The Kitchen Historic Communities:

Historic Homes of the American Presidents Irvin Haas, 1991-01-01 Describes and includes photographs of the exteriors and interiors of American presidential homes and notes the locations and visiting hours of those that are open to the public

Historic Homes of Waco, Texas Kenneth Hafertepe, 2019-02-14 Winner 2020 Ron Tyler Award for Best Illustrated Book on Texas History and Culture In this thoughtful tour of 120 historic homes in Waco Texas architectural historian Kenneth Hafertepe gives readers a glimpse of the surprising variety of styles and stories captured in the houses built by and for Wacoans Focusing on the period from the 1850s to about 1940 Hafertepe provides not only snapshots of the dwellings in which the people of Waco lived but also informed hints about how they lived everyone from the wealthiest merchants to the humblest day laborers Historic Homes of Waco Texas incorporates material gleaned from city directories fire insurance maps census and cemetery records and other archival and published sources to afford the most complete picture possible of how these homes came to be and what became of those who built and lived in them Over 120 color photographs also taken by the author round out the descriptions The popular enthusiasm for the television series featuring Waco area fixer uppers coupled with the burgeoning local industry generated by the show s two charismatic hosts has certainly boosted interest in historic homes and buildings in Waco Indeed Hafertepe has incorporated a handful of properties featured on the show among the houses profiled in this book But beyond any current entertainment craze Historic Homes of Waco Texas will stand the test of time as an authoritative and entertaining tribute to these important structures and the people who inhabited them

Historic Homes Mary H. Northend, 2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original Historic Homes by Mary H Northend

Historic Homes of New England Mary Harrod Northend, 1914 The Manors and Historic Homes of the Hudson Valley Harold Donaldson Eberlein, 1924 Florida's Historic African American Homes Jada Wright-Greene, 2021 The state of Florida has a rich history of African Americans who have contributed to the advancement and growth of today From slaves to millionaires African Americans from all walks of life resided in cabins homes and stately mansions The lives of millionaires educators businessmen community leaders and innovators in Florida s history are explored in each residence Mary McLeod Bethune A L Lewis and D A Dorsey are a few of the prominent African Americans who not only resided in the state of Florida but also created opportunities for other blacks to further their lives in education and ownership of property and to have a better quality of life One of the most humanistic traits found in history is the home of someone who has added something of value to society Today some of these residences serve as house museums community art galleries cultural institutions and monuments that interpret and share the legacy of their owners Nuns Across the Orange: A History of the Pioneering Anglican Community of St Michael and All Angels, Bloemfontein Michael Sparrow, 2021-04-21 When Sister Emma and the five women who accompanied her from England crossed the Orange River early in 1874 they exchanged the comfortable mainstream of Anglican Church life for the rigours of pioneering new works in an undeveloped country Living conditions were primitive travel was hard and money was always in short supply The newly formed Community of St Michael and All Angels opened the first girls schools north of the Orange and the first hospital in the Free State At Kimberley Sister Henrietta achieved a world first through her successful campaign for the State Registration of nurses Four Sisters were besieged in Kimberley during the Anglo Boer War and in Bloemfontein their Mother House became a military hospital By faith and determination the Community recovered St Michael s School was raised to new standards of excellence while the Sisters expanded their mission to include Lesotho and the eastern Free State Decades of work with Bloemfontein s sick and deprived led to Sister Enid becoming known as Ma Mohau Mother of Mercy and to national acclaim in the 1970s as South Africa s Mother Teresa This book studies the development of the Community s religious life and charts the progress of their work among all races from their foundation until the death of the last Sister in 2016 Across the Orange their relative isolation from the strong centres of Anglicanism eventually contributed to their demise but not before they had established an enduring legacy The work they began in Lesotho is continued by the Community of the Holy Name while St Michael s School in Bloemfontein is recognised as one of the finest girls schools in South Africa

