Beyond Labor's Veil Robert E. Weir, 2010-11-01 The Noble and Holy Order of the Knights of Labor was founded in 1869 as a secret fraternal order committed to the goal of uniting American labor. At its height in 1886 the Knights claimed the allegiance of perhaps a million workers. Despite a host of local studies by the new labor historians of the 1970s and 1980s

there has been no general study of the Knights since Norman Ware's 1929 book and no one has ever attempted a comprehensive study of the culture of the organization In Beyond Labor's Veil Robert E Weir presents a fascinating cultural portrait of the Knights across regions covering the years 1869 to 1893 From the start the Knights of Labor was an unusual organization equal parts fraternal order and labor union It was the only nineteenth century labor organization to organize African Americans women and unskilled workers on an equal basis with white craftsmen Weir goes beyond the rhetoric of public pronouncements and union politics to consider the real influence of the Knights in communities and homes as well as in the workplace Weir explores the many cultural expressions of the Knights ritual religion poetry music literature material objects graphics and leisure Although the Knights barely survived into the twentieth century Weir concludes that the creative cultural expressions of the Knights enabled it to do as well as it did in the face of powerful oppositional forces What emerges in Beyond Labor's Veil is a rich detailed description of the Knights as its members adapted to the confusion and contradiction of America's Gilded Age

Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers, 1903-1929

Jamie Barlowe, 2024-08-08

Silent Film Adaptations of Novels by British and American Women Writers 1903 1929 focuses on fifty three silent film adaptations of the novels of acclaimed authors George Eliot Charlotte Bront Emily Bront Mary Shelley Louisa May Alcott Harriet Beecher Stowe Willa Cather and Edith Wharton Many of the films are unknown or dismissed and most of them are degraded destroyed or lost burned in warehouse fires spontaneously combusted in storage cans or quietly turned to dust Their content and production and distribution details are reconstructed through archival resources as individual narratives that when considered collectively constitute a broader narrative of lost knowledge a fragmented and buried early twentieth century story now reclaimed and retold for the first time to a twenty first century audience This collective narrative also demonstrates the extent to which the adaptations are intertextually and ideologically entangled with concurrently released early woman s films to re promote and re instill the norm of idealized white married domesticated womanhood during a time of extraordinary cultural change for women Retelling this lost narrative also allows for a reassessment of the place and function of the adaptations in the development of the silent film industry and as cinematic precedent for the hundreds of sound adaptations of the literary texts of these eight women writers produced from 1931 to the 2020s
