The Korean Neoconfucianism Of Yi Yulgok:

The Korean Neo-Confucianism of Yi Yulgok Young-chan Ro, 1989-01-01 This book explores the philosophical and religious dimensions of Korean Neo Confucianism as expounded by one of the foremost Korean Neo Confucian thinkers Yi Yulgok 1536-1584. Yulgok's creative interpretations reformulate some fundamental issues of Confucian philosophy. This book explores the significance of the fundamental assumption which underlies the entire system of Yulgok's Confucian thought. That philosophical assumption is characterized by the author as non dualistic and anthropocosmic. It is a unique aspect of Korean Neo Confucianism which leads to a new way of understanding the Confucian world view and spirituality. This non dualistic vision sheds a new and critical light on the dialectical framework of thinking at work in Western formulations of understanding the ultimate reality, nature, the universe, and human being. The anthropocosmic vision in this respect will challenge fundamental assumptions of Western theological formulation and suggest a new understanding of human nature and the universe. A non dualistic and anthropocosmic interpretation of Yulgok's thought is a fruitful way of approaching the Korean way of thinking and of coming to grips with one Neo Confucian mode of attaining human self understanding. The

Korean Neo-Confucianism of Yi Toegye and Yi Yulgok Edward Y. J. Chung, 1995-01-01 This is a study of the most significant debate in Korean Neo Confucianism between the two most eminent Neo Confucian thinkers, summarizing their philosophies and providing refreshing insights into Confucian language and culture. Korean Confucianism Hyoungchan Kim, 2018-10-16 This book explores Neo Confucianism and its relationship to politics by examining the life and work of the two iconic figures of the Joseon dynasty: Yi Hwang (1501-1570) and Toegye (1501-1570) and Yi I (1536-1584) and Yulgok. Neo Confucianism became state orthodoxy in 1392 and remained in place for over five centuries until the end of the dynasty in 1910, thereby shaping the Korea of today. Toegye and Yulgok founded the two main schools of Joseon Neo Confucianism, which became the most dominant schools of thought in Korean history. In shedding new light on the important relationship between these two iconic figures, Hyoungchan Kim offers an important new examination of Korea today, which will be essential to those interested in the philosophy and history of Korea. Korean Confucianism Hyŏng-ch'an Kim, 2018 This book explores Neo Confucianism and its relationship to politics by examining the life and work of the two iconic figures of the Joseon dynasty: Yi Hwang (1501-1570) and Toegye (1501-1570) and Yi I (1536-1584) and Yulgok. Neo-Confucianism and Science in Korea Sang-ho Ro, 2021-02-15 Historians of late premodern Korea have tended to regard it as a hermit kingdom isolated from its neighbours and the wider world In fact as Ro argues in this book Korean intellectuals were heavily influenced by both Chinese Neo Confucianism and the European Enlightenment in the late 18th and 19th centuries In the late Choson period the regime felt threatened by the new more empirical approaches to knowledge emerging from both the East and the West For this reason many Korean intellectuals felt it necessary to work in the shadows and formed secret societies for the study of nature. Because of the secrecy of these societies much of their work has remained unknown even in Korea until recent years. Ho looks at the work of these intellectuals and analyses the impact their thinking and experimentation had on knowledge production in Korea. A fascinating insight into the largely overlooked story of how globalization affected intellectual life in Korea before the 20th century. This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of Korean history and of Asian intellectual history more broadly. Korea - A Religious History James H. Grayson, 2013-11-05. A Korean Theology of Human Nature Jung Sun Oh, 2005-01-31. This remarkable study articulates a Korean Confucian-Christian theory of human nature, theory of justification, sanctification and salvation by means of a reformed concept of filial piety. The book investigates in depth the theological anthropology of Robert C. Neville and the inclusive humanism of Tu Wei-ming. Neville and Tu represent contemporary Christian and Confucian approaches to religious anthropology. Furthermore, they have engaged in an extended and productive dialogical encounter on the themes of comparative thought and religious renewal in Asia and North America. This book argues that Neville's and Tu's insights into human nature have great relevance for a comparative contemporary Korean theology by focusing on the role of a reformed version of filial piety as a new component of Korean theology. The articulation of filial piety as a potential key of contemporary Korean theology is an example of creative appropriation of a Confucian theme of the Christian praxis of sanctification and ultimately the soteriology of divine grace and transformation. This study construes human nature to be such that any living theology will reflect the creative engagement of Christian theologians as public intellectuals in search of the articulation of the gospel.
