Volume I Iain Dale, Jacqui Smith, 2018-09-04 FOREWORD BY PRIME MINISTER THERESA MAY When Constance Markievicz stood for election as MP for Dublin St Patrick's in 1918 few people believed she could win the seat yet she did A breakthrough in the bitter struggle for female enfranchisement had come earlier that year followed by a second landmark piece of legislation allowing women to be elected to Parliament and Markievicz duly became the first female MP A member of Sinn Féin she refused to take her seat She did however pave the way for future generations and only eleven months later Nancy Astor entered the Commons A century on from that historic event 491 women have now passed through the hallowed doors of Parliament Each one of these pioneers has fought tenaciously to introduce enduring reform and in doing so has helped revolutionise Britain's political landscape ensuring that women's contributions are not consigned to the history books Containing profiles of every woman MP from 1918 to 1996 and with female contributors from Mary Beard to Caroline Lucas Ruth Davidson to Yvette Cooper and Margaret Beckett to Ann Widdecombe The Honourable Ladies is an indispensable and illuminating testament to the stories and achievements of these remarkable women The Ladies' Companion, and

Monthly Magazine Webb Loudon, 1852 The Missionary Review of the World, 1883 Raising More Hell and Fewer Dahlias Autumn Stanley, 2009 This book is the first biography of nineteenth century magazine editor and reformer Charlotte Smith Based on years of research and previously untapped sources it shows both why she should be remembered and why she was forgotten Her story is quintessentially American this daughter of Irish immigrants despite having only a grade school education and supporting two children alone became a force to be reckoned with first in journalism and then in reform Her first periodical the Inland Monthly was doubly rare edited by a woman but not a women's magazine and a profitable venture bringing a large sum when sold Flynn of the Inland Ion Llewellyn Idriess, 1933 Women Workers And Schrover, 2005-08-05 From the traditional stereotyped viewpoint femininity and technology clash This negative association between women and technology is one of the features of the sex typing of jobs Men are seen as technically competent and creative women are seen as incompetent suited only to work with machines that have been made and maintained by men Men identify themselves with technology and technology is identified with masculinity The relationship between technology technological change and women s work is however very complex Through studies examining technological change and the sexual division of labour this book traces the origins of the segregation between women s work and men s work and sheds light on the complicated relationship between work and technology Drawing on research from a number of European countries England Sweden Denmark and the Netherlands international contributors present detailed studies on women s work spanning two centuries The chapters deal with a variety of work environments office work textiles and pottery food production civil service and cotton and wool industries This work rejects the idea that women were mainly employed as unskilled labour in the industrial revolutions asserting that skill was required from the women but that both the historical record about women s work and the social construction of the concept of skill have denied this Ladies in the Laboratory III Mary R. S. Creese, Thomas M. Creese, 2010-02-08 Published in 1998 Ladies in the Laboratory provided a systematic survey and comparison of the work of 19th century American and British women in scientific research A companion volume published in 2004 focused on women scientists from Western Europe In this third volume author Mary R S Creese expands her scope to include the contributions of 19th and early 20th century women of South Africa Australia New Zealand and Canada The women whose lives and work are discussed here range from natural history collectors and scientific illustrators of the early and mid years of the 19th century to the first generation of graduates of the new colonial colleges and universities Rarely acknowledged in publications of the British and European specialists the contributions of these women nonetheless formed a significant part of the natural history information about extensive previously unknown regions and their products Rather than a biographical dictionary or a collection of self contained essays on individuals from many time periods Ladies in the Laboratory III is a connected narrative tied into the wider framework of 19th century science and education A well organized blend of individual life stories and quantitative information this volume is for everyone interested in the story of women s participation in 19th century science The stories of these women make for fascinating reading and serve as a valuable source for the student of women s and colonial history Wicked Women Fay Weldon, 2013-04-16 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year Wicked Women brings together twenty tales that lay bare the minds and hearts of men women and children Victims liberators blackmailers healers and ghosts they re just a few of the fascinating men and women you ll meet in this stellar boundary defying anthology From a heartless lover to a therapist who s exposed for being a child hater Weldon s characters search for meaning betray their vows take pleasure in others misfortunes or get pushed out of the family manse by their grasping offspring Whether she s depicting a child s reaction to the chaotic lives of her parents or envisioning a terrifying futuristic society Fay Weldon wields her prolific pen like a sword In a pre apocalyptic world where nothing is sacred Wicked Women reveals the infinite ability of men and women to wound to grieve and to love the ladies
