The Landscape We See:

The Landscape We See Garrett Eckbo, 1969      The Nature of Landscape Han Lörzing, 2001      The International Yearbook of Environmental and Resource Economics 2000/2001 Tom Tietenberg, Henk Folmer, 2000-05-25 There has been an explosion in the literature and research on environmental and resource economics in recent years This major annual publication provides a cutting edge survey of current research by the leading experts in the field      Assessing the Social Impact of Immigration in Europe Jussi P. Laine, Daniel Rauhut, Marika Gruber, 2023-06-01 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 License It is free to read download and share on Elgaronline.com Focusing on the social impact of migration this book explores migration as an inevitable part of rural development and transition in light of the sharp political divides in European and national political arenas on the topic It provides an innovative immigration impact assessment based on recently conducted empirical work to enhance local development in European rural and remote regions looking to promote change in the perception of migration and related policies and practices

Discovering Landscape in England & Wales A.S. Goudie, R. Gardner, 2013-12-14 Here is a guide to the most beautiful and important sites of geological interest in England and Wales Grouped by region with clear topographical and geological maps it may be used as a field guide by students of geology and geography as well as by interested walkers and ramblers      Villa Landscapes in the Roman North Ton Derks, Nico Roymans, 2025-10-01 This edited volume presents a synthesis of recent research on villas and villa landscapes in the northern provinces of the Roman world It offers an original multi dimensional perspective on the social economic and cultural functioning of villas within the context of the Roman empire Themes discussed include the economic basis of villa dominated landscapes rural slavery town country dynamics the role of monumental burials in villa landscapes and self representation and lifestyle of villa owners This study offers a major contribution to the comparative research of villa landscapes and the phenomenon of regionality in Roman rural landscapes Amsterdam Archaeological Studies is a series devoted to the study of past human societies from the prehistory up into modern times primarily based on the study of archaeological remains The series will include excavation reports of modern fieldwork studies of categories of material culture and synthesising studies with broader images of past societies thereby contributing to the theoretical and methodological debates in archaeology      The View from Vermont Blake A. Harrison, 2006 With its small native population proximity to major metropolitan areas and bucolic rural beauty Vermont was fated to be a tourist mecca forever associated in the popular imagination with maple syrup fall colors and ski bunnies Tourism for good and ill has always been the decisive factor in the conception of rural Vermont What is surprising however is the degree to which we have accepted this notion of rural Vermont as a somehow timeless entity Blake Harrison's rich and rewarding study instead presents the construction of Vermont's landscape as a complex and ever changing dynamic informed by progressive modernist and reformist thought competing views of economic expansion rural and urban prejudice and social exclusion and more recently by land use planning and environmentalism This broad based study includes the early history of Vermont tourism the concomitant abandonment of farms with the rise of the summer home the creation of an unspoiled Vermont from billboards at least the impact of Vermont's ski industry on tradition bound tourism and later efforts to legislate growth and protect an increasingly static ideal of a rural Vermont While grounded within a specific Vermont view Harrison has much to contribute to broader studies of rural places tourism and landscapes in American culture His analysis of how physical landscapes affect and are affected by our imagined landscape and the insight afforded by his juxtaposition of leisure and labor will deeply inform our understanding of rural tourist landscapes for years to come This is a truly interdisciplinary work that will satisfy and challenge historians and geographers alike Continuous Productive Urban Landscapes Andre Viljoen, Joe Howe, 2012-05-04 This book on urban design extends and develops the widely accepted compact city solution It provides a design proposal for a new kind of sustainable urban landscape Urban Agriculture By growing food within an urban rather than exclusively rural environment urban agriculture would reduce the need for industrialized production packaging and transportation of foodstuffs to the city dwelling consumers The revolutionary and innovative concepts put forth in this book have potential to shape the future of our cities quality of life within them Urban design is shown in practice through international case studies and the arguments presented are supported by quantified economic environmental and social justifications Field Theoretic Method in Phase Transformations Alexander Umantsev, 2012-04-23 The main subject of the book is the continuum field theoretic method of study of phase transformations in material systems The method also known as phase field allows one to analyze different stages of transformations on the unified platform It has received significant attention in the materials science community recently due to many successes in solving or illuminating important problems The book will address fundamentals of the method starting from the classical theories of phase transitions the most important theoretical and computational results and some of the most advanced recent applications Ethnic Landscapes of America John A. Cross, 2017-06-19 This volume provides a comprehensive catalog of how various ethnic groups in the United States of America have differently shaped their cultural landscape Author John Cross links an overview of the spatial distributions of many of the ethnic populations of the United States with highly detailed discussions of specific local cultural landscapes associated with various ethnic groups This book provides coverage of several ethnic groups that were omitted from previous literature including Italian Americans Chinese Americans Japanese Americans and Arab Americans plus several smaller European ethnic populations The book is organized to provide an overview of each of the substantive ethnic landscapes in the United States Between its introduction and conclusion which looks towards the future the chapters on the various ethnic landscapes are arranged roughly in chronological order such that the timing of the earliest significant surviving landscape contribution determines the order the groups will be viewed Within each chapter the contemporary and historical spatial distribution of the ethnic groups are described the historical geography of the group's settlement is reviewed and the salient aspects of material culture that characterize or distinguish the group's ethnic landscape are discussed. Ethnic Landscapes of America is designed for use in the classroom as a textbook or as a reader in a North American regional course or a cultural geography course. This volume also can function as a detailed summary reference that should be of interest to geographers, historians, ethnic scholars, other social scientists, and the educated public who wish to understand the visible elements of material culture that various ethnic populations have created on the landscape.

