Mangrove Man David Lipset, 1997-11-13 The first modern ethnography of the Murik a relatively large and important community settled on the Sepik River estuary in Papua New Guinea Rituals of Manhood Gilbert H. Herdt, 2017-09-08 Rituals of Manhood provides some of the most dramatic and richly textured accounts of ritual passages known to anthropologists of the late twentieth century When in an earlier time anthropologists and sociologists described collective initiation rituals the political and gender aspects of these practices were seldom underscored Today the power relationships of the body and domination and the social arena of gender politics are widely regarded as critical to the cultural meaning and interpretation Self-Destruction of Complex Systems Kirill Postoutenko, 2025-01-27 This book is the first attempt to provide a general theory of self destruction in complex systems applicable to natural social and cultural phenomena The contributors work collaboratively to prove that many of the nondistributed complex systems in nature and society sooner or later experience critical development leading to unintended and irreversible self annihilation The individual chapters also show that the relations of such systems to their own distinctiveness and other systems may result in specific communicative pathologies such as redundancy inflation and noisy signalling which tend to mitigate or reinforce each other depending on circumstances Finally the volume updates some popular models of systemic self destruction from autoimmunity and self organized criticality to imperial overstretch and discusses some prominent cases from supernova explosions to the civil war following the Russian Revolution of 1917 The interdisciplinary style of narration ensures the accessibility of the materials and theories presented for the specialists and students from different fields As such it will appeal to those interested in complexity studies from the areas of sociology history media and communication studies immunology computer science literary criticism cultural studies political science and international relations

The Cassowary's Revenge Donald Tuzin, 1997-09-02 Donald Tuzin first studied the New Guinea village of Ilahita in 1972 When he returned many years later he arrived in the aftermath of a startling event the village s men voluntarily destroyed their secret cult that had allowed them to dominate women for generations The cult s collapse indicated nothing less than the death of masculinity and Tuzin examines the labyrinth of motives behind this improbable self devastating act The villagers mythic tradition provided a basis for this revenge of Woman upon the dominion of Man and remarkably Tuzin himself became a principal figure in its narratives The return of the magic bearing youngest brother from America had been prophesied and the villagers believed that Tuzin s return from the dead signified a further need to destroy masculine traditions The Cassowary s Revenge is an intimate account of how Ilahita s men and women think emote dream and explain themselves Tuzin also explores how the death of masculinity in a remote society raises disturbing implications for gender relations in our own society In this light Tuzin s book is about men and women in search of how to value one another and in today s world there is no theme more universal or timely

Echoes of the Tambaran Paul Roscoe, David Lipset, 2011-10-01 In the Sepik Basin of Papua New Guinea ritual culture was dominated by the Tambaran a male tutelary spirit that acted as a social and intellectual guardian or patron to those under its aegis as they made their way through life To Melanesian scholarship the cultural and psychological anthropologist Donald F Tuzin was something of a Tambaran a figure whose brilliant and fine grained ethnographic project in the Arapesh village of Ilahita was immensely influential within and beyond New Guinea anthropology Tuzin died in 2007 at the age of 61 In his memory the editors of this collection commissioned a set of original and thought provoking essays from eminent and accomplished anthropologists who knew and were influenced by his work They are echoes of the Tambaran The anthology begins with a biographical sketch of Tuzin s life and scholarship It is divided into four sections each of which focuses loosely around one of his preoccupations The first concerns warfare history the male cult and changing masculinity all in Melanesia The second addresses the relationship between actor and structure Here the ethnographic focus momentarily shifts to the Caribbean before turning back to Papua new Guinea in essays that examine uncanny phenomena narratives about childhood and messianic promises The third part goes on to offer comparative and psychoanalytic perspectives on the subject in Fiji Bali the Amazon as well as Melanesia Appropriately the last section concludes with essays on Tuzin s fieldwork style and his distinctive authorial voice Children of the Blood Bernard Juillerat,2020-08-20 This fascinating book translated from the French explores the Yafar society a forest people living by shifting cultivation hunting and gathering Based on fifteen years of research it offers a detailed examination of all aspects of a society whose material and nutritional relations with their rainforest environment are mediated by a sociocultural system based on a carefully negotiated relationship with natural forces and harmony between the sexes The author shows how these basic ideas can be found in the ritualized and institutional aspects of the Yafar s social life as well as their mythology Rich in detail and insight this book fully documents the Yafar s complex ritual involving a symbolic exchange with the spirit world a secret cult and curing rites presided over by hereditary religious officials The author s analysis of Yafar ideologies reveals that sexual reproduction is the key to their society and the model for continuity and regeneration prescribed by nature Archaeology, Anthropology and Cult Thomas Evan Levy,2016-09-17 The Chalcolithic period was formative in Near Eastern prehistory being a time of fundamental social change in craft specialization horticulture and temple life Gilat a low mound semi communal farming settlement in the Negev desert is one of the few Chalcolithic sanctuary sites in the Southern Levant Archaeology Anthropology and Cult presents a critical analysis of the archaeological data from Gilat The book brings together archaeological finds and anthropological theory to examine the role of religion in the evolution of society and the power of ritual in promoting change This comprehensive volume which includes artefact drawings photographs maps and data tables will be of interest to students and scholars of ancient history anthropology archaeology as well as biblical and religious studies Trade before Civilization Johan Ling,Richard J. Attraction of Opposites David Maybury-Lewis, Uri Almagor, 2025-10-01 The Attraction of Opposites considers a puzzling phenomenon Why do societies all over the world organize their social thought and institutions in patterns of opposites The essays collected in this volume examine contemporary societies throughout the world that organize their social theories or institutions in binary form Through analysis of these rich materials the distinguished contributors explore the enduring human attraction to dualism They consider whether this is due to the natural twoness of things and if not why polarity should play such a prominent role in both ancient cosmologies and modern philosophies in early empires and in modern two party systems This study of dual organization tells us something important about human beings illuminating a mode of thought and social organization that has represented an attractive option throughout human history
