The Icon Kurt Weitzmann,1978 The Icon Kurt Weitzmann,1978-01-01 The Icon Holy Images Kurt Weitzmann,1978 Patristic Perspectives on Luke's Transfiguration Peter Anthony,2022-03-24 Peter Anthony explores how visionary elements in Luke's Gospel had a particular influence on early interpretation of the Transfiguration by examining the rich hermeneutical traditions that emerged particularly in the Latin West as the Transfiguration was first depicted visually in art Anthony begins by comparing the visual and visionary culture of antiquity with that of the present and their differing interpretations of the Transfiguration He then examines the Transfiguration texts in the synoptic gospels and their interpretation in modern scholarship and the reception of the Transfiguration in 2 Peter the Apocalypse of Peter and the Acts of Peter Tertullian and Origen Proceeding to look at interpretations found in the Greek East and the Latin West Anthony finally discusses the earliest visual depictions of the Transfiguration from the sixth century onward drawn from a wealth of different art forms Anthony concludes that early commentators and artists understanding of how we see and visualise and therefore how the Transfiguration was apprehended is closer to that of the writers of the New Testament than many modern interpreters is Portrayed on the Heart Cynthia Hahn,2001-11-20 Hagiography or writing about and illustrating the lives of saints was one of the most creative areas for artistic inspiration in the literature and arts of the Middle Ages This book explores the sumptuously illustrated saints lives that were made in medieval Europe Cynthia Hahn discusses a broad range of manuscripts and other artifacts many of which are reproduced here and provides an analysis of their pictorial and narrative structure Hahn's book is a virtual compendium of images many rarely published as well as a learned study that deepens our understanding of the role of various types of saints the nature of their audience and the historical moment when individual works were produced After two informative introductory chapters setting the historical and narrative context of pictorial hagiography Hahn considers the Lives of Martyrs and Virgins Bishops Monks and Abbots and Kings and Queens and concludes with an examination of the extraordinary chronicles and illustrations of the lives of saints by the English monk Matthew Paris She considers such questions as Why were illustrated saints lives produced in such great numbers during this period Why were they illustrated at all given the trouble and expense of such illustration And to whom did the saints lives appeal and how did their readers use them As she addresses these and other intriguing questions Hahn traces changes that occurred over time both in the images and the stories and shows how their creators mostly the intellectual elite were finely attuned to audience reception This important aspect of hagiographic production has received scant attention in the past and as she considers this issue in light of contemporary narrative theory Hahn brings us to a fresh appreciation of these intricately illustrated manuscripts and their multiple audiences The History of Western Painting Virginia Forte,2015-07-15 Just as the great artists of history illustrated the eras in which they lived this comprehensive guide paints for today's reader a picture of the history of painting from its earliest manifestations through the present day Covering such formative moments as early Christian iconography the High Renaissance in Italy and later developments in style under such movements as the Baroque Romanticism and Modernism this authoritative guide brings to life the techniques and styles of painters throughout the ages

Texts and Traditions Peter Doble, Jeffrey Kloha, 2014-07-24 The methodology of New Testament textual criticism the critical evaluation of readings and the history and texts of early Christianity is the focus of the influential work of J K Elliott Texts and Traditions offers eighteen essays in his honour The essays by colleagues and students from his long career reflect Elliott s wide interest and impact From questions of the purpose and practice of textual criticism to detailed assessment of New Testament literature and the readings of its manuscripts to provocative studies of the reception of Jesus and the New Testament in the second century this volume will be of value to those studying the New Testament and Early Christianity

Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians John-Paul Himka, 2018-10-11 Few subjects in Christianity have inspired artists as much as the last judgment Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians examines images of the last judgment from the fifteenth century to the present in the Carpathian mountain region of Ukraine Poland Slovakia and Romania as a way to consider history free from the traditional frameworks and narratives of nations Over ten years John Paul Himka studied last judgment images throughout the Carpathians and found a distinctive and transnational blending of Gothic Byzantine and Novgorodian art in the region Piecing together the story of how these images were produced and how they developed Himka traces their origins on linden boards and their evolution on canvas and church walls Tracing their origins with monks he follows these images increased popularity as they were commissioned by peasants and shepherds whose tastes so shocked bishops that they ordered the destruction of depictions of sexual themes and grotesque forms of torture A richly illustrated and detailed account of history through a style of art Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians will find a receptive audience with art historians religious scholars and slavists

Carpentry and Building in Late Imperial China Ruitenbeek, 2021-09-13 This is a study of the world of carpenters and joiners discussing both the technical and the ritual and religious aspects of building The heart of the book is an annotated translation of the fifteenth century carpenter s manual Lu Ban jing Numerous illustrations further enhance the value of this book

The Byzantine Lists Tia M. Kolbaba, 2000 The lists were written by Byzantines who believed that western Christians had fallen into heresy and impiety Systematically addressing each fault enumerated in the lists including the Filioque fasting on the Sabbath prohibiting clerical marriage eating unclean food and crossing themselves the wrong way Kolbaba traces the likely explanations of the differences in custom and ritual between eastern and western Christians

BOOK JACKET

Passionate Holiness Dennis O'Neill, 2018-09-20 Archbishop Desmond Tutu of Cape Town once said with regard to South Africa s apartheid policy One of the ways of helping to destroy a people is to tell them that they don t have a history that they have no roots More recently he described homophobic discrimination as totally unacceptable and unjust as apartheid ever was Unfortunately it has been particularly difficult for some gay lesbian bisexual and transgender Christians to remain connected to identify with their own faith traditions because some of these traditions not only treat them as people of secondary status but also teach Christian history as though no people of same gender attraction or opposite gender identity had any noteworthy place in it and made no significant contributions at all to Christian tradition. Passionate Holiness tries to remedy this situation by explaining why acquaintance with the stories of certain saints with whom gender minorities can identify can help them to connect with their own history and spiritual legacy and empower them to face a brighter future with a sense of optimism and inclusion.