Perception and Agency in Shared Spaces of Contemporary Art Cristina Albu, Dawna Schuld, 2017-12-15 This book examines the interconnections between art phenomenology and cognitive studies. Contributors question the binary oppositions generally drawn between visuality and agency, sensing and thinking, phenomenal art and politics, phenomenology and structuralism, and subjective involvement and social belonging. Instead, they foreground the many ways that artists ask us to consider how we sense, think, and act in relation to a work of art.

Physical Delineation: Exploring Earth's Enigmatic Landscapes Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-22 Welcome to the captivating world of physical geography where Earth's landscapes unfold as a mesmerizing tapestry of dynamic forces and interconnected elements. Embark on a journey of discovery as this book takes you on an exhilarating odyssey through the realms of mountains, oceans, landforms, weather, and climate. Within these pages, you will delve into the intricacies of plate tectonics, witnessing the colossal forces that shape our planet's surface. You will navigate the vast oceans, exploring the depths of marine ecosystems and unraveling the mysteries of ocean currents. From towering mountains to verdant valleys, from windswept deserts to icy tundras, you will encounter a kaleidoscope of landforms, each sculpted by unique geological processes. Unravel the secrets of Earth's materials, deciphering the stories locked within rocks and minerals. Discover the intricate workings of weather and climate patterns, unraveling the dance of seasons and the patterns of precipitation. Explore the delicate balance of Earth's energy budget, examining the role of solar radiation, the greenhouse effect, and feedback mechanisms in maintaining our planet's delicate equilibrium. As your journey through the realm of physical geography unfolds, you will witness the profound impact of human activities on Earth's landscapes. Confront the challenges and opportunities presented by these changes and explore paths towards sustainable coexistence with our planet. Discover the intricate beauty and awe-inspiring grandeur of Earth's physical features, fostering a sense of stewardship and responsibility towards our home. This book is an invitation to embrace the wonder of our surroundings, to unlock the secrets of Earth's history, and to chart a course towards a harmonious future. With captivating narratives and stunning visuals, it offers a comprehensive exploration of the Earth's diverse landscapes and the forces that shape them. Whether you are a student seeking knowledge, an armchair traveler seeking adventure, or simply someone with a passion for our planet, this book will ignite your curiosity and deepen your appreciation for the natural world. Reflections from the Inner Light James R. Newby, 2019-07-30 In this important book of Quaker spirituality, Jim Newby writes about his spiritual journey and the ways he has sought to navigate an increasingly complex world and understand his purpose in it A lifelong Quaker Newby seeks to discern the primary ways in which he has grown spiritually which are divided into the following parts turning inward community and relationship pain and growth path of a seeker and affirmations Each chapter within these parts concludes with queries to encourage readers to reflect upon their own spiritual journeys Readers may find what Newby writes humorous or his writing may provoke tears questions and challenges to one's beliefs Humor and tears questions and spiritual challenges are all of God for to grow in Spirit encompasses all the feelings and emotions through which we pass in this life In the words of Newby's late friend and author Malcolm Muggeridge Every happening great and small is a parable whereby God speaks to us and the art of life is to get the message These reflections are Newby's attempt to get the message      Toward a Process Approach in Psychology Paul van Geert, Naomi de Ruiter, 2022-07-28 Psychological science constructs much of the knowledge that we consume in our everyday lives This book is a systematic analysis of this process and of the nature of the knowledge it produces The authors show how mainstream scientific activity treats psychological properties as being fundamentally stable universal and isolable They then challenge this status quo by inviting readers to recognize that dynamics context specificity interconnectedness and uncertainty are a natural and exciting part of human psychology these are not things to be avoided and feared but instead embraced This requires a shift toward a process based approach that recognizes the situated time dependent and fundamentally processual nature of psychological phenomena With complex dynamic systems as a framework this book sketches out how we might move toward a process based praxis that is more suitable and effective for understanding human functioning      Landscape and the Ideology of Nature in Exurbia K. Valentine Cadieux, Laura Taylor, 2013-05-07 This book explores the role of the ideology of nature in producing urban and exurban sprawl It examines the ironies of residential development on the metropolitan fringe where the search for nature brings residents deeper into the world from which they are imagining their escape of Federal Express technologically mediated communications global supply chains and the anonymity of the global marketplace and where many of the central features of exurbia very low density residential land use monster homes and conversion of forested or rural land for housing contribute to the very problems that the social and environmental aesthetic of exurbia attempts to avoid The volume shows how this contradiction to live in the green landscape and to protect the green landscape from urbanization gets caught up and represented in the ideology of nature and how this ideology in turn constitutes and is constituted by the landscapes being urbanized      Driving Spaces Peter Merriman, 2011-07-22 Peter Merriman traces the social and cultural histories and geographies of driving spaces through an examination of the design construction and use of England's M1 motorway in the 1950s and 1960s A first of its kind academic study examining the production and consumption of the landscapes and spaces of a British motorway An interdisciplinary approach engaging with theoretical and empirical work from sociology history cultural studies anthropology and geography Contains 38 high quality illustrations Based on extensive original archive work      James Vs Darwin

