The International Film Poster:

The Book of the International Film Poster Gregory J. Edwards, 1988 Traces the growth of the posters from nineteenth century circus and music hall bills to the present day considering the influences of various art movements The International Film Poster Gregory J. Edwards, 1985 Briefly traces the life history of the movie poster and shows examples from the United States England Europe Russia and Japan The International Film Business Angus Finney, 2014-10-10 The International Film Business examines the independent film sector as a business and addresses the specific skills and knowledge it demands It describes both the present state of the industry the significant digital and social media developments that are continuing to take place and what changes these might effect The International Film Business describes and analyses the present structure of the film industry as a business with a specific focus on the film value chain discusses and analyses current digital technology and how it potentially may change the structure and opportunities offered by the industry in the future provides information and advice on the different business and management skills and strategies includes case studies on a variety of films including The Guard 2011 The King s Speech 2010 The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel 2012 Cloverfield 2008 Pobby Dingan aka Opal Dream 2005 Confessions of a Dangerous Mind 2002 The Reckoning 2002 and The Mother 2003 and company case studies on Pixar Renaissance Redbus and Zentropa Further case studies on films that failed to go into production include Neil LaBute s Vapor and Terry Gilliam s Good Omens Taking an entrepreneurial perspective on what future opportunities will be available to prepared and informed students and emerging practitioners this text includes case studies that take students through the successes and failures of a variety of real film companies and projects and features exclusive interviews with leading practitioners in all sectors of the industry from production to exhibition

British Film Posters Sim Branaghan, 2019-07-25 The first complete history of illustrated film posters in the UK covers every aspect of design printing and display from the Victorian era to the arrival of DeskTop Publishing in the 1980s British Film Posters examines the contribution vintage film posters have made to British popular art of the 20th century

Film by Design Gary D. Rhodes, Robert Singer, 2024-09-16 Contributions by Vlad Dima Laura Hatry Alicia Kozma Lynette Kuliyeve Madhuj Mukherjee Frank Percaccio Gary D Rhodes Courtney Ruffner Grieneisen Marlisa Santos Michael L Shuman and Robert Singer Movie posters regardless of their country of origin have become indelibly linked with the films they represent often assuming a status as visual encapsulations of films within collective memory Long after their initial role in promotion is complete these posters endure as iconic images etched into film history and cultural consciousness One can hardly hear mention of Steven Spielberg s landmark production Jaws for example without immediately picturing the evocative poster art of Roger Kastel Film by Design The Art of the Movie Poster is a groundbreaking and comprehensive exploration of the international and Hollywood movie poster as a dynamic artistic and cultural formation Drawing inspiration from such prominent genres as horror science fiction and noir the twelve essays in this collection provide insightful analyses of the movie poster as a vital component of the cinematic landscape from the silent era to the contemporary period Crucially this anthology rejects the notion of movie posters as mere historical artifacts or advertising tools and instead examines them as integral parts of a broader aesthetic framework interwoven into their respective film narratives Each chapter whether focusing on controversies close ups or Cuba is accessible to scholars students and fans alike Through its intervention in film studies Film by Design reveals the movie poster to be an ever evolving medium firmly grounded in both theory and practice while serving as an essential and enduring element within the realm of film art

 Daniela Elsner, Sissy Helff, Britta Viebrock, 2013 This book brings together two main disciplines namely cultural studies and language education both of which share a long standing interest in films multimodal text forms and visuals It highlights the increasing impact of visuals and multimodal texts on our perception of the world our discourse behavior and how this calls for a change in methodologies and media to be used in foreign language classrooms The book helps to orientate educators in schools and teachers at universities within the broad concept of a multiliteracies approach and to contextualize it with regard to teaching and learning English as a foreign language Series Foreign Language Teaching in Global Perspective Fremdsprachendidaktik in Globaler Perspektive Vol 2

