The Image Of London Views By Travellers And Emigres 1550 19:

Printed Images in Early Modern Britain Michael Hunter, 2016-12-05 Printed images were ubiquitous in early modern Britain and they often convey powerful messages which are all the more important for having circulated widely at the time Yet by comparison with printed texts these images have been neglected particularly by historians to whom they ought to be of the greatest interest This volume helps remedy this state of affairs Complementing the online digital library of British Printed Images to 1700 www.bpi1700.org.uk it offers a series of essays which exemplify the many ways in which such visual material can throw light on the history of the period Ranging from religion to politics polemic to satire natural science to consumer culture the collection explores how printed images need to be read in terms of the visual syntax understood by contemporaries their full meaning often only becoming clear when they are located in the context in which they were produced and deployed The result is not only to illustrate the sheer richness of material of this kind but also to underline the importance of the messages which it conveys which often come across more strongly in visual form than through textual commentaries With contributions from many leading exponents of the cultural history of early modern Britain including experts on religion politics science and art the book's appeal will be equally wide demonstrating how every facet of British culture in the period can be illuminated through the study of printed images The Image of London Malcolm Warner, 1987

Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century Paintings Richard R. Brettell, Paul Hayes Tucker, Natalie Henderson Lee, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009 Robert Lehman 1891-1969 one of the foremost art collectors of his generation embraced the work of both traditional and modern masters This volume catalogues 130 nineteenth and twentieth century paintings that are now part of the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art The majority of the works are by artists based in France but there are also examples from the United States Latin America and India reflecting Lehman's global interests The catalogue opens with outstanding paintings by Ingres Th odore Rousseau and Corot among other early nineteenth century artists They are joined by an exemplary selection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist works by Degas Renoir Sisley Pissarro Seurat Signac Van Gogh C zanne and Gauguin Twentieth century masters represented here include Bonnard Matisse Rouault Dal and Balthus There are also newly researched modern works by Vicente do Rego Monteiro Kees van Dongen Dietz Edzard and D G Kulkarni dizi Robert Lehman's cultivated taste for nineteenth century French academic practitioners and his intuitive eye for emerging young artists of his own time are documented and discussed Three hundred comparative illustrations supplement the catalogue entries as do extensively researched provenance information exhibition histories and references The volume also includes a bibliography and indexes The Intellectuals and the Masses John Carey, 2012-12-20 Professor John Carey shows how early twentieth century intellectuals imagined the masses as semi human swarms drugged by popular newspapers and cinema and ripe for extermination Exposing the revulsion from common humanity in George Bernard Shaw Ezra Pound D H Lawrence E M Forster Virginia Woolf H G Wells Aldous Huxley W B Yeats

and other canonized writers he relates this to the cult of the Nietzschean Superman which found its ultimate exponent in Hitler Carey's assault on the founders of modern culture caused consternation throughout the artistic and academic establishments when it was first published in 1992 Painting in Britain, 1530 to 1790 Ellis Kirkham

Waterhouse, 1994-01-01 The field covered by this volume includes the work and influence of foreign born painters such as Holbein and Van Dyck as well as native masters from Gower and Milliard to Gainsborough Stubbs and Sandby We can follow step by step the development and flowering of British painting and can compare for example the work of the English Sir Joshua Reynolds with the Scottish Allan Ramsay Portrait and landscape history piece miniature watercolour there is a record of them all The text is both scholarly and readable and the illustrations include well known examples of British painting and others seldom or never before reproduced between the covers of a book This is the fifth edition of this work newly enhanced with colour illustrations London Anthony Sutcliffe, Professor Anthony Sutcliffe, 2006-01-01 London is one of the world's greatest cities and its architecture is a unique heritage The Tower of London is an urban castle unique in Europe St Paul's is one of the world's greatest domed cathedrals and the squares and crescents of the West End inspired Haussmann's Paris In London it is the variety of the streets buildings and parks that strikes the visitor No king or government has ever set its mark here Private ownership has shaped the city and architects have served a wide variety of clients London's Classical era produced an elegant townscape between 1600 and 1830 but medieval Tudor and Victorian London were a potpourri of buildings large and small each making its own design statement In London An Architectural History Anthony Sutcliffe takes the reader through two thousand years of architecture from the sublime to the mundane With over 300 color illustrations the book is intended for the general reader and especially those visiting London for the first time Walking the Streets of Eighteenth-Century London Clare Brant, Susan E. Whyman, 2009-01-15 Walking the Streets of Eighteenth Century London will entertain and inform all who are interested in literature history and the city of London This unique book invites the reader to walk along the dirty crowded and fascinating streets of eighteenth century London in an unusual way Nine leading experts from the fields of literature history classics gender biography geography and costume offer different interpretations of John Gay's poem Trivia or the Art of Walking the Streets of London 1716 The poem a lively funny and thought provoking statement about urban life accompanies the essays in a new edition with comprehensive notes The introduction paints a vibrant picture of London in 1716 depicting Gay's fascinating life and literary world offering an invaluable guide to the poem Together these elements allow the heat grime and smells of the underbelly of eighteenth century London come alive in new ways Les Fauves Russell T. Clement, 1994-05-25 This is the first comprehensive scholarly bibliography research guide sourcebook on the major French Fauve painters Henri Matisse and Georges Braque are treated in separate Greenwood bio bibliographies It includes information on 3 120 books and articles as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists Each artist receives a primary and secondary bibliography with many annotated entries Secondary bibliographies include details about each artist's life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography and more Designed for art historians art students museum and gallery curators and art lovers alike this volume organizes the vast literature surrounding this fascinating revolutionary 20th century art group Genuinely new art is always challenging sometimes even shocking to those unprepared for it In 1905 the paintings of Matisse Derain Vlaminck and their friends shocked conservative museum goers hence the eventual popularity of art critic Louis Vauxcelles's tag les fauves or wild beasts by which these artists became known Although it lasted only three or four years Fauvism is recognized as the first artistic revolution of international consequence in the 20th century It was based on the glorification of pure saturated colors and the free expression of primitivism It was a dynamic sensualism an equilibrium of passion and order fire and austerity that could not last By the end of 1908 Fauvism collapsed in the face of Cubism which moreover several Fauve artists helped to form

Memory and Desire Kenneth McConkey, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2002 Memory and Desire is a lavishly illustrated account of the art world in Britain at the turn of the twentieth century It calls upon rich resources of contemporary diaries letters and art criticism as well as the analysis of works of art to answer questions about how and why new artistic tendencies emerged and tastes changed Eschewing the familiar narrative of an inevitable progress towards modernism Kenneth McConkey considers a broad range of art and critical thinking in the period Discussing the market for old master paintings which rivalled those for modern art and the question of how and why certain genres of art were particularly successful at the time McConkey explores the detail and significance of contemporary taste He draws upon the work of commercially successful painters such as John Singer Sargent William Orpen George Clausen Alfred East John Lavery and Philip Wilson Steer and their critic supporters to throw light upon current arguments about training aesthetics visual memory and the creation of new art Memory and Desire is a major contribution to our knowledge of this important period in British art
