Contract_x000D_ De Laclos _x000D_ Dangerous Liaisons _x000D_ Stendhal The Oxford History of the Novel in English
Cyrus R. K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States Jewish Writers of Latin America Darrell B. Lockhart, 2013-08-21 Jewish writing has only recently begun to be recognized as a major cultural phenomenon in Latin American literature Nevertheless the majority of students and even Latin American literary specialists remain uninformed about this significant body of writing This Dictionary is the first comprehensive bibliographical and critical source book on Latin American Jewish literature It represents the research efforts of 50 scholars from the United States Latin America and Israel who are dedicated to the advancement of Latin American Jewish studies An introduction by the editor is followed by entries on 118 authors that provide both biographical information and a critical summary of works Argentina Brazil and Mexico home to the largest Jewish communities in Latin America are the countries with the greatest representation but there are essays on writers from Venezuela Chile Uruguay Peru Colombia Costa Rica and Cuba The MX Book of New Sherlock Holmes Stories - Part XXVI David Marcum, 2021-09-27 Featuring Contributions by Marcia Wilson Peter Coe Verbica Margaret Walsh James Gelter Naching T Kassa DJ Tyrer Ian Ableson Kevin P Thornton David Marcum Adrian Middleton Dick Gillman Geri Schear Mark Mower Susan Knight Frank Schildiner Arthur Hall Harry DeMaio Mike Hogan Anthony Gurney James Moffett I A Watson and forewords by Peter Lovesey Roger Johnson

Steve Emecz and David Marcum Here though the world explode these two survive And it is always eighteen ninety five So wrote Sherlockian Vincent Starrett in his 1942 poem 221b soon after the United States entered World War II Even as those years brought terrible challenges so too has 2020 been a year of great testing for so many of us as a global pandemic rages and good people are called to stand against evil For Sherlockians comfort can be found in climbing those seventeen stairs to the Baker Street sitting room where it is always eighteen ninety five or a few decades on either side of it In 2015 the first three volumes of The MX Book of New Sherlock Holmes Stories arrived containing over 60 stories in the true traditional Canonical manner That was the largest collection of new Holmes stories ever assembled and originally planned to be a one time event But readers wanted more and the contributors had more stories from Watson s Tin Dispatch Box so the fun continued Now with the release of Parts XXV XXVI and XXVII the series has grown to nearly 600 new Holmes adventures by almost 200 contributors from around with world Since the beginning all contributor royalties go to the Stepping Stones School for special needs children at Undershaw one of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle s former homes and to date the project has raised over 75 000 for the school As has become the tradition this new collection features Holmes and Watson carrying out their masterful investigations from the early days of their friendship in Baker Street to the post War years during Holmes s retirement Join us as we return to Baker Street and discover more authentic adventures of Sherlock Holmes described by the estimable Dr Watson as the best and wisest whom I have ever known 59 new traditional Holmes adventures in three simultaneously published volumes The game is afoot All author royalties from this collection are being donated by the writers for the benefit of the preservation of Undershaw one of the former homes of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle The MX Book of New Sherlock Holmes Stories - Part XII David Marcum,2021-05-11 Part XII 1894 1902 features contributions from C H Dye David Marcum Thomas Fortenberry Daniel D Victor Nik Morton Craig Janacek S Subramanian Jim French Robert Stapleton Nick Cardillo Paul D Gilbert Mike Hogan Derrick Belanger John Linwood Grant Mark Mower Jane Rubino and Arthur Hall and a poem by Anon 34 new traditional Holmes adventures in two simultaneously published volumes Somewhere in the vaults of the bank of Cox and Co at Charing Cross there is a travel worn and battered tin dispatch box with my name John H Watson M D Late Indian Army painted upon the lid It is crammed with papers nearly all of which are records of cases to illustrate the curious problems which Mr Sherlock Holmes had at various times to examine Dr John H Watson So wrote Dr Watson in The Problem of Thor Bridge and ever since Sherlockians have been bringing us new adventures from this legendary tin dispatch box While his original Literary Agent only edited the pitifully few sixty stories that make up the original Canon there have since been literally thousands of traditional adventures about the true Sherlock Holmes and there will never be enough Throughout the original Holmes Canon there were hints and teases of other intriguing cases The Giant Rat of Sumatra The Abernethy Tragedy The Manor House Case Watson mentions well over one hundred of these which have collectively come to be known as The Untold Cases Now the latest MX anthologies present thirty four of those adventures in two simultaneously
