted to black religion and includes an examination of the lives and examples of Martin Luther King Jr and Malcom X Washington Post Book World Yet if Dyson stumbles in his discussions of black popular culture he soars in his section titled Beyond the Mantra Reflections on Race Gender and Class In Remembering Emmett Till Dyson writes not just with his mind but with his heart Boston Globe Yet his insights are just as often incisive and challenging and they demand serious consideration By insisting that we acknowledge the complexities of race in America and by refusing to accept easy answers Reflecting Black forces us to think harder about how we can create alterna

Native Americans, The Mainline Church, and the Quest for Interracial Justice David Phillips Hansen, 2017-01-03 The Native American drive for self governance is the most important civil rights struggle of our time a struggle too often covered up In Native Americans The Mainline Church and the Quest for Interracial Justice David Phillips Hansen lays out the church s role in helping America heal its bleeding wounds of systemic oppression While many believe the United States is a melting pot for all cultures Hansen asserts the longest war in human history is the one Anglo Christians have waged on Native Americans Using faith as a weapon against the darkness of injustice this book will change the way you view how we must solve the pressing problems of racism poverty environmental degradation and violence and it will remind you that faith can be the leaven of justice

Feminist New Testament Studies K. Wicker, M. Dube, A. Spencer-Miller, 2016-09-27 This volume is an engaging and provocative introduction to Feminist Biblical Studies The authors draw upon their own social cultural and religious backgrounds and experiences in reading the New Testament as feminists in the context of globalization They provide intentional interpretations of biblical texts that cast gender race class and power relationships as issues inherent in both the content and context of scripture and its interpretation The essays call into question feminist social engagement that does not extend beyond academic halls churches and Christians suggesting directions for future research and teaching in Feminist Biblical Studies
