become family from the author of The Hidden Life of Dogs In the sequel to her New York Times bestseller The Hidden Lives of Dogs anthropologist Elizabeth Marshall Thomas profiles the assortment of canines in her own household to examine how dogs have comfortably adapted to life with their human owners and with each other Thomas answers questions we all have about our dogs behavior Do different barks mean different things What makes a dog difficult to house train Why do certain dogs and cats get along so well How does one of her dogs recognize people he sees only once a year while another barks at strangers she sees every day What leads to the formation of packs or groups As Publishers Weekly raves no one writes with greater emotional intelligence about man s and woman s best friend than Thomas      Hidden Life of Dogs Elizabeth

Thomas, 1999-07-01      The Hidden Life of Wolves Jim Dutcher, Jamie Dutcher, James Manfull, 2013 A photographic tribute to the authors work as wolf caregivers and advocates documents their efforts with the Sawtooth Pack in Idaho and features a passionate argument for reintroducing and protecting wild wolves      The Hidden Life of Deer Elizabeth Marshall

Thomas, 2024-01-17 The animal kingdom operates by ancient rules and the deer in our woods and backyards can teach us many of them but only if we take the time to notice In the fall of 2007 in southern New Hampshire the acorn crop failed and the animals who depended on it faced starvation Elizabeth Marshall Thomas began leaving food in small piles around her farmhouse Soon she had over thirty deer coming to her fields and her naturalist s eye was riveted How did they know when to come all together and why did they sometimes cooperate sometimes compete Throughout the next twelve months she observed the local deer families as they fought through a rough winter bred fawns in the spring fended off coyotes a bobcat a bear and plenty of hunters and made it to the next fall when the acorn crop was back to normal As she hiked through her woods spotting tree rubbings deer beds and deer yards she discovered a vast hidden world Deer families are run by their mothers Local families arrange into a hierarchy They adopt orphans they occasionally reject a child they use complex warnings to signal danger they mark their territories they master local microclimates to choose their beds they send countless coded messages that we can read if only we know what to look for Just as she did in her beloved books The Hidden Life of Dogs and Tribe of Tiger Thomas describes a network of rules that have allowed earth s species to coexist for millions of years Most of us have lost touch with these rules yet they are a deep part of us from our ancient evolutionary past The Hidden Life of Deer is a narrative masterpiece and a naturalist s delight      The Hidden Life of the Sixth Dalai Lama

Dar-rgyas No-mon-han Lhun-grub-dar-rgyas, 2011-01-01 This is the first English translation of a Dalai Lama s biography and is highly significant for the historical study of the Gaden Phodrang period around the turn of the seventeenth century. It is not only a biography but a historical narrative of a legendary character and illustrates the nature and understanding of Tibetan hagiographical and mystical literature within a sociopolitical context. The Social Lives of Dogs Elizabeth Marshall Thomas, 2001-06. The bestselling sequel to The Hidden Life of Dogs proves once and for all that no dog is an island. Thomas makes illuminating comparisons between the behavior of feral dogs in East African villages and her own dogs and shows how they form alliances within their social groups. A Dictionary of Interesting and Important Dogs Peter Conradi, Peter J. Conradi, 2019-11-07. Tin Tin's Snowy Odysseus's Argos Darwin's Polly Mary Queen of Scots's 22 lap dogs Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Flush. Behind every great man or woman is a dog. A Dictionary of Interesting and Important Dogs is a rich compendium of the world's most significant and beloved dogs. Embracing the intriguing and the provocative, the essential and the trivial, Peter J. Conradi forays into history, literature, and personal anecdotes to unearth a treasure trove of canine characters. Discover the stories behind Karl Marx's and his daughter's Dogberry Club, the lapdogs who were secreted in first class cabins on the Titanic, and how they survived. Edinburgh's Greyfriars Bobby, who stayed by his master's grave for 14 years, and the one undisputed fact about Shakespeare: his singular dislike for dogs. A Dictionary of Interesting and Important Dogs is a wonderful and witty homage to man's most faithful friend.