Proceedings of the International Conference on Cultural Studies (ICCUS) 2024
 Prasetyo Adi Wisnu Wibowo, Dwi Susanto, Mibtadin Mibtadin, 2025-06-05 This is an open access book Department of Cultural Study Universitas Sebelas Maret warmly welcomes you to The International Conference on Cultural Studies ICCUS The ICCUS 2024 is the 2nd series since the 1st series was held in 2023 This conference will be held on September 11th 2024 We encourage participants from all over the world to discuss about Art Urban Culture and Global Ethics Contemporary political phenomena influence the city atmosphere Some time before the General Election in Indonesia political party contestation has given rise to political segregation which is expressed in poetry caricatures party symbols and control of urban space Furthermore the city is synonymous with political hegemony and protests In other parts of the world war has damaged urban culture such as in the Middle East as well as giving rise to growing protests from communities in other world cities Politically this gives rise to the term identity politics a politics based on embracing equality based on the similarities of a group to achieve a certain goal for example to gain recognition for the group's identity or raise the level and dignity of the group Identity politics drives the actions of city residents to achieve certain political goals This identity politics capitalizes on race ethnicity language customs gender and religion giving rise to conflicts of interest between city residents Meanwhile on the cultural side a new term has emerged known as hustle culture a culture of hard work patterns above the normal threshold with the aim of achieving success in a field The impact of this hustle culture is damage to the social order system city residents become slaves to technology and toxic negativity Both political social cultural and economic due to global influences give rise to vertical and horizontal conflicts There is a need for a global ethic of cultural diplomacy as a solution as well as a basic consensus related to binding values irrevocable standards and moral attitudes which can be affirmed by all religions even non religious ones There is no survival in the world without global ethics that peace between social elements will not be created without diplomatic dialogue and cooperation between civilizations with an open mind and tolerance How do social humanities describe the current changing urban arts culture and socio political phenomena from various scientific disciplines Notable Keynote and Invited Speakers will share their speeches participants will present their papers and we will provide a platform to support new opportunities and future collaboration Your participation and contribution at ICCUS 2024 will be greatly appreciated

Misleading Film Posters Isabella Hughes, AI, 2025-03-29 Misleading Film Posters explores the pervasive issue of deceptive advertising within the film industry specifically focusing on how movie posters often misrepresent the actual cinematic experience These deceptive practices from fabricated scenes to inaccurate character portrayals shape audience expectations and significantly influence box office success One intriguing fact is how posters can employ visual rhetoric and semiotics to create false impressions sometimes leading to audience disappointment The book uniquely combines historical analysis psychological insights and ethical considerations to dissect these misleading tactics The book's approach involves a systematic examination beginning with core concepts like visual communication and the power of suggestion It then progresses to case studies analyzing posters from various genres and eras to identify common deceptive techniques By exploring examples of film promotion the book reveals how the film industry's marketing practices can undermine audience trust and distort artistic integrity The goal is to encourage a more transparent and honest approach to film marketing

African Film Josef Gugler, 2003. In African Film Re-imagining a Continent, Josef Gugler provides an introduction to African cinema through an analysis of 15 films made by African filmmakers. These directors set out to re-image Africa; their films offer Western viewers the opportunity to re-imagine the continent and its people. As a point of comparison, two additional films on Africa, one from Hollywood and the other from apartheid South Africa, serve to highlight African directors' altogether different perspectives. Gugler's interpretation considers the financial and technical difficulties of African film production, the intended audiences in Africa and the West, the constraints on distribution, and the critical reception of the films.

Creating Carmen Miranda Kathryn Bishop-Sanchez, 2021-04-30. Carmen Miranda got knocked down and kept going. Filming an appearance on The Jimmy Durante Show on August 4, 1955, the ambassadress of samba suddenly took a knee during a dance number, clearly in distress. Durante covered without missing a beat, and Miranda was back on her feet in a matter of moments to continue with what she did best: performing. By the next morning, she was dead from heart failure at age 46. This final performance, in many ways, exemplified the power of Carmen Miranda. The actress, singer, and dancer pursued a relentless mission to demonstrate the provocative theatrical force of her cultural roots in Brazil. Armed with bare midriff dresses, platform shoes, and her iconic fruit basket headdresses, Miranda stole the show in films like That Night in Rio and The Gang's All Here. For American film audiences, her life was an example of the exoticism of a mysterious, sensual South America. For Brazilian and Latin American audiences, she was an icon. For the gay community, she became a work of art personified and a symbol of courage and charisma. In Creating Carmen Miranda, Kathryn Bishop-Sanchez takes the reader through the myriad methods Miranda consciously used to shape her performance of race, gender, and camp culture, all to further her journey down the road to becoming a legend.

Collecting Prints, Posters, and Ephemera Ruth E. Iskin, Britany Salsbury, 2019-12-12. Why did collectors seek out posters and collect ephemera during the late nineteenth and the twentieth centuries? How have such materials been integrated into institutional collections today? What inspired collectors to build significant holdings of works from cultures other than their own? And what are the issues facing curators and collectors of digital ephemera today? These are among the questions tackled in this volume, the first to examine the practices of collecting prints, posters, and ephemera during the modern and contemporary periods. A wide range of case studies feature collections of printed materials from the United States, Latin America, France, Germany, Great Britain, China, Japan, Russia, Iran, and Cuba. Fourteen essays and one roundtable discussion all specially commissioned from art historians curators and collectors for this volume explore key issues such as the roles of class politics and gender and address historical contexts social roles value and national and transnational aspects of collecting practices The global scope highlights cross cultural connections and contributes to a new understanding of the place of prints posters and ephemera within an increasingly international art world
