The Heavenly Tree Grows Downward Gerrit Lansing, 1966      Heavenly Tree, Northern Earth Gerrit

Lansing, 2009-07-28 This is the inaugural volume of a new series of literary hardcovers from North Atlantic Books This series will collect the important work of writers who have served as major influences upon and contributors to the cultural and psychic milieu from which North Atlantic evolved A distinguished figure of American letters whose work and spirit have bridged five decades of creativity Gerrit Lansing provides a perfect launch for the series with this collected edition of his poetry which astonishes by the variety of its poetic forms and concerns lyrical and cosmological It cannot easily be fitted into niches currently fashionable Like a seed growing secretly to quote a favorite poet of his Henry Vaughan it has influenced the American cultural underground since the late 1950s Lansing was a friend and associate of generations of creative minds as diverse as the poet Charles Olson and the legendary filmmaker Harry Smith Poet Robert Kelly notes that he is the most learned among us and the most fun Lansing has patiently fashioned a body of work that ranges from short poems such as The Heavenly Tree Grows Downward and In Northern Earth from which this collection takes its title to longer cycles like the alchemical serial poem The Soluble Forest With themes at once personal and social erotic and esoteric Heavenly Tree

Northern Earth manifests the creative spirit of one of the important unheralded masters of modern poetry      Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States      Charles Olson's Reading Ralph Maud, 1996 Maud English Simon Fraser U offers a narrative account of the life and work of poet Charles Olson focusing on the poet's lifelong reading material as a basis for understanding his work Drawing on an annotated listing of his library as well as his childhood books and poetry by his contemporaries he links the books to the poet's intellectual and poetic development at each stage of his career Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      Contextual Practice Stephen Fredman, 2010 Fredman makes the original argument that some of the most innovative works of poetry and art in the postwar period 1945-1970 engaged in a contextual practice a term that refers both to a way of making art characterized by assemblage and to a new relationship between art and life an erotic poetics      This Compost Jed Rasula, 2012-09-01 Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves In This Compost Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Robert Duncan and their successors But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers Ezra Pound Louis Zukofsky Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser as well as Clayton Eshleman Gary Snyder Michael McClure and other contemporary poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry This Compost restores the dialogue between poetic language and the geophysical biological realm of nature that so much postmodern discourse has sought to silence It is a fully developed carefully argued book that deals with an underrepresented element in modern American culture where the natural world and those who write about it have been greatly neglected in contemporary literary history and theory

Never by Itself Alone David Grundy, 2024 Through its comprehensive history of post war queer writing in Boston and San Francisco from the 1940s through the 21st century Never By Itself Alone provides a new view of queer history Grundy intertwines analysis of lesbian gay and queer literature of the time centering voices which have not yet before been explored in existing criticism The book elevates the underrepresented work of writers of color and those with gender nonconforming identities underscores the link between activism and literature and insists upon the vital importance of radical accounts of race class and gender in any queer studies worthy of the name
