The Culture of Care, An Issue of Nursing Clinics, E-Book Kellie Bryant, Tiffani Chidume, 2024-01-30 In this issue of Nursing Clinics of North America guest editors Kellie Bryant of Columbia University School of Nursing and Tiffani Chidume of Auburn University College of Nursing bring their considerable expertise to the topic of The Culture of Care. Although it has long been debated whether caring can be taught, guest editors and authors here examine best practices and strategies to provide optimal patient care. This issue will also address caring for special populations that face specific challenges and/or have been historically marginalized with a focus on Black mothers and the LGBTQ community. Contains 14 relevant practice-oriented topics including taking a trauma-informed care approach to patient care, how do we teach our future generation of nurses to provide emotional support to patients, bringing cultural humility to the bedside, healing after COVID-19, nurses and self-care, caring for patients who do not follow healthcare recommendations, and more. Provides in-depth clinical reviews on the culture of care, offering actionable insights for clinical practice. Presents the latest information on this timely focused topic under the leadership of experienced editors in the field. Authors synthesize and distill the latest research and practice guidelines to create clinically significant topic-based reviews.
