The Industrious Southeast Allan Carpenter, 1987-12 The Stakes of Democracy in South-East Asia (RLE Modern East and South East Asia) H. van Mook, 2015-04-10 Will national independence bring to the peoples of South East Asia liberty and democracy Or will it mean corrupt government factional strife and insolvency Or will it mean eventual absorption by totalitarian communism In this book first published in 1950 the author analyses these questions using the case history of Indonesia since 1940 in which he played a leading role to illustrate his points He gives an outline of the history of South East Asia its domination by the West and its convulsion by war and nationalism The seven nations of South East Asia Ceylon Burma Siam Indo China Malaya Indonesia and the Philippines have a great deal in common except for Siam they are all struggling through the formative years of nationhood except for Ceylon they were all occupied and pillaged by Japan during the War They are of great value to other nations as a source of raw materials and foodstuffs Their political and economic structure is of vital importance both to themselves and to us and unless their new nationalism can be strengthened the free world may lose a valuable asset to its economy and an ally against totalitarianism in Asia History of Southeast

Asian Empire and British Knowledge U. Hillemann, 2009-10-15 British knowledge about China changed fundamentally in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Rather than treating these changes in British understanding as if Anglo Sino relations were purely bilateral this study looks at how British imperial networks in India and Southeast Asia were critical mediators in the British encounter of China

Reorienting the 19th Century Andre Gunder Frank, Robert A. Denemark, 2015-10-23 Andre Gunder Frank was a path breaking scholar in several disciplines over an illustrious and contentious 50 year career First amongst his many important works is the book ReORIENT Global Economy in the Asian Age which sought to correct a Euro centric world view of the development of the global political economy Frank passed away in April 2005 while working on this new book a sequel to ReORIENT In this book Frank shows many of the myths of European industrialisation hegemony and capitalism which have hidden the fact that Asia remained a serious power not just into the 18th century as Frank himself argued in 1998 but well into the 19th century as well When Frank passed away his colleagues rallied to finish this book and it is presented here as his final major statement