Wolves and the Wolf Myth in American Literature S.K. Robisch, 2009-05-28. The wolf is one of the most widely distributed canid species historically ranging throughout most of the Northern Hemisphere. For millennia it has also been one of the most pervasive images in human mythology, art, and psychology. Wolves and the Wolf Myth in American Literature examines the wolf's importance as a figure in literature from the perspectives of both the animal's physical reality and the ways in which writers imagine and portray it. Author S. K. Robisch examines more than two hundred texts written in North America about wolves or including them as central figures. From this foundation, he demonstrates the wolf's role as an archetype in the collective unconscious, its importance in our national culture, and its ecological value. Robisch takes a multidisciplinary approach to his study, employing a broad range of sources: myths and legends from around the world, symbology, classic and popular literature, films, the work of scientists, in a number of disciplines, human psychology, and field work conducted by himself and others. By combining the fundamentals of scientific study with close readings of wide-ranging literary texts, Robisch astutely analyzes the correlation between actual living wolves and their representation on the page and in the human mind. He also considers the relationship between literary art and the natural world and argues for a new approach to literary study: an ecocriticism that moves beyond anthropocentrism to examine the complicated relationship between humans and nature.

The Hidden Life of Life Elizabeth Marshall Thomas, 2018-03-03. An iconoclast and best-selling author of both nonfiction and fiction, Elizabeth Marshall Thomas has spent a lifetime observing, thinking, and writing about the cultures of animals such as lions, wolves, dogs, deer, and humans. In this compulsively readable book, she provides a plainspoken, big picture look at the commonality of life on our planet from the littlest microbes to the largest lizards Inspired by the idea of symbiosis in evolution that all living things evolve in a series of cooperative relationships Thomas takes readers on a journey through the progression of life Along the way she shares the universal likenesses experiences and environments of Gaia s creatures from amoebas in plant soil to the pets we love from proud primates to Homo sapiens hunter gatherers on the African savanna Fervently rejecting anthropodenial the notion that nonhuman life does not share characteristics with humans Thomas instead shows that paramecia can learn plants can communicate humans aren t really as special as we think we are and that it doesn t take a scientist to marvel at the smallest inhabitants of the natural world and their connections to all living things A unique voice on anthropology and animal behavior Thomas challenges scientific convention and the jargon that prevents us all from understanding all living things better This joyfully written book is a fascinating look at the challenges and behaviors shared by creatures from bacteria to larvae to parasitic fungi a potted hyacinth to the author herself and all those in between

Dog's Best Friend Mark Derr,2004-04 A comprehensive humane and bemused tour of the dog human relationship Dog s Best Friend combines anecdote research and reportage to illuminate our complex rapport with our cherished canine companions Tracking our national obsession with an animal that now outnumbers children in American households Mark Derr chronicles the evolution of the culture of the dog from the prehistoric domestication of tamed wolves to the modern horrors of overbreeding and inbreeding Passionate about his subject and intent on sharing his zeal Derr defends dogs with wit and flare producing here a quirky informative and fitting tribute to our love affair with canines big and small

Dog's Best Friend? John Sorenson,Atsuko Matsuoaka,2019-11-14 In almost 40 per cent of households in North America dogs are kept as companion animals Dogs may be man s best friends but what are humans to dogs If these animals loyalty and unconditional love have won our hearts why do we so often view closely related wild canids such as foxes wolves and coyotes as pests predatory killers and demons Re examining the complexity and contradictions of human attitudes towards these animals Dog s Best Friend looks at how our relationships with canids have shaped and also been transformed by different political and economic contexts Journeying from ancient Greek and Roman societies to Japan s Edo period to eighteenth century England essays explore how dogs are welcomed as family consumed in Asian food markets and used in Western laboratories Contributors provide glimpses of the lives of street dogs and humans in Bali India Taiwan and Turkey and illuminate historical and current interactions in Western societies The book delves into the fantasies and fears that play out in stereotypes of coyotes and wolves while also acknowledging that events such as the Wolf Howl in Canada s Algonquin Park indicate the emergence of new popular perspectives on canids Questioning where canids belong how they should be treated and what rights they should have Dog s Best Friend reconsiders the concept of justice and whether it can be extended beyond the limit of the human species the human places us immediately inside an ever widening field of contrasting labels animate and inanimate natural and artificial living and dead organic and mechanistic These and other boundary confusions at the frontier of the human are the subject of this volume as each essay takes up one of three disputed border identities animals things or children Human All Too Human examines how we explain our interest in anthropomorphism and our fascination with species categorizations Essays explore what we mean by things and how the integrity of the human may already be compromised by them The nine essays in this volume all attempt to rethink the category of the human challenging some of our most cherished cultural classifications By inviting us to place the traditions subject of knowledge in the unsettling position of object these writers interrogate the boundary distinctions that until now have exempted the human from the vigilant analysis it so urgently requires Contributors Nancy Armstrong Rey Chow Drucilla Cornell Diana Fuss Marjorie Garber Barbara Johnson Cora Kaplan James Kincaid Harriet Ritvo David Willis
