From a Ministry for Youth to a Ministry of Youth Ruth Lukabyo,2020-09-30 At a time of unprecedented secularization and declining church attendance youth ministry in the twenty first century should be doomed So why is Protestant youth ministry in Sydney vibrant and in many places growing This book sets out to answer this question which is of such importance for the future of the Australian church A pioneering model of youth ministry evolved in the 1930s and was already flourishing in churches schools and university by the 1950s Its early high point was the Billy Graham Crusade of 1959 which may legitimately be seen as an Australian youth revival The new model broke with past practice by cultivating ministry leadership by young people by promoting peer groups to nurture and share faith and by fostering ministry collaboration between young men and women The model used by theological conservatives and liberals alike and has proved both enduring and fruitful This book will engage with the model of youth ministry and the religious experiences of young people in Sydney By reading it you will not only learn from the significant achievements of young people in the past but be better equipped to creatively consider new methods of ministry for the twenty first century

Overcoming the Inbetween Tyrone Jordan,2019-05-01 Tyrone Jordan doesn t claim to have experienced all that comes with waiting on the Lord during a season of opening and closing doors in an individual s journey However he can relate to what has been shared in this book The purpose of this book is to prevent people from tapping out in the in between It s in the middle that the journey gets chaotic and pressing but once a person declares and accepts the call on their life and acknowledges their purpose is far greater than where they are that s where their journey begins The experiences in between may vary but the battles that we have to overcome is very much alike for us all Jordan hopes that the readers will embrace these truths in this book and allow it to comfort the reader in knowing that he or she is not by themselves We are here in the moment together and we are going to overcome together We speak strength and encouragement to the reader and confidence in knowing that this journey was all in God s plan for your life to prepare