Christ the Miracle Worker in Early Christian Art Lee M. Jefferson, 2014. Images and artistic representations were of significant value to the early Christian communities. In Christ the Miracle Worker in Early Christian Art, Lee M. Jefferson argues in fact that images provided visual representations of vital religious and theological truths crucial to the faithful by which art possessed the power to project concepts and claims beyond the limitations of the written and spoken word. Images of Christ performing miracles or healings as demonstrated in this volume functioned as advertisements for Christianity and illustrated explications of the nature of Christ. These images of Christ as worker of miracles and healing form the nucleus of an extensive examination of this power of art, its role in fostering devotion and the deep connection between art and its underwriting and elucidation of pivotal theological claims and developments. The Unbounded Community William Caferro, 1996. Presented to Jaroslav Pelikan by 12 of his former students in honor of his 70th birthday, this festschrift contains 10 papers drawn from an April 1994 conference at Yale University. Topics include Anglo-Saxon monasticism and the public suitability of the Rule of St. Benedict; Dante and the problem of Byzantium; and Thomas More and Vaclav Havel on social and personal integrity. Includes a bibliography of the professor's work. No index. Annotation copyright by Book News Inc., Portland, OR.

East and West in the Crusader States Krijna Nelly Ciggaar, Adelbert Davids, Herman G. B. Teule, 1996. This work, the Acta of the colloquium of the same name held in Herten, Netherlands, is a collection of essays dealing with the relations between East and West in the context of the Crusader States. In this connection, East refers in particular to the non-Byzantine Oriental Christians, Muslims, and Jews who set the tone for daily life in Outremer to a great extent. Attention is focused upon the relations between the various communities, the social position of the minorities, and religious and cultural, especially literary, contacts and influences.

Purity Lost Steven Epstein, 2007. Publisher description.

Syrian Christians under Islam, the First Thousand Years David Thomas, 2021-12-28. This volume contains papers from the Third Woodbrooke Mingana Symposium on Arab Christianity and Islam, September 1998, on the theme of Arab Christianity in Bilad al-Sham (Greater Syria) in the pre-Ottoman Period. It presents aspects of Syrian Christian life and thought during the first millennium of Islamic rule. Among the eight contributing scholars are Sidney Griffith on ninth-century Christological controversies; Samir K. Samir on the Prophet Muhammad seen through Arab Christian eyes; Lawrence Conrad on the physician Ibn Butlun and Lucy Anne Hunt on Muslim influence on Christian book illustrations. There is also a foreword by the Syrian Orthodox Archbishop of Aleppo. The picture that emerges is of community life developing in its own way and finding a distinctive character as Christians responded to the social and intellectual influences of Islam Historical Dictionary of Catholicism William J. Collinge, 2021-08-15 This work covers the whole history of Catholicism including the periods of Christian history prior to the present divisions into Catholic Orthodox and Protestant but within the earlier periods it focuses on the story line that leads to Catholicism in the Roman Rite and particularly to Roman Catholicism in the United States The Historical Dictionary of Catholicism Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important persons and places as well as themes such as baptism contraception labor church architecture the sexual abuse crisis Catholic history doctrine and theology spirituality and worship moral and social teaching and church structure This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Catholicism Art and the Christian Apocrypha David R. Cartlidge, J. Keith Elliot, 2013-10-23 The Christian canon of scripture known as the New Testament excluded many of the Church's traditional stories about its origins Although not in the Bible these popular stories have had a powerful influence on the Church's traditions and theology and a particularly marked effect on visual representations of Christian belief This book provides a lucid introduction to the relationship between the apocryphal texts and the paintings mosaics and sculpture in which they are frequently paralleled and which have been so significant in transmitting these non Biblical stories to generations of churchgoers Phenomenology of the Icon Stephanie Rumpza, 2023-08-31 Interweaving art history patristics theology and aesthetics this original phenomenological study develops a fresh new approach to the icon Artists of the Middle Ages Leslie D. Ross, 2003-06-30 In the first volume of the Artists of an Era series Leslie Ross examines the identities of artists attributed to the most famous and influential works of medieval art These works are much discussed within the realm of art history yet the identities of medieval artists fall victim to incomplete historical records and often remain enigmatic In ten narrative chapters Ross examines this significant area of the art world including architecture iconography metalwork scribework sculpture even medieval art instruction and summarizes the lives and work of that genre's leading artist or artists Students will learn not only what is factually known of an artist's life as well as what is purely speculative but also the processes used to gather the information and fuel speculation Readers will also gain unique insights into the practices and traditions of medieval art and the role it played within medieval society A timeline chapter bibliographies a list of further resources on medieval art and an index offer additional tools to students of medieval art and art history
