The Language Of Stained Glass:

Through the Language Glass Guy Deutscher, 2010-08-31 A masterpiece of linguistics scholarship at once erudite and entertaining confronts the thorny question of how and whether culture shapes language and language culture Linguistics has long shied away from claiming any link between a language and the culture of its speakers too much simplistic even bigoted chatter about the romance of Italian and the goose stepping orderliness of German has made serious thinkers wary of the entire subject But now acclaimed linguist Guy Deutscher has dared to reopen the issue Can culture influence language and vice versa Can different languages lead their speakers to different thoughts Could our experience of the world depend on whether our language has a word for blue Challenging the consensus that the fundamentals of language are hard wired in our genes and thus universal Deutscher argues that the answer to all these questions is yes In thrilling fashion he takes us from Homer to Darwin from Yale to the Amazon from how to name the rainbow to why Russian water a she becomes a he once you dip a tea bag into her demonstrating that language does in fact reflect culture in ways that are anything but trivial Audacious delightful and field changing Through the Language Glass is a classic of intellectual discovery

The Language of Disenchantment Robert A. Yelle, 2013 The Language of Disenchantment explores how Protestant ideas about language inspired British colonial critiques of Hindu mythological ritual linguistic and legal traditions

The Dave Test Frederick W. Schmidt, 2013-10-15 What is the Dave Test Basic important raw questions you can ask yourself when someone you love is suffering in crisis unhinged maybe dying Before you even think about opening your mouth and blowing chunks of platitudes or running or minimizing the painful do the real work of living of being a friend take the Dave Test Roughly speaking the modern American mindset revolves around this life philosophy Minimize the painful or unwelcome Maximize the pleasant and satisfying If and when the painful or the unwelcome happens run Dispense with it as quickly as possible and get back to feeling good But what if we learn to move past our comfort zones transcend our own lives and connect with those who suffer When we truly connect with others it is all but impossible to insulate ourselves from life's harsher realities This book is about the dangerous business of exposing our own fragile lives to the mortality of ourselves and others The Dave Test takes the demand for honesty plain talk and faith seriously

The Language of Images Maria Giulia Dondero, 2020-08-18 This book deals with two fundamental issues in the semiotics of the image The first is the relationship between image and observer how does one look at an image To answer this question this book sets out to transpose the theory of enunciation formulated in linguistics over to the visual field It also aims to clarify the gains made in contemporary visual semiotics relative to the semiology of Roland Barthes and Emile Benveniste The second issue addressed is the relation between the forces forms and materiality of the images How do different physical mediums pictorial photographic and digital influence visual forms How does materiality affect the generativity of forms On the forces within the images the book addresses the philosophical thought of Gilles Deleuze and Ren Thom as well as the experiment of Aby Warburg's Atlas Mnemosyne The theories discussed in the book are tested on a variety of corpora for analysis including both paintings and photographs taken from traditional as well as contemporary sources in a variety of social sectors arts and sciences Finally semiotic methodology is contrasted with the computational analysis of large collections of images Big Data such as the Media Visualization analyses proposed by Lev Manovich and Cultural Analytics in the field of Computer Science to evaluate the impact of automatic analysis of visual forms on Digital Art History and more generally on the image sciences

Songs of Degrees brings together 19 related essays on contemporary American poetry and poetics published as journal articles between 1975 and 1989 by poet and theorist John Taggart Over the past two decades Taggart has been a significant intellectual and artistic force for a number of major American poets By focusing on the work of several major and less well known American experimental poets from the 1930s to the present Taggart not only traces the origins and evolution of this experimental tendency in recent poetry but also develops new theoretical tools for reading and appreciating these innovative and complex works The essays are written from the engaged perspective of an active poet for other poets as well as for those who would like to read and think about poetry in a participatory fashion The essays thus present inside narratives of some of the most challenging contemporary American poetry The range of Songs of Degrees extends from the Black Mountain poets Charles Olson and Robert Duncan to such language poets as Bruce Andrews and Susan Howe Taggart closely examines the work of the objectivist poets George Oppen and Louis Zukofsky Three essays are devoted to each of these poets providing detailed readings of individual poems and considerations of each poet's overall achievement Taggart also concentrates on poets whose work has not been widely recognized or is only now beginning to be recognized These include Theodore Enslin Frank Samperi and William Bronk Taggart's essay Reading William Bronk is the first extensive reading of this relatively unknown but truly outstanding poet Taggart's essays also focus on his own poetry He describes the composition process and the thinking behind it as well as the poet's own evolving sense of what the poem can and ought to be These very personal reflections are unique in their attention to current questions concerning form and the issue of spiritual vision Avoiding political and cultural reductionism Taggart throughout keeps his eye and heart on the poetic singing his own Songs of Degrees even as he discovers notes of the same music in the works of other     Tariff Information Surveys on the Articles in Paragraph 1- of the Tariff Act of 1913 and Related Articles in Other Paragraphs United States Tariff Commission,1921     Arnheim, Gestalt and Media Ian Verstegen,2019-01-09 This monograph presents a synthesis and reconstruction of Rudolf Arnheim's theory of media Combining both Arnheim's well known writings on film and radio with his later work on the psychology of art the author presents a coherent approach to the problem of the nature of a medium space and time and the differentia between different media The latent ontological commitments of Arnheim's theories is drawn out by affirming Arnheim's membership in the Brentano school of Austrian philosophy which allows his theories to be clarified and strengthened particularly with the metaphysical writings of Roman Ingarden The resulting theory is relational portraying essential medial differences with neutral criteria and allowing for a rigorous definition of a medium The way in which a medium is based on the inherent dispositions of medial materials creates a highly appealing theory that is determinate without being deterministic The theory is thus highly timely as people in media studies seek to address the determinate nature of media after the post medium condition The book will appeal to researchers and graduate students in cultural and media studies as well as architecture and design An American Dictionary of the English Language Noah Webster, 1849
