present and invites us to imagine and participate Like an enthused hummingbird too eager to land Bob Henderson leads a wide ranging tour of the vast garden of Canadian history and landscape Once entrusted with the scent of intrigue we are invited to follow these stories and trails deeper make them speak and inform our own travels and impressions Here are stepping stones and touchstones paths toward richer engagements via a storied and fabulous past Alexandra a log cabin set back in the woods had caught my eye Though very old it was in good shape there was no lock on the door A framed note beside it read Leave as you found it The interior was neat and tidy a complete set of blackened pots hung on the walls a small stack of kindling by the open door of a Findlay stove A perfect place I thought to myself As I turned to take in the rest of the cabin I saw before me Canada Yukon rivers Labrador fiords Prairie medicine wheels Superior s north shore portage and trail it was all there before me across space and time As I stood there ghosts emerged from the walls trappers cowboys ill fated explorers lucky canoeists all in the same room all eager to tell their stories Such is the nature of Bob Henderson s wonderful book Ian Tamblyn songwriter Watch for More Trails More Tales coming November 2014     History in the Making Donald H. Holly Jr.,2013-10-18 The Eastern Subarctic has long been portrayed as a place without history Challenging this perspective History in the Making The Archaeology of the Eastern Subarctic charts the complex and dynamic history of this little known archaeological region of North America Along the way the book explores the social processes through which native peoples made history in the past and archaeologists and anthropologists later wrote about it As such the book offers both a critical history and historiography of the Eastern Subarctic     Illustrated Canadian Forest and Outdoors ,1922     The Hammond Innes Collection Volume One Hammond Innes,2018-06-26 A trio of compelling classics of adventure and suspense featuring The Wreck of the Mary Deare from Great Britain s leading adventure novelist Financial Times British novelist Hammond Innes was perhaps best known for his nautical mystery The Wreck of the Mary Deare which was made into a film starring Gary Cooper and Charlton Heston But the prolific writer World War II veteran and dedicated yachtsman wrote over thirty novels of adventure and suspense over his long career The two additional novels collected here tell the tales of a World War II plot and a rescue on the frozen Labrador Peninsula As always the art of writing thoroughly well documented and ably written thrillers is perfectly understood by Innes whose work stands in a class by itself V S Pritchett The Wreck of the Mary Deare Capt John Sands has only moments to steer his sailboat clear of a freighter coming out of nowhere on a foggy night He catches a glimpse of the ship as it passes by Her name is Mary Deare and her crew is nowhere to be seen A salvage expert Sands boards the drifting hulk and finds only one man aboard the first officer Gideon Patch half mad from trying to sail the freighter on his own Getting the ship safely to port and unraveling the mystery of why it was abandoned will reveal an incredible story of greed and betrayal on the high seas Original in its plot and extraordinarily clever in its constant succession of mysterious twists and surprising revelations it is an utterly engrossing tale The New York Times Wreckers Must Breathe This prescient World War II adventure written early on in the war in 1940 concerns a German U boat hiding off the coast of Cornwall Journalist Walter Craig is on a seaside vacation as reports come in of German mobilization and England finds herself on the brink of war Cruising in a small fishing vessel Craig and charter boat captain Big Logan nearly collide with a shadowy black shape Along this rocky stretch of the English Channel these two men just found themselves on the front lines An uncommonly good story capitably written London Evening Standard The Land God Gave to Cain In this literate and exciting adventure story a young man risks his life to respond to a distress call on Canada's Labrador Peninsula Kirkus Reviews After Ian Ferguson's father was wounded in World War II his ham radio was all he had left to communicate with When Ian finds his father's last transmission a call for help from a survivor of a lost expedition he journeys across a frozen landscape to save the man's life and honor his father Innes makes one shiver with cold Original plot plenty of action spectacular scenery The New York Times Julian Comstock Robert Charles Wilson, 2009-06-23 From the Hugo winning author of Spin comes an exuberant adventure in a post climate change America The Booklist, 1958 The Rough Guide to Canada Phil Lee, Tim Jepson, Christian Williams, Tania Smith, 2007-07-26 From lush wilderness to urban adventure The Rough Guide to Canada is your definitive guide to this diverse country The section introduces the best Canada has to offer from cosmopolitan Toronto to the thundering Niagara and the country's spectacular natural wonders This revised 6th edition contains insider tips and colour sections on national parks art and architecture The guide includes plenty of practical information on Canada's amazing array of outdoor pursuits including sailing and fishing in the Maritime Provinces and snowboarding and skiing in Banff There are comprehensive reviews of the best places to eat drink and stay to suit all tastes and budgets This guide also takes a detailed look at Canada's extraordinary history wildlife and aboriginal peoples and comes complete with new maps and plans for every area The Rough Guide to Canada is like having a local friend plan your trip We Keep the Dead Close Becky Cooper, 2020-11-10 FINALIST FOR THE J ANTHONY LUKAS BOOK PRIZE NATIONAL BESTSELLER Named One of The Best Books of 2020 by NPR's Fresh Air Publishers Weekly Marie Claire Redbook Vogue Kirkus Reviews Book Riot Bustle A Recommended Book by The New York Times The Washington Post Publisher's Weekly Kirkus Reviews Booklist The Boston Globe Goodreads Buzzfeed Town the winter that Harvard University would begin the tumultuous process of merging with Radcliffe its all female sister school and the year that Jane Britton an ambitious twenty three year old graduate student in Harvard's Anthropology Department and daughter of Radcliffe Vice President J Boyd Britton would be found bludgeoned to death in her Cambridge Massachusetts apartment Forty years later Becky Cooper a curious undergrad will hear the first whispers of the story In the first telling the body was nameless The story was this a Harvard student had had an affair with her professor and the professor had murdered her in the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology because she'd threatened to talk about the affair Though the rumor proves false the story that unfolds one that Cooper will follow for ten years is even more complex a tale of gender inequality in academia a cowboy culture among empowered male elites the silencing effect of institutions and our compulsion to rewrite the stories of female victims We Keep the Dead Close is a memoir of mirrors misogyny and murder It is at once a rumination on the violence and oppression that rules our revered institutions a ghost story reflecting one young woman's past onto another's present and a love story for a girl who was lost to history