Historic Homes of Minnesota Roger G. Kennedy, 2006 Great Houses of Minnesota is the engaging story of the evolution of architectural styles in Minnesota from 1830 to 1914 from the influence of the early French traders along the Mississippi and St Croix to the emergence of the school of Frank Lloyd Wright Through photographs and colorfully informative text internationally known historian Roger Kennedy helps readers understand the unique styles of Minnesota s first homes including the Mower House in Arcola the first large house on the St Croix Alexander Ramsey s Mansion House in St Paul influenced by Pennsylvania Dutch virtues the whimsical Charles C Clement house in Fergus Falls clearly Norse in spirit and the Purcell House in Minneapolis a fine example of the Prairie School design On a broad plane these architectural eras reflected social customs politics commerce religion and literature On a personal level they often revealed the national origin and character of the families that made the house a home In short this is in large measure a history of the people Kennedy has considered their heritage and traditions as carefully as he has examined the architecture they created and he offers a fresh wholistic approach to the study of our state s great houses

Archival Communities Derek Kane O'Leary, 2025-06-02 The story behind the creation of the first archives in the new United States Archives the foundational resource for historical research do not emerge from a vacuum The records documents and data that make up the historian s quarry are never neutral but are themselves the product of historical forces and individual choices What materials are included in the archive and why Whose voices are preserved for posterity and whose are silenced In recent years scholars have increasingly made archives themselves the subject of investigation With Archival Communities Derek Kane O'Leary takes up this crucial task for the era of the early United States arguing that key components of America s archives emerged from within an Atlantic world of circulating scholars evidence practices and ideas As he shows US archives and the historical narratives spawned by the documents preserved within them drew their initial materials and meaning from this international context And while demonstrating the disproportionate imprint of powerful men O Leary s Atlantic frame reveals a far broader community of people who engaged in early archival efforts on the national state and local levels including women who influenced the act of collection and public perceptions of the young nation s historical record Collection of Pamphlets and Articles on the History of the Jewish Community in America, Its Communal and Social Institutions, and Its Role in American Society, 1919 Teacher's Guide for World History Societies of the Past Linda McDowell, Marilyn MacKay, 2005 World History Teacher s Guide is a comprehensive resource filled with fun captivating and thought provoking hands on activities In each chapter you will find practical hands on activating and acquiring applying activities useful teacher reference notes and organizational techniques vocabulary building exercises assessment ideas and activities review activities fun puzzles engaging word games and easy to prepare games suggested resources for both teachers and students many useful blackline masters such as activities maps and graphic organizers Historic Towns of the Connecticut River Valley George Simon Roberts, 1906 Historic Towns of the Connecticut River Valley George G Roberts, 1906 Tourists in Historic Towns Aylin Orbasli, 2002-09-11 Tourists in Historic Towns examines the relationship of culture heritage conservation and tourism development in historic towns and urban centres debating the impacts of tourism on historic towns and the role tourism plays in conservation and urban continuity The main focus of the book is medium sized historic towns and historic quarters which are attractive to the tourist market but historic quarters in large cities and smaller rural settlements are not excluded Alongside over a hundred examples of historic towns five historic towns are discussed as case studies Granada Spain York England Mdina Malta Antalya Turkey and Quedlingburg Germany Historic Homes and Institutions and Genealogical and Family History of New York William Smith Pelletreau, 1907 Publications of the Virginia War History Commission: Virginia communities in war time Virginia War History Commission, 1927 Historic Homes in Washington Mary Smith Lockwood, 1889 Historic Homes and Places and Genealogical and Personal Memoirs Relating to the Families of Middlesex County, Massachusetts William Richard Cutter, 1908 Encyclopedia of Kitchen History Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2004-12-29 First published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Around the Kitchen Table Laura Forsythe, Jennifer Markides, 2024-04-07 Honouring the scholarship of M tis matriarchs While surveying the field of Indigenous studies Laura Forsythe and Jennifer Markides recognized a critical need for not only a M tis focused volume but one dedicated to the contributions of M tis women To address this need they brought together work by new and established scholars artists storytellers and community leaders that reflects the diversity of research created by M tis women as it is lived considered conceptualized and re imagined With writing by Emma LaRocque and other forerunners of M tis studies Around the Kitchen Table looks beyond the patriarchy to document and celebrate the scholarship of M tis women Focusing on experiences in post secondary environments this collection necessarily traverses a range of methodologies Spanning disciplines of social work education history health care urban studies sociology archaeology and governance contributors bring their own stories to explorations of spirituality material culture colonialism land based education sexuality language and representation The result is an expansive heartfelt and accessible community of M tis thought Reverent and revelatory this collection centres the strong aunties and grandmothers who have shaped M tis communities culture and identities with teachings shared in classrooms auditoriums and around the kitchen table
