The Dutch Nagara Kertagama translation on which Professor Kern worked at intervals during eleven years deserves our utmost admiration and respect It is the last important piece of work he finished before his death It has enriched in an extraordinarily high degree our knowledge of the history and antiquities of the Majapahit period Moreover its dignified and courtly style established the reputation of Old Javanese letters as a literature of considerable interest The contents of the Nagara Kertagama as interpreted by Professor Kern gave 14th century Majapahit a nimbus making it appear to the uncritical public as a most powerful and highly cultured Empire organized on 18th or 19th century West European lines The notes of Krom Poerbatjaraka and others do not contain complete translations of the texts These scholars made valuable contributions to a better understanding of several passages They did not make it easy for the general reader to consult their notes though Professor Kern's appreciation of the contents of the Nagara Kertagama remained fundamentally unshaken Up to the present time Professor Kern's Nagara Kertagama translation has been generally used and highly appreciated by students of Indonesian cultures and by the public interested in Old Javanese history both in Indonesia and elsewhere In 1953 a modern Malay translation by Slametmuljana was published in Djakarta Negarakertagama diperbaharui kedalam bahasa Indonesia But then since Professor Kern's days research has made progress It is clear nowadays that his translation has the defects of its good qualities The Historie, and Lives, of Twentie Kings of England William Martyn,1615 The Racovian Catechism Thomas Rees,1818 An historical account of the heroick life and magnanimous actions of ...
