The Lady With The Ship On Her Head Reading Rainbow:

Creating Reading Rainbow Barbara Irwin, Tony Buttino, Pam Johnson, 2024-06-18 Reading Rainbow is one of the most successful PBS children's series in television history earning numerous national and international awards including 26 Emmys and a Peabody Award But perhaps more important than anything else Reading Rainbow helped generations of children cultivate a love for books Reading Rainbow is very much a story of humble beginnings and enormous perseverance Over five summers Tony Buttino Sr and his colleagues at WNED TV the public television station in Buffalo New York worked in collaboration with educators and librarians to experiment with summer reading programs But after trialing these programs the WNED team realized there was a big need for a new children's literacy series and believed they could create a new show with local and national collaborators and friends After fits and starts and enough twists and turns to fill a children's book Reading Rainbow premiered in the summer of 1983 and captured the attention of 6.5 million young viewers Creating Reading Rainbow explores the many intriguing and homespun stories that when woven together reveal how this groundbreaking and iconic television series came to be What led to the series being called Reading Rainbow How did the road to Reading Rainbow wind its way through Mister Rogers Neighborhood How did a public television station in Buffalo spearhead a movement in education and spark the passion for reading in millions of children And what does lasagna have to do with it pragmatic advice for how to live a considered joyful existence in our era of screen living and hipster irony by a Gen X Princeton professor and contributor to The New York Times The essays in The Other Serious examine the signature phenomena of our moment the way our lives contradict themselves how exaggeration and excess seep into our collective subconscious why gender is becoming more rather than less complicated and how we interact with the material things that surround us It is a book about the delicacy and bluntness of American life about how pop culture sticks its finger deeply into the ethical dilemmas of our time and how to negotiate between the old and the new the high and the low the global and the local the sacred and the profane At the heart of these reflections lies a central question What should you do when you don't know what to do Taken together these essays comprise a guide for the overhaul of the administrativersity of contemporary American life a bureaucratic prison where the brain needn't work anymore These pieces investigate the writer's own way of thinking putting forth new ideas questioning them and urging the reader to adopt the same spirit of critical reexamination
