Nobel Prize in Literature: a case for India Professor AK Ghosh,2024-09-05 Indian sub continental writers of English fiction have always been confronted with onerous choices Inheritors of literary tradition riddled with regional and linguistic finitude the mere choice of a proper name hopelessly parochialize their stories Many critics wonder why such writers did not write in their regional languages the answer to which is that that would invite self exile from the common market of world literature Translations even the best of them remain surrogate It is therefore all the more satisfying that during the recent decades writers born on the subcontinent like Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Vikram Seth Amitav Ghosh and others have leaped into mainstream English fiction and elicited critical acclaim Indian writers in English despite being largely confined to a small typical Indian backwater perhaps because of it have attracted a good deal of attention here and abroad They have brought to Indian literature a style and feel a conviction and maturity all its own We have started feeling like heading for a modern reconstituted Indian sensibility But after a long gap of Rabindranath Tagore s success we may ask ourselves as to why Indians cannot write great literature Perhaps Matthew Arnold s phrase lack of epochal significance applies to the literary works emerging from our soil Can we claim honestly that we have produced a single author who could match the great masters of Western literature A Flaubert A Faulkner Joyce A Tolstoy

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives

Magical Realism in Twenty-First-Century Transnational Fiction D. Chichester, 2025-09-25

Magical Realism in Twenty First Century Transnational Fiction The Global Supernatural offers a much needed re evaluation of magical realism moving beyond traditional postcolonial frameworks to explore its vibrant evolution in the 21st century Analysing the works of contemporary authors like Helen Oyeyemi Mohsin Hamid Preeta Samarasan and Junot Diaz this book explores how magical realism has been adapted to depict the complex fluid identities and experiences of migrants and their children in a globalised world By employing the psychoanalytic concept of relationality it examines the intricate interplay between cultures beliefs and personal narratives Challenging outdated notions of magic versus realism this study reveals how the supernatural is used to express the disorientation paradox and trauma of transnational lives This book is essential for anyone seeking to understand the enduring creative power of magical realism
