Ancient Egypt explains how archaeologists have pieced together their discoveries to slowly reveal the history of Egypt's people, its pharaohs and its golden days. The Landing of the Pilgrims James Daugherty, 2011-02-02 Learn how and why the Pilgrims left England to come to America. In England in the early 1600s everyone was forced to join the Church of England. Young William Bradford and his friends believed they had every right to belong to whichever church they wanted. In the name of religious freedom they fled to Holland then sailed to America to start a new life. But the winter was harsh and before a year passed half the settlers had died. Yet through hard work and strong faith a tough group of Pilgrims did survive. Their belief in freedom of religion became an American ideal that still lives on today. James Daugherty draws on the Pilgrims' own journals to give a fresh and moving account of their life and traditions, their quest for religious freedom and the founding of one of our nation's most beloved holidays, Thanksgiving. Abe Lincoln Sterling North, 2012-03-28 Abraham Lincoln was born to a poor family on the American frontier. He was a hard worker but he wanted more than a farmer's life. As he learned about the issues of his day, Abe longed to be a lawmaker himself so he ran for the state legislature. Soon the farm boy would become the brilliant orator and admired president who finally proclaimed freedom for all Americans. Focusing on Lincoln's childhood and early manhood, this book explores the people and events that shaped one of America's greatest presidents. Ancient Landmark of Plymouth William T. Legislature, 1922 Legislative Document New York (State). Legislature, 1922 Archaeologies of Placemaking Patricia E. Rubertone, 2016-07-01 This collection of original essays explores the tensions between prevailing regional and national versions of Indigenous pasts created, reified and disseminated through monuments and Indigenous peoples' memories and experiences of place. The contributors ask critical questions about historic preservation and commemoration methods used by modern societies and their impact on the perception and identity of the people they supposedly remember, who are generally not consulted in the commemoration process. They discuss dichotomies of history and memory, place and displacement, public spectacle and private engagement and reconciliation and re-appropriation of the heritage of indigenous people shown in these monuments. While the case studies deal with North American indigenous experience from California to Virginia and from the Southwest to New England and the Canadian Maritime, they have implications for dealings between indigenous peoples and nation states worldwide.