Frederick Bauer, 2009-08-26 James yearned to weave science and religion into a popular philosophy useful for the everyday life of everyday people of faith. He saw that many of them were defenseless in an increasingly agnostic even atheistic culture. Thousands of innocent magazine readers lie paralyzed and terrified in the network of shallow negations which the leaders of opinion have thrown over their souls. He wrote in 1882: To which he added: If I like the mouse in the fable have gnawed a few of the strings of the sophisticated net that has been binding down the human heart's lion strength I shall be more than rewarded for my pains. Were he to return he would surely be even more unhappy with the leaders of opinion but also with the responses of people of faith who either seek refuge in untenable fundamentalist reliance on religious scriptures or else view science and religion as two wholly separate independent spheres of knowledge. Building on three previous books about James's philosophy as well as on three books about related topics the present text will explain why no one professing to do science in this third millennium can ignore the psychology behind all discoveries.

Landscape in History Archibald Geikie, 1905

In Land Ben Tufnell, 2019-11-29 An attempt to melt an iceberg with a blowtorch an indoor lake of tequila an ascent of Mt Everest driftwood burnt with sunlight focused through a magnifying glass and a doorbell that emits the sound of a dying star these are some of the extraordinary artistic strategies covered in this collection. Gathering together texts published since 2002 as well as specially written new essays In Land traces recent engagements with landscape nature environment and the cosmos.

Placing Nature Joan Nassauer, 2013-02-22 Landscape ecology is a widely influential approach to looking at ecological function at the scale of landscapes and accepting that human beings powerfully affect landscape pattern and function. It goes beyond investigation of pristine environments to consider ecological questions that are raised by patterns of farming forestry towns and cities. Placing Nature is a groundbreaking volume in the field of landscape ecology the result of collaborative work among experts in ecology philosophy art literature geography landscape architecture and history. Contributors asked each other: What is our appropriate role in nature? How are assumptions of Western culture and ingrained traditions placed in a new context of ecological knowledge? In this book they consider the goals and strategies needed to bring human dominated landscapes into intentional relationships with nature articulating widely varied approaches to the task. In the essays novelist Jane Smiley ecologist Eville Gorham and historian Curt Meine each examine the urgent realities of fitting together ecological function and culture philosopher Marcia Eaton and landscape architect Joan Nassauer each suggest ways to use the culture of nature to bring ecological health into settled landscapes urban geographer Judith Martin and urban historian Sam Bass Warner geographer and landscape architect Deborah Karasov and ecologist William Romme each explore the dynamics of land development decisions for their landscape ecological effects artist Chris Faust's photographs juxtapose the crass and mundane details of land use with the poetic power of ecological pattern. Every possible future landscape is the embodiment of some human choice. Placing Nature provides important insight for those who make such choices ecologists ecosystem managers watershed managers conservation biologists land developers designers planners and for all who wish to promote the ecological health of their communities
